BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Gov. Green was leading in downstate Illinois with 59 per cent of the incomplete vote, and in Cook county suburbs by 54 per cent, while in Chicago State's Atty. Courtney was ahead with a 59 per cent vote last night.

The count settled into the old battle between Chicago, home of the Democratic machine, and the rest of the state. The race appeared close, but Gov. Green appeared to have the edge. Much of the territory still unheard from is Republican by stronger trends than in 1940.

Green was running ahead of Gov. Dewey in all three political areas—Chicago, the Cook county towns, and the balance of the 101 counties.

How Tallies Ran.

Downstate, 1,419 precincts out of 4,160 gave Green 309,909 votes, Courtney 212,327. Projections based on these precinct returns yielded an indicated plurality for Green of 287,000. Much Republican territory is still unreported.

In the Cook county country towns, 70 precincts out of 784, the vote was Green 16,957, Courtney 14,417. Projections indicate a final plurality for Green of 28,000.

Democratic areas in the country towns, and much Republican territory was still to be heard from. The trend of the returns so far in, indicated Green's suburban margin will be considerably enlarged.

In Chicago 3,200 precincts out of 3,904 gave Courtney 886,128, Green 625,566. Courtney's projected plurality in the city, based on these figures, was 300,000.

All told these projections gave Courtney a projected plurality in Chicago of 300,000 and Green a projected plurality of 315,000 down-

All Democrats Far Ahead in County Races

Probable Winners

STATE'S ATTORNEY—William J. Tuohy [D.].
SHERIFF—Michael F. Mulcahy [D.].
CORONER—A. L. Brodie [D.].
APPELLATE COURT CLERK—Sheldon W. Govier [D.].
RECORDER OF DEEDS—Edward J. Kaindl [D.].
SUPERIOR COURT CLERK—Henry Sonnenschein [D.].
CIRCUIT COURT CLERK—John E. Conroy [D.].

BY GEORGE TAGGE.

The entire Cook county ticket of the Kelly Democratic organization apparently was elected yesterday despite the aggressive campaign of a Republican slate headed by John T. Dempsey for state's attorney.

William J. Tuohy, Democratic victor in the race for prosecutor, had the hardest struggle. But the careful planning of the G. O. P. was futile because of the solid wall of Roosevelt sentiment, buttressed by the Kelly machine and the CIO political action committee.

Some Republican leaders early this morning hinged their hopes to the continued downward trend in Democratic projected pluralities in Chicago and the slow-coming favorable reports from the suburbs. However, Roosevelt returns racing ahead seemed to be a bad omen for the G. O. P. county ticket.

In 2,500 Chicago precincts Tuohy had 691,706 votes, 60 per cent; and Dempsey with 461,850 votes had climbed to 40 per cent. In the suburbs, 89 of 784 precincts gave Dempsey 18,165 to 11,530 for Tuohy.

Mulcahy's Lead Greater.

In the other feature race Sheriff Michael F. Mulcahy, Democrat, was running even farther ahead of his Republican rival, Leo Carr. In 2,300 precincts of Chicago Mulcahy had 664,780, or 63.1 per cent, while Carr had 388,771, or 36.9 per cent.

On this batch of city results the estimated Chicago plurality for Tuohy was 367,900, for Mulcahy, 456,500. The projections were sliding down, but were not likely to sink far enough to get Republicans into office.

Dempsey was running ahead of his other county teammates as well, on early returns. At times he was ahead of Gov. Green, in percentage of votes won, but the governor was maintaining his reputation as champion vote getter later on.

Returns on the races for state's attorney and sheriff were the only ones relating to county-wide struggles giving sizable totals before late election night. The few tallies on lesser county races could not definitely prove whether the Republican candidates were running behind Dempsey and Carr.

Expected to Trail.

In other words, personal activity of a candidate in his home neighborhood might result in early returns showing him stronger than

Luce Leading, Fish Defeated for Congress

BY WALTER TROHAN.

Late reports from rural areas put Clare Booth Luce [R., Conn.], who lent glamor to Republican campaign platforms, into the lead by 94,505 votes to 85,825 for Miss Margaret E. Connors, her Democratic lawyer opponent. The latter had leaped into an early impressive lead, but the blonde playwright, who had assailed the New Deal, beat her way back.

Defeat came to another critic of the administration's foreign policy, who had been singled out for attack by the administration. Hamilton Fish of New York's 29th district conceded defeat to his Democratic opponent, Augustus W. Bennett. Fish was seeking reelection for a 13th term.

Nye Faces Battle.

Up in North Dakota Gerald P. Nye, another Republican critic of Roosevelt policy, was facing the fight of his career in a three cornered race with Gov. John Moses, Democrat, and Lynn R. Stambaugh, Indepehdent. Early returns gave Moses a 2 to 1 lead over Nye, but the senator's strong rural areas had not been tapped in the meager reports.

In New York state a Democratic veteran, Robert F. Wagner, author of the Wagner labor relations act and warm friend of the President, was holding a narrow lead over Thomas J. Curran, Republican New York secretary of state.

Heading Democratic winners who had expected difficulty were Alben W. Barkley, senate majority leader, who took Kentucky over Republican James Park, and Millard E. Tydings [D., Md.], who won handily over Blanchard Randall Jr.

Other Democratic Winners.

Other Democratic winners included Lister Hill [D., Ala.], Carl Hayden [D., Ariz.], Gov. Olin Johnston in South Carolina, Gov. Clyde Hoey in North Carolina, and Rep. William J. Fulbright in Arkansas.

Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts was an easy victor for his state's senatorial seat. Other Republican winners included Senators Taft of Ohio, Reed of Kansas, Tobey of New Hampshire, Gurney of South Dakota, and Aiken of Vermont.

As congressional returns came in slowly, Democrats picked up enough seats to stop the Republican threat of capturing control of the house. The present congress has 214 Democrats, 212 Republicans, four minor party seats, and five vacancies.

Senate returns indicated the Republicans had no chance of realizing their slim hopes of capturing control of that body.

UPSTATE N. Y. TALLY PUSHES DEWEY AHEAD

Loses Syracuse to the President.

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey held tenaciously to a slim lead tonight in New York state, whose 47 votes represent the No. 1 electoral prize.

Dewey's early margin was cut down steadily as President Roosevelt's plurality in Democratic New York City mounted. The President, too, made an unexpectedly strong showing in traditionally Republican upstate.

Dewey, 1,129,008; Roosevelt, 1,103,677.

F. D. R. Carries Syracuse.

The President carried Rochester, Syracuse, and Auburn. Normally Republican Syracuse, which gave the late Wendell L. Willkie a 10,064 plurality in 1940, went to Roosevelt by 4,093.

Rochester, which rolled up a Roosevelt plurality of 20,360 in 1940, went to the President by a 19,403 margin.

In Erie county, which includes Buffalo, the state's second city, President Roosevelt was running almost two to one ahead of Dewey.

In the United States senate contest the veteran Democratic incumbent, Robert F. Wagner, led the Republican nominee, Thomas J. Curran. The vote in 662 of the state's 9,121 districts was, Wagner, 179,504; Curran, 169,124.

President Roosevelt carried the normally Republican city of Syracuse by a plurality of 4,093. Unofficial figures for the 157 districts—Dewey [R], 47,371; Roosevelt [D], 51,464.

The Presidential vote gave indications of approaching or exceeding the 1940 record of 6,304,000.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 7 (AP).—Thomas E. Dewey held a substantial lead over President Roosevelt tonight with about one-third of New Jersey's precincts heard from and with Hudson county, Democratic stronghold of Jersey City's Mayor Frank Hague, still to report with an expected top-heavy majority for his party's candidates.

Dewey had a total of 350,582 votes to Roosevelt's 307,625 in returns from 1,249 of the state's 3,657 districts. Earlier Dewey was in front two to one but the votes were from G. O. P. strongholds which usually follow the party line.

'Another Four Years,' F. D. R. Smiles

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 7 [Special].—President Roosevelt emerged on the terrace of his Hudson river home shortly before midnight tonight to tell a crowd of villagers who had staged a torch light parade to his estate that "It looks like I will have to be coming back here from Washington for another four years."

"The reports coming in are not so bad," Mr. Roosevelt declared with a broad grin. "New York looks all right."

"You know that I will be perfectly happy to come back here for good when the time comes."

"Holding His Breath."

The President said he had been "holding his breath" for a call from "a certain lady in Connecticut who is my friend who seems to be winning from another lady." He referred to the contest between Rep. Luce [R., Conn.] and Miss Margaret E. Connors, her Democratic opponent.

Mr. Roosevelt also expressed gratification that there seemed to be a possibility that Rep. Fish [R., N. Y.] might be beaten by his Democratic opponent, Augustus W. Bennett.

"There's a real possibility of a new congressman there," he said and added: "Thank God!"

Hundreds in Parade.

Several hundred persons joined in the parade to the Roosevelt home. Their shouts for the President brought some 50 house guests out on the terrace and the President finally appeared in the doorway. He was wheeled to a big oak chair and posed for photographs.

The President cast his vote at noon in Hyde Park.

At the town hall photographers were forbidden to take pictures as two secret service men carried the President up nine steps and placed him in a wheel chair. Mr. Roosevelt remarked, semi-apologetically: "I nearly fell on my face last time." On previous voting days, he has walked, with the aid of braces and supported on the arms of companions, to the voting booth

Dewey Leads Four States in New England

Boston, Mass., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Roosevelt maintained a lead tonight over his Republican opponent, Gov. Dewey, on the basis of returns from one sixth of the state's 1,852 precincts.

The figures for 477 precincts were: Roosevelt, 215,763; Dewey, 184,770.

At the same time, 201 precincts, including 96 in Boston, gave Boston's Mayor Maurice J. Tobin, Democratic nominee for governor, 64,514 votes to 54,648 for Republican Horace T. Cahill. The Boston precincts gave Tobin 38,795 to 24,589 for Cahill.

President Roosevelt's greatest strength was in the city precincts. Lynn gave him 26,647 to 19,519 for Dewey on the basis of a quick unofficial count. Dewey, however, carried Brockton.

Tabulating was slow in generally Democratic Boston which has only two machine equipped precincts out of 395.

Boston gave Roosevelt a 90,000 plurality in 1940 when he carried the state by 136,000.

CONNECTICUT.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 7 (AP).—The first Connecticut city to complete its count in the Presidential election today—Meriden—gave President Roosevelt a plurality of 1,800 as against the 2,969 he received four years ago.

The tally in 16 towns out of 169 gave Roosevelt 115,256 to 91,987 for Gov. Dewey.

MAINE.

Portland, Me., Nov. 7 (AP).—Maine's five electoral votes went to Gov. Dewey, Republican standard bearer, on the basis of unofficial tabulation of returns in today's Presidential election balloting.

The vote in 546 precincts out of 627 in the state was President Roosevelt, 126,965; Dewey, 138,714.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Roosevelt's 44,215 vote lead amassed in Baltimore city was being trimmed slowly late tonight as returns from the Maryland counties gave Gov. Dewey, the Republican nominee, an edge in the balloting.

Returns from 828 of the state's 1,328 polling places, including Baltimore city complete, gave Roosevelt 210,518 against 178,195 for Dewey.

NEW YORK EDGE PUTS HIM OVER TOP 4TH TIME

BULLETIN.

The latest returns this morning indicated that President Roosevelt had carried New York, the 47 electoral votes of which would secure his re-election by a large majority of the electoral college. The President was leading Gov. Dewey by 200,000 votes in New York with two-thirds of the state reported, including all but 1,000 districts in New York City.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING

FOR ROOSEVELT.

25 states.....264

FOR DEWEY.

18 states.....136

DOUBTFUL.

5 states.....109
Necessary to a choice.....266

New York	47
Pennsylvania	35
Missouri	15
Connecticut	8
New Hampshire	4

Calls Count "Inconclusive."

Gov. Dewey and Gov. Bricker, after a conference, declined to concede defeat. They pronounced the latest returns encouraging. Herbert Brownell, chairman of the Republican national committee, likewise refused to admit defeat. He said that "the returns from key pivotal states are as yet inconclusive."

Dewey carried a large part of the middle west. The latest returns disclosed that he was leading Roosevelt by a large margin in Ohio, Iowa, and Michigan. He was leading by smaller margins in Indiana and Wisconsin.

Illinois appeared definitely, however, to have gone for Roosevelt. Mayor Kelly claimed the President would have a plurality of 200,000 in the state.

Vote in Big Cities.

The big cities, in which the metropolitan Democratic machines were operating with customary proficiency, reënforced by Sidney Hillman's Communist dominated CIO political atcion committee, were coming thru with large pluralities for President Roosevelt. It looked, however, as if Mr. Roosevelt was running this time slightly behind his vote in the big industrial centers four years ago.

Contrary to predictions, fair weather prevailed in the greater part of the country and it was estimated that a far larger vote than the 45 million expected had been polled. It might equal the 50 million ballots cast in 1940 when President Roosevelt was reelected to a third term by five million popular votes.

No break in the Democratic solid south with its 126 electoral votes was indicated by the early figures, except perhaps in Mississippi, where it was possible that five anti-Roosevelt electors had been elected. They are committed to vote for Sen. Byrd of Virginia.

Their names appeared on the regular Democratic ballot, but on a supplementary ballot authorized by the legislature their names had been replaced by the names of five pro-Roosevelt electors. The soldier vote of 20,000, however, already had been cast for the regular slate and that circumstance alone might have insured the election of the dissidents.

The battle for the Presidency which ended with the balloting yesterday was the most extraordinary in the history of the country. For the first time the people were called upon to decide whether a chief executive was to be retained in power for 16 years in contravention of the tradition limiting the tenure of the Presidency to eight years. For the first time since the Civil war it devolved upon the country to choose a President in the midst of a war for self-preservation and to decide whether to change Presidents.

While defending the New Deal as the author of social reforms that had improved the condition of the common man the Democrats rested their case for the retention of Mr. Roosevelt in office chiefly on Lincoln's famous adage that it is unwise to swap horses in the middle of a stream.

A Plea for Experience.

Mr. Roosevelt was presented to the electorate as the commander in chief who was to be credited with the successful progress of the war up to date and best qualified by experience to finish the job and erect a post-war structure of permanent peace.

Gov. Dewey was presented as a virile young man who would replace the Roosevelt regime of "tired, quarrelsome, old men" with a team of vigorous, efficient, cooperative government administrators. He himself had made an outstanding record as an administrator first in the office of prosecuting attorney and then in the governorship, a record that contrasted sharply with Mr. Roosevelt's self-admitted lack of administrative ability.

The horse swapping argument the Republicans met with the promise that Mr. Dewey, if elected, would retain the army and navy commanders who have won the nation's victories and would assure them complete latitude to prosecute the war to a successful conclusion without interference by the chief executive in technical military matters—an allusion to Mr. Roosevelt's fondness for the role of chief military strategist.

Pledges More Efficiency.

By introducing efficient administration Gov. Dewey promised a more efficient conduct of the war and a speedier victory at less cost in blood and substance.

To the Democratic claims of omniscence and proficiency for Mr. Roosevelt as commander in chief the Republicans retorted that if he were to be credited with battles won he must also be blamed for battles lost, notably Pearl Harbor, where the President's failure to order an alert against attack after serving Japan with his secret ultimatum of Nov. 26, 1941, resulted in the greatest military disaster in our history, put out of commission half our strength in capital ships, destroyed our air force in the Pacific, took the lives of 3,000 soldiers and sailors, and prolonged the war with Japan at tragic cost.

The Democrats always skipped lightly over Pearl Harbor, and the President never offered a defense. The report on the disaster was held in secrecy until after the election.

Hit at Secret Diplomacy.

As to the argument that Mr. Roosevelt is best equipped to negotiate the peace and take the leadership in the planning of a post-war world peace organization Gov. Dewey took the position that this whole undertaking would benefit by a change from the secret, one man diplomacy in which the President has tangled our foreign affairs. By an agreement with Secretary of State Hull on the principles of post-war peace coöperation Mr. Dewey succeeded in eliminating this question almost entirely from the campaign.

Gov. Dewey took the position that the war in Europe is nearly won, that the defeat of Japan thereafter is assured, and that the major problems with which the next administration will be called upon to deal are the problems of conversion from war to peace and the problems of peace time economy.

The problem of providing full employment after the war, he said, brings into sharp contrast Republican and New Deal ideologies.

Clash with Collectivism.

He quoted Mr. Roosevelt's conception that the American economy is mature, that it only remains to divide up what is left and that government planned and directed enterprise must be relied upon to provide jobs. This collectivist plan, he pointed out, is one reason the Communists favor the New Deal.

As proof of the failure of this philosophy Mr. Dewey cited the fact that there were still 10 million unemployed after the first eight years of the New Deal. He conceived of America as a land of unlimited opportunity in which private enterprise for profit freed of New Deal repression and regimentation, and encouraged to expand by tax reduction would be able to provide full employment.

The clash between the Republican and New Deal ideologies was dramatized by the part taken in the campaign by Earl Browder's Communists and Sidney Hillman's Communist dominated CIO political action committee.

It Starts at Teheran.

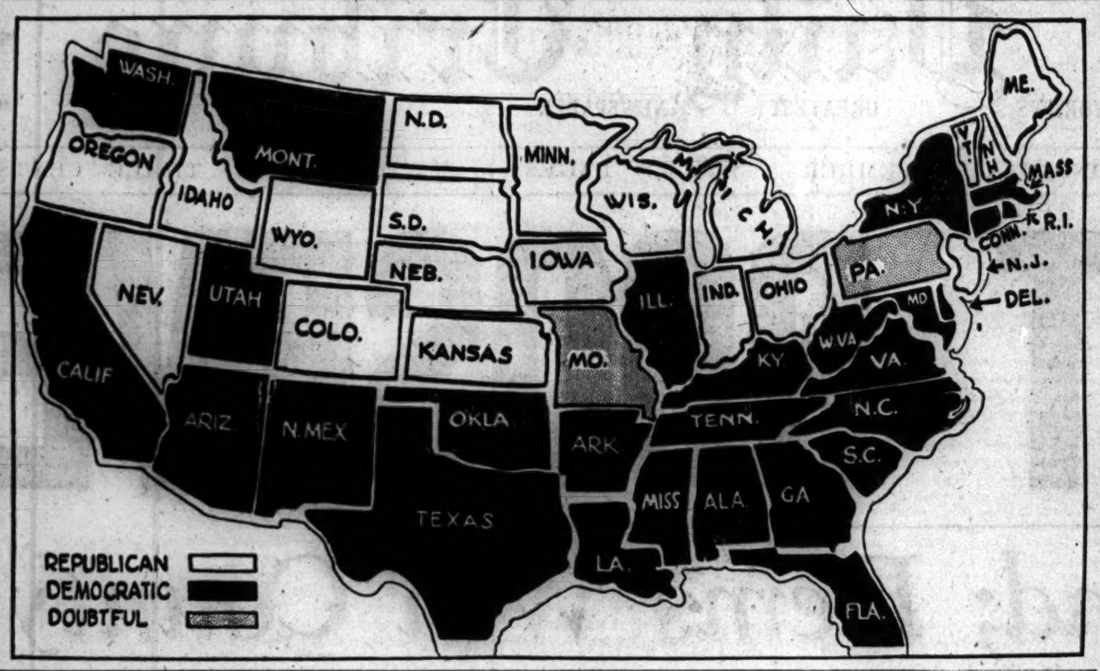
The history of this phase of the election contest goes back to the Teheran conference at which Mr. Roosevelt tacitly agreed to Russian Dictator Stalin's program for the annexation of half of Poland and the sovietization of the remainder and of eastern Europe generally. Browder hailed this as a great Russian diplomatic victory and promptly dissolved the American Communist party and declared for the fourth term.

The Communists already had bored into the CIO and placed Hillman in charge of its political action committee. In March Browder's Communists who had infiltrated the American Labor party won control and placed Hillman in charge. From that moment it was said that Mr. Roosevelt had become the prisoner of the Communists, for he could not hope to be elected without the American Labor party's 400,000 votes in New York. But for these votes he would have lost New York in 1940.

Altho Hillman is not a Democrat, he and his PAC took virtual possession of the fourth term drive, pushing the Democratic national committee into the background.

Hillman, overshadowing Democratic National Chairman Hannegan, went to the Democratic National convention and set himself up in a suite at the Ambassador East hotel as a sort of political pooh bah. Mr. Roosevelt was reputed to have instructed Hannegan to "clear everything with Sidney" and Hannegan did clear the Vice Presidential nomination with Hillman, who rejected "Assistant President" Jimmy Byrnes and Sen. Barkley and approved Sen. Truman.

Tentative Lineup of States in National Election



HILLMAN LAUDS VOTE OUTCOME; PAC TO REMAIN

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Sidney Hillman, chairman of the CIO political action committee and the National Citizens PAC, said at midnight tonight: "The American people have reaffirmed the faith and confidence they repose in a great American and an outstanding leader by voting to return President Roosevelt to office."

Hillman, who was made an issue during the campaign, told reporters at a CIO-PAC election night celebration at the Hotel Commodore that the CIO-PAC "is expected to continue."

"The election is a stunning repudiation of the anti-labor isolationist and defeatist element who based their campaign on bigotry and prejudice," he said.

"We are proud of the contribution to the happy result made by the CIO-PAC and the NCPAC."

Dewey Wins Home Town and Mr. Roosevelt's, Too

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey defeated President Roosevelt, his Dutchess county neighbor, today in the town of Hyde Park, home of the President, and in the town of Pawling, where the governor owns a farm. Dewey carried Hyde Park 1,522 to 1,181 and Pawling, 972 to 476. The President never has carried Hyde Park. Dewey also carried Poughkeepsie with 10,304 votes to the President's 9,548.

to 32,323 over Dewey. The state's absentee service vote of 36,920 was not included and will not be counted before Thursday.

However, Maryland's eight electoral votes seemed likely to land in the Roosevelt column. The President carried Maryland in 1940.

DELAWARE.

With 130 of the state's 250 precincts reporting, the vote was 28,404 for Roosevelt and 19,934 for Dewey.

Lt. Gov. Isaac J. MacCollum [D.], had 25,011 in the governorship race, against 23,876 for Walter W. Bacon [R.], incumbent.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Manchester, N. H., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey held a slight lead over President Roosevelt with about one-half of the ballots cast today tabulated unofficially.

With 150 of the state's 296 towns and wards reported, Dewey had 32,825 and Roosevelt 29,395.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 7 (AP).—The entire Democratic ticket in Rhode Island swept into office tonight by overwhelming pluralities.

Republican candidate for governor, Norman D. MacLeod, and State Sen. Charles T. Altgren and Charles A. Curran, Republican candidates for the house of representatives, conceded victory shortly after 11 o'clock.

With 260 of 261 voting districts reported, President Roosevelt, who led by a plurality of 44,706, polled 158,814 votes against 114,108 for Gov. Dewey.

VERMONT.

Montepelier, Vt., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey carried traditionally Republican Vermont on the basis of nearly complete returns tonight.

The G. O. P. standard bearer polled 60,241 votes to 43,173 for President Roosevelt with 228 of the state's 246 cities and towns reporting.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 7 (AP).—West Virginia, which gave its electoral vote to President Roosevelt four years ago, was establishing a trend in that direction again tonight.

In 637 out of 2,793 precincts Roosevelt had 89,488 votes to Gov. Dewey's 72,518.

MISSION IN ASIA REMAINS SAME, YANKS ARE TOLD

NEW DELHI, India, Nov. 7 (AP).—Lt. Gen. Sultan, in his first speech to American troops as their commander in the India-Burma war theater, said today that recent developments such as the recall of Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell have changed "neither our mission nor our strategy."

"Our mission remains an important one," he declared. "It is one of making a positive contribution to the war in the Pacific. The Chinese army in China has tied up numerous Japanese divisions which would be used and could still be used against our forces in the Pacific.

"Our job, therefore, is to open the Burma road so heavy equipment, impossible to move by air, can be gotten to the 14th air force, so that artillery may be gotten to the Chinese armies, so that we may make a last concerted rush, shoulder to shoulder with Gen. MacArthur and Adm. Nimitz to end the reign of the Jap once and for all."

'WOW!' TRUMAN EXCLAIMS—AND PLAYS THE PIANO

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 7 (AP).—When election reports slackened momentarily tonight, Sen. Truman, holding open house for friends in his Hotel Muehelbach penthouse, paced the floor with his hands behind him and remarked smilingly, "Everybody around here is nervous but me."

At this point, a radio announcement blared out that incomplete returns indicated Missouri might go Republican.

With that remark he sat down to the grand piano in his suite and amazed the group of friends and reporters gathered there with a professional-like rendition of Paderewski's difficult "Minuet."

As he finished, Truman turned and told the applauding audience, "Gentlemen, I wish I had stayed with music [pause]—along with politics."

93, Has Ambulance Stop at Polls for Dewey Vote

GREEN LEADING DOWNSTATE IN GOVERNOR RACE

state and in the country towns. And the bulk of the territory to be heard from is Republican.

In the race for the senate, 1,164 precincts out of 4,160 gave Richard Lyons, 239,805; Sen. Lucas, 182,525. Lyon's percentage was 57; Lucas, 53. In Chicago, 2,800 precincts out of 3,804, gave Lyons, 487,017; Lucas, 822,054. Lyons' percentage was 37 per cent, while Lucas had 63 per cent, the same as Roosevelt.

Green Confident.

Gov. Green, at 1:30 o'clock this morning, said ffihe was confident of victory, and believed Richard Lyons had been elected UUnited States attorney. Lyons said he would wait longer before making a statement.

"I am still confident of victory," said Gov. Green. "However, I will await further returns before making a formal statement.

"The split votes are not counted yet and certainly they are not shown in the returns available thus far. The entire straight vote count is not yet in, either, and it is my opinion our vote is mounting every minute.

G. O. P. Picking Up.

"There are still many thousands of votes to report and those we are getting now show we are winning by a large enough majority downstate to make victory certain. All Republican candidates are picking up as the downstate vote returns are tabulated."

The voting was heavy and in Chicago looked like a record breaker. Not enough downstate figures had come in to determine the size of the total vote.

In Gallatin county on the Ohio river, Roosevelt in six precincts out of 17 had 52 per cent, where he had 56 per cent in 1940.

Early Scattered Returns.

In Boone county in the north, five precincts in Belvidere gave Dewey 1,414, and Roosevelt 516. Dewey's percentage here is about the same as the Republican margin in 1940.

The first return from Elgin in Kane county gave Dewey 193, Roosevelt, 74. In percentages Dewey has 72 per cent where Willkie had 62.

One precinct in Kankakee gave Dewey 180, Roosevelt 85. Dewey's percentage was 68, where, in 1940, the Republicans had 64. Four precincts from Pontiac in Livingston county gave Dewey 787, Roosevelt 267. Dewey's percentage was 75, where Willkie got 64.

In southern Illinois similar trends were noted in the first returns in Democratic territory of old. In Marion county one Centralia precinct gave Dewey 510, Roosevelt 395. Dewey's share was 56 per cent, where Willkie had 43.

Dewey Climbs over 1940.

In Johnson county five precincts in Vienna and vicinity gave Dewey 1,387, Roosevelt 641. Dewey's percentage was 68 while in 1940 the Republicans had 63.

The first precinct from Bloomington, in the heart of the corn belt, gave Dewey 104, Roosevelt 37. Dewey's percentage was 74, in a county in which Willkie had 55.

One precinct in Peoria gave Dewey 224, Roosevelt 143. Dewey's per cent was 61, Willkie's was 45. This may be a residential precinct, and in industrial precincts the percentage may be somewhat lower.

One precinct in Rock Island gave Dewey 222; Roosevelt, 115. Dewey has 56 per cent in this precinct while Willkie got 42 per cent in the county in 1940.

Winnebago Results.

In 27 precincts from Winnebago county, mostly in and around Rockford, Dewey received, 5,296; Roosevelt, 4,553. Dewey's percentage was 54; Willkie's was 52 four years ago.

One La Salle precinct gave Dewey 227; Roosevelt, 147. Dewey has 61 per cent; Willkie had 46 per cent in the county.

Five precincts, one county and four city out of 43 in Morgan county, report Dewey 1,066; Roosevelt 726. One of these precincts, Woodson, has never been known to go Republican. Dewey carried by 8 votes.

Voters streamed to the polling places in such numbers that some precincts had to call for more ballots. Supplies ran low because of underestimates made by precinct officials to the election board.

In the country towns of Cook county the vote was a record breaker in areas where registration increased because of shifts in population to war industries.

Old Battle Revived.

Almost from the start, the ballot count thruout the state settled down into the old battle of whether, and by how much, Republican majorities outside Chicago might prevail over Democratic majorities in the city, home of the Democratic machine.

No returns were in as yet on candidates for minor state-wide offices, but reports before the polls closed were that the state tickets are, in the main, running along with the heads of the tickets. If the race proves to be extremely close, there might be some upsets on the minor places, as sometimes happens.

Earle B. Searcy, veteran Republican state senator of Springfield, the early flashes indicate, is romping ahead of Casmir Griglik of Chicago for state Supreme court clerk in the downstate vote.

Stephen A. Day, Republican congressman at large, in fragmentary reports from downstate, is leading Mrs. Emily Taft Douglas, of Chicago, wife of a marine captain.

THESE FLYERS BUILD RADIO STATION FOR PROGRAMS THEY LIKE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Officers and men at one Flying Fortress base in Britain get their radio programs as they like them thru a private station they built themselves, it was revealed tonight. The technical staff of station VTV [Valor to Victory] is headed by Staff Sgt. Casimir P. Surek of Chicago, who installed the control table and amplifiers. The station, equipped with a main studio with double glass window and soundproof walls, transmits entertainment and "sugar coated" lectures to the barracks and buildings of the dispersal sites by means of 200 loudspeakers.

Staff Sgt. Clifford T. Owens, Murphysboro, Ill., of this base, recently guided a battle damaged Fortress safely back home after a raid on Germany. Owens accomplished the feat despite lack of oxygen.

DEWEY'S STAFF FINDS RETURNS 'ENCOURAGING'

Governor Says Campaign Helps Nation.

New York, Nov. 7 [Special]. — Early returns from today's national election were described by members of Gov. Dewey's staff tonight as "very encouraging," particularly in the pivotal states of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

The Republican Presidential nominee studied the first reports at national committee headquarters in the Roosevelt hotel after dining with friends.

Receiving the returns with him were Mrs. Dewey, Republican national Chairman Herbert Brownell Jr., and Mrs. Brownell, Elliott V. Bell, one of his chief campaign advisers, and Mrs. Bell.

In a brief speech to party workers late in the day, the candidate declared that "whatever the outcome, I think we have made a fighting contribution toward the unity of our country, toward the war effort and the peace to come."

Talks in Hotel Hallway.

He spoke informally and extemporaneously in the hallway of the Roosevelt hotel 10th floor, surrounded by a couple of hundred workers from the party offices. He came to the floor with Mrs. Dewey from their apartment on the 15th floor.

"I dropped down just to shake hands with all of you," Dewey said. "I am deeply grateful to every one of you for a magnificent job. Never before has a campaign received such courteous and wholesome respect from thruout the country—and this goes right down to the person who was responsible for sticking the right letter in the right envelope.

"In serving the people's political machinery you have served your country—and the country will benefit, regardless of who wins."

Grateful for Aid.

A reception line formed and the Gov. and Mrs. Dewey had smiles and handshakes for all the headquarters' paid and volunteer workers. He wasn't seeking votes. They were all Republicans. He was genuinely grateful, and they beamed pleasure with his payment in praise.

Gov. and Mrs. Dewey arrived here from Albany shortly after noon and were driven to a polling place in 48th street, just off Park avenue. A queue of men and women, waiting their turns to vote, cheerfully waited longer for the spectacle of the candidate and his wife entering voting machine booths before newspaper and movie cameras.

VOTERS BACKING 2 AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

Returns from Chicago, Cook county, and downstate early this morning indicated that amendments to the state constitution lifting the one term restriction on sheriffs and county treasurers and changing the banking act will be approved by substantial margins.

In the city the 3 million dollar bond issue to provide more street lighting appeared to be winning by a vote of almost 4 to 1, and two propositions to amend the Municipal court act had been approved by more than 2 to 1.

In Cook county 521 precincts out of 4,588 showed a vote of 52,935 to 26,132 for the sheriffs-treasurers amendment and 54,011 to 20,289 for the banking act amendment. Downstate in 125 out of 4,160 precincts, the vote for the sheriffs-treasurers amendment was 11,934 to 7,725, and 11,937 to 5,716 for the banking act amendment.

In the city the lighting bond proposition won by 83,625 to 23,137 in 400 out of 3,804 precincts, and the voters in the same territory approved the Municipal court act changes by 39,902 to 15,928 and 33,096 to 13,739.

NEBRASKA VOTES RESOUNDING 'NO' TO PROHIBITION

The proposal to ban possession and sale of intoxicating liquors was losing by more than two-to-one with enough returns in to establish the decision.

Returns from 407 of the state's 2,026 precincts showed a 61,765 to 34,922 vote against the ban.

Two factors were considered paramount in defeat of the ban: The state's resentment against the proposal being brought up in the absence of Nebraskans in the armed forces, and the dislike for new taxes which opponents said would be necessary to replace liquor tax.

BABY BUGGY STOLEN.

Warren Sherrer of 1406 E. 57th st., a federal employe on the University of Chicago campus, reported to police yesterday that a baby buggy valued at $75 was stolen Monday from the rear of his home.

SOLACE FOR THE LOSER

MAYOR ASSERTS F. D. R., COURTNEY WIN ILLINOIS

Mayor Kelly last night voiced jubilation over the strength of the Democratic vote in Cook county, and from Democratic headquarters in the Morrison hotel predicted that President Roosevelt would carry the county by 400,000 and the state by 200,000.

He also predicted the election of Thomas J. Courtney, Democratic nominee for governor.

City and County Won.

"In Cook county, of course," said the mayor, "the entire Democratic ticket has unquestionably been elected and by huge majorities. In the city the Democratic judicial ticket apparently has been elected by overwhelming majorities.

"Contrary to some reports, the precincts heard from in Chicago and Cook county are truly representative—that is, the returns have come from a typical cross-section of the community. We have not actually been surprised that the President ran high in what used to be known as Republican territory within the city. Our straw polls and other tests of sentiment showed he would win these wards."

Count a Tremendous Task.

While making no prediction of the size of the plurality he expected for Courtney, the mayor said that the "trend of the voting" justified a prediction that Courtney will be elected governor.

"The great turnout of voters—the turnout asked for by the commander in chief," he said, "makes the task of tabulating the vote a tremendous one, the greatest job of its kind ever undertaken in this city and state at least."

URGE FRANCHISE FOR RESIDENTS OF WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—The Evening Star called this election day a "day of humiliation and mourning" for the "un-Americanized Americans" of the District of Columbia.

It published a black-bordered editorial by Editor Theodore W. Noyes protesting denial of the ballot to the 63,091 [1940 census] Americans who live in the national capital.

Asserting the capital's population is greater than that of 12 states, yet is denied the ballot or representation in congress, the editorial asked: "Will not the people of the United States respond so vigorously to the district's appeal that before the next national election this unjust and hurtful discrimination shall be removed?"

BIG CITIES PUT F.D.R. AHEAD IN PENNSYLVANIA

Dewey Whittles Edge in Rural Areas.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 8 [Wednesday]—(AP).—President Roosevelt swept Philadelphia by a 117,754 majority yesterday but returns from upstate Republican strongholds early today slashed his Pennsylvania margin to 47,352.

The unofficial tabulation was more than half complete.

With 5,550 of the state's 8,208 precincts reporting, the President had polled 1,207,387 ballots against 1,160,035 for Gov. Dewey.

Roosevelt's Philadelphia majority was the lowest accorded him in the three times he has carried the nation's third city.

His 1940 majority over Wendell Willkie was 177,000. In 1936, his majority here over Alfred M. Landon was 209,876. Herbert Hoover, last Republican Presidential candidate to win Pennsylvania, drew a 70,816 majority in Philadelphia in 1932.

The state's soldier vote was not included in the tabulation. Service men's ballots will be counted Nov. 22. Of 652,022 mailed out, 239,185 had been returned.

Pennsylvania's polling places were jammed thruout the day.

ILLINOIS TO GIVE DEWEY 200,000 LEAD: SCHROEDER

Dewey was trailing President Roosevelt when the statement was issued, but Schroeder said that indications were that Dewey's Illinois plurality would exceed 200,000 votes.

Schroeder's statement:

"Dewey has carried Illinois. Indications are his majority in this state will exceed 200,000.

"A general survey made by the outstanding Republican leader in southern Illinois points to a 3 to 1 Dewey lead in that part of the state. In Chicago the first 500 precincts to come in are the river wards, which are the bulwark of the Kelly machine strength. There Roosevelt is leading only by 2 to 1. Ordinarily we would expect him to have a 4 to 1 advantage there.

"The final count will show Dewey and the entire Republican state ticket far in the lead in Illinois."

INJURED STEEL WORKER DIES.

Elijah Vergin, 47, of 4534 Forrestville av., Negro, died Monday in Little Company of Mary hospital, where he was taken after a load of steel fell on him, crushing his leg, at the South Chicago plant of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation. He was employed as a laborer.

DEWEY PICKING UP STEADILY IN INDIANA RACE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey held a growing lead over President Roosevelt in Indiana tonight, after dropping behind in early reports, but Ralph Gates, Republican nominee for governor, was behind Sen. Samuel Jackson.

All Races Are Close.

With 1,334 of the state's 4,016 precincts reported, Dewey had 332,072 votes and Roosevelt 317,902. Gates had 157,027 and Jackson 171,822 in 608 precincts.

All top ticket races were running close. Returns were late because the general assembly extended the closing time of the polls two hours, and also because a record vote was indicated.

Won by Willkie in 1940.

Indiana gave Wendell Willkie a 25,403 plurality over President Roosevelt in 1940, when Gov. Henry F. Schricker was the only Democrat elected to state office.

Two Cops Answer Call, and Get a Namesake!

Birth of a girl to Mrs. Lillian Poduran, 1830 Chicago av., was aided yesterday by Policemen Matt Christ and Edman Michalik of Racine av. station. They went to her home to drive her to a hospital, but the baby was born soon after they arrived. She was the 10th baby they have helped to deliver in five years. Mrs. Poduran, whose husband, Alex, is an army private in France, said she would name the baby Maxine Edna after the two policemen.

DEWEY'S MARGIN IN OHIO REDUCED BY CITIES' VOTE

Columbus, O., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Roosevelt cut sharply into the Ohio lead of Gov. Dewey late tonight after the Republican Presidental candidate had piled up a margin of 98,170 votes in early returns.

The Republicans were leading, too, for senator, but both aspirants for governor were engaged in a see-saw contest.

Aided by Bricker.

The Buckeye state, which contributed the Republican candidate for Vice President in Gov. Bricker, favored his Presidential running mate in the first tabulations, and Dewey clung to the lead.

Sen. Robert A. Taft, seeking a second six year term, was running ahead of Democrat William G. Pickrel.

F. D. R. Strength in Cities.

President Roosevelt, who carried Ohio in his first three bids for office, was finding heavy strength in populous, industrial Cuyahoga [Cleveland] and Summit [Akron] counties, but this was countered by a strong Dewey-Bricker current in Franklin county, site of the state capital, and in rural areas.

Cuyahoga and Summit were giving a two to one advantage to Lausche.

GREAT LAKES' BALLOT TOTAL CUT BY MIXUP

Only 20 of the approximately 50 persons from the Great Lakes Naval Training center who tried to vote in North Chicago yesterday were able to do so because of confusion over whether the naval station was a part of Shields township.

The question arose early in the day when Frank Pliska, one of the two Democratic judges in precinct 3 of Shields township, closest to the naval station, ruled that altho the station was inside Shields township boundaries, it was a federal reservation and therefore separate from the township. A few sailors protested when their wives were refused the right to vote, declaring the vote was one of the things they were fighting for.

The question was referred to the Lake county state's attorney's office, where George W. Field, asisstant state's attorney, upheld Pliska. At 3:30 p. m. State's Atty. Harry Hall reversed the ruling, citing a United States Supreme court decision. A few naval station votes were registered from then to 5 p. m. Those seeking to vote were chiefly civilians employed at the station and wives of sailors stationed there.

DIES OF HEART ATTACK IN HOME.

Aaron Takiff, 63, of 1800 S. Central Park av., men's cap manufacturer until his retirement 12 years ago, collapsed in his home yesterday and died of a heart attack despite efforts of firemen to revive him.

LOOP ELECTION THRONG AMBLES ALONG TO MUSIC

Hears W-G-N, Tribune News on State St.

It wasn't the yelling, milling election night throng of the pre-radio era, but it was big enough to give the principal loop corners a holiday air.

Thousands wandered along State and Randolph sts. last night, drawn partly by the public address system which W-G-N had set up with the coöperation of the State Street council. As the announcers came on with new bulletins from the W-G-N newsroom and THE TRIBUNE, the knots of people gathered under each loud speaker would perk up their ears. The hurrying crowds would slow down, and cuss the street cars when they drowned out a part of the announcement.

Music Is Interspersed.

In between bulletins, W-G-N was broadcasting music and entertainment, and at one point the crowds were drifting along State st. to the music of the "Blue Danube" waltz.

There were innumerable private celebrations. Two very ancient ladies on State st. told anybody who would listen that they had voted that day for the first time and that they were downtown to toast the victory of their candidate. They yelled lustily each time their candidate was mentioned in a bulletin. It made no difference whether he was leading or trailing.

Auditor Takes His Ease.

A man sat down on a "Help Keep the City Clean" box on State st. just north of Randolph st., took off his shoes, and announced that he was there to get the returns and would get them if it took all night. He wouldn't tell who his candidate was.

Until a light rain began falling shortly after 9 o'clock, the night was so balmy that relatively few persons sought cozier places to listen in taverns and restaurants. When they did, they found that in many cases the proprietor had provided election returns on a radio or a public address system.

Several of the movie theaters were giving returns, but were working up suspense by keeping the bulletins on a once every two hours schedule.

DEWEY LEADING F. D. R. IN CLOSE IOWA CONTEST

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8 [Wednesday]—(AP).—With nearly half the state's precincts reported, Gov. Dewey was leading President Roosevelt in Iowa and Republican Gov. B. B. Hickenlooper was pacing the Democratic incumbent, Guy M. Gillette, in the race for the senate.

Returns from 1,193 of 2,466 precints gave Dewey 245,816 and Roosevelt 225,156.

TUOHY ASSERTS HE'LL FOLLOW IN COURTNEY PATH

Vows to Wage Continuing Fight on Crime.

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

William J. Tuohy, state's attorney-elect of Cook county on the basis of returns from more than half of the precincts, said in an interview early today he planned to follow in the footsteps of a "great prosecutor"—his present boss, Thomas J. Courtney, who was in a close cohtest for the governorship.

Tuohy, who is 47, has been chief of State's Atty. Courtney's civil law department with offices in the county building. However, he started his career as a prosecutor out on the west side in the Criminal courts.

"I have been trained in the Courtney school," Tuohy said. "He has always had the confidence of the people of our county, as shown by the tremendous vote given him each election day. He was a good teacher and a good boss. His assistants had to give the county honest service or get out.

"Honest Service or Get Out."

"That's what's going to be the policy of the office under my administration—give honest service or get out. Courtney made a great name for himself; I hope to do likewise.

"I'm going to have a problem he, fortunately, did not have to face. That is the unrest to be created by any post-war letdown."

Tuohy is an ex-soldier. The American Legion button has been in his lapel every day as he handled the civil law problems of Cook county. It was on his coat last night and this morning but he didn't mention it as he said:

"The returning service men will have to be accorded the appreciation and the understanding of a grateful government. They will be entitled to extra consideration from all."

Voices Thanks to Friends.

"They're good soldiers and good boys," he said in passing on to other subjects. He wanted to thank the public for giving him the position of trust. He is grateful for the opportunity. He is grateful to his friends who worked hard for his political success.

He had a word of appreciation for his campaign manager, James F. [Bud] Ashenden; Greg Dilion, his publicist; his fellow members of the staff of Prosecutor Courtney, and to Courtney.

The public may be assured he will be battling crime at all times, Tuohy said. His friends and admirers at Democratic headquarters were pulling at his coattails. He was being asked to pose for pictures, talk over several radio stations, shake hands here, accept congratulations there.

"I know the main part of the job is to prosecute crime and I will give it all I have," Tuohy said in terminating the interview. "But the civil branch of the office is also of great importance to the taxpayers, and I hope to do them a great service, too."

Police Cars Speed Yank Votes to Kansas Polls

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 7 (AP).—Kansas state election officials used highway patrol cars on long drives today to assure counting of soldier ballots. Some ballots came to the secretary of state today and must be at the poll where the voter is registered before closing time to be counted.

HERE'S HOW VOTERS CAST THEIR BALLOTS IN ELECTION OF 1940

Roosevelt, Democrat, 27,243,466.
Thomas, Socialist, 99,557.
Babson, Prohibition, 57,812.
Browder, Communist, 46,251.
Others, 63,471.

more general returns would bear out. However, the relative scope of the Dempsey and Carr campaigns led politicians to expect that their G. O. P. colleagues would trail.

Suburban growth pointed to a better chance for Republican success, which has been lacking in Cook county for 16 years. Suburban registration increased 21.9 per cent over 1940, to 439,869. Chicago registration in the same period increased 6.1 per cent, to 2,031,011.

Other Democrats Ahead.

For Superior court clerk, Henry Sonnenschein, Democratic incumbent, was getting 176,793 votes in 604 precincts out of 4,588, against 79,915 for Laddie T. Pelnar of Berwyn, Republican.

Other results:

For Circuit court clerk, the Democratic incumbent, John E. Conroy, got 169,213 in 587 precincts to 74,228 for Lew A. Wescott [R.].

For recorder of deeds, Edward J. Kaindl [D.] got 179,181 in 604 precincts to 76,798 for Raymond J. Peacock [R.].

YANKS SWARM IN LONDON TO HEAR ELECTION NEWS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 8 [Wednesday].—Election crowds of American officers and service men swarmed London's west end last night. Several camps gave "blanket" leave for the occasion. Service men packed Red Cross clubs and restaurants, and thronged the sidewalks around Piccadilly.

Shouts of "Dewey" and yells of "Roosevelt" alternated while election slogans echoed thru blacked out streets. Two or three west end hotels were almost monopolized by large parties of Americans, who arranged to get the latest results by telephone. The first results did not begin to filter in until 1 a. m.

The biggest radio coverage ever afforded for a political event was broadcast in Europe. American services network in Britain—ABSIE—the British Broadcasting corporation, the Overseas services, and the Algiers radio maintained running commentaries with special teams of announcers in a variety of European languages. United States stations beaming to Europe kept going thruout the night.

Last 2 Soldier Votes in London: Dewey 1, F.D.R. 1

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—The last two soldier votes cast at United States command headquarters polling booths in Grosvenor square tonight were split between Roosevelt and Dewey. With less than a minute to spare before the booths closed, Lt. Hubert Thomas of Redondo Beach, Cal., voted for Dewey, and Lt. Robert Gregory of Taft, Cal., voted for Roosevelt, they said.

WAR ON CRIME WILL CONTINUE, MULCAHY SAYS

Eleven months as sheriff of Cook county by appointment have convinced Michael F. Mulcahy, the youthful Democrat said early this morning, that the office, often a storm center of criticism, can be run to the detriment of the crooks, racketeers and gamblers and with a maximum of service to the community.

Mulcahy, 46, was elected to the office for the first time yesterday. He had been appointed by the county board Dec. 23, 1943, following the death in office of Peter B. Carey. Mulcahy lives with his wife, Alice, and his daughters, Alice Marie, 15, and Eileen, 11, at 8000 Langley av.

No Change in Policies.

"I see no reason to change the policies under which I have operated the sheriff's office during the last 11 months," Mulcahy said. "My chief of the highway police, John J. McGinnis, is a man of long experience on the city force and he has whipped his men into an efficient organization. We have the criminals and racketeers on the run and we'll keep them on the run.

"Gambling in the county has been cut to an absolute minimum. Thruout the county towns as well as in the unincorporated areas to the north, south, and west, the gamblers are yelling out loud because they're going broke. And we're going to keep them broke.

"So far as the country towns are concerned, it is not my policy to interfere with them unless law enforcement breaks down. When that happens I deem it my duty to step in and take a hand."

Cites Additional Duties.

The dark visaged sheriff-elect pointed out that while the sheriff is chief law enforcement officer for the county, his office performs many other duties. The jail, County and Criminal courts building are under his jurisdiction, he remarked; he serves the grand juries, calls the juries for the other courts, his deputies and bailiffs man the courts and serve many other legal documents.

"I believe all these duties are most important," he concluded, "that they are services in which the people are entitled to honest and efficient treatment. Since my appointment I have striven to make them right and now I pledge myself to keep them that way."

12 DEMOCRATIC JUDGES SWERT BACK IN OFFICE

Reports from 305 of Chicago's 3,804 precincts early this morning showed all 12 incumbent Democratic Municipal court judges had been swept back into office. The slate had a plurality of approximately three to one. The tabulation showed:

Gary Mayor Supplies Food to Poll Workers

An automobile and trailer staffed with two young women serving as waitresses yesterday visiting the 87 polling places in Gary, Ind., taking doughnuts and hot coffee to the workers in each place. Mayor Joseph E. Finerty of Gary supplied the idea and equipment, and paid the cost. There were no political signs on the auto or trailer.

WIVES OF GREEN AND COURTNEY IN POLLS RACE

Finish Almost Even in Casting Ballots.

Election day holds one promise for a candidate's wife, no matter how the ballots add up. She knows it's the last day she'll be a campaign widow—until next time.

At least, that was the verdict yesterday of some women who know—candidates' wives. They also observed that it was a fine day, and the Republican wives added that it was Republican weather.

Both wives of the gubernatorial nominees voted within minutes of each other yesterday at the Edgewater Beach hotel, residence of Gov. and Mrs. Green and of State's Atty. Courtney, Democratic nominee for governor, and Mrs. Courtney.

Nominees Cast Votes Early.

Among the early voters were Leo Carr, Republican candidate for sheriff, and Mrs. Carr, who went to the polls at 2220 E. 75th st. at 7 a. m. John T. Dempsey, Republican contender for state's attorney, and Mrs. Dempsey did their voting early, also, walking over to the polls at 2516 N. Mozart st. as soon as they had sent their four children off to school at 8 a. m. Dempsey's Democratic opponent, William T. Tuohy, and Mrs. Tuohy had only to walk across the street to vote at 1047 Loyola av. while their four children waited outside.

Michael Mulcahy, sheriff and Democratic nominee for continuation in that office, took time for a prediction when he voted at 8035 Champlain av. with Mrs. Mulcahy. Said he: "I know which horse is going to show in this election."

Barrett's Sartorial Line.

Atty. Gen. George F. Barrett, asking reëlection on the Republican ticket, wore an emblematic necktie for good luck—it was patterned with blue and white elephants, while Mrs. Barrett described her voting attire as "a black suit and hat and a Dewey button."

In Evanston Rep. Church [R., 10th] and Mrs. Church waited until crowds thinned to vote. Mrs. Church estimated it would be the 24th time she'd voted for her husband. Her election day outfit? Brown tweeds, she said, for the polls, but an apron and a feather duster at home, where she was preparing for the traditional Church open house on election night.

Lyons Votes in Libertyville.

When Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for senator, and Mrs. Lyons voted in Libertyville, it was amid the good wishes of their neighbors and friends. It was the 15th time Mrs. Lyons has voted for her husband, and a dozen of those times he has won, she said. Tradition figured in the Lyons' day also as they dined in North Chicago with Atty. and Mrs. Max Przyborski, a custom of every election day. Afterward they planned to be in La Salle hotel headquarters.

Emily Taft Douglas, Democratic nominee for representative at large, described her voting emotions as a matter of "crossed fingers and a prayer." Mrs. Edward J. Barrett, wife of the marine sergeant who is the Democratic choice for secretary of state, voted with her sister in Wilmette, but hoped to join her husband at the Morrison hotel headquarters later.

Casting Ballots Under Difficulties

Nurse with Her

Mrs. Delores Dow, 23, was at the polls in the Edgewater Beach hotel within an hour after leaving the Illinois Masonic hospital, where she gave birth to a son, Louis F. Dow II., nine days ago. The wife of James Dow, who is associated in the advertising business with his father, Louis F., she went to the polling place in a wheelchair, attended by a nurse.

The day was marked with stories of citizens' efforts to vote at all odds. Edward H. Dunning, 6826 N. Oakley av., home only two days from hospital, hired an ambulance to get to his polling place.

In Waukegan, Dr. John M. Palmer of 404 North av., who has been hospitalized seven weeks, hired an ambulance to cast his vote for Roosevelt, while Mrs. W. T. Hardie, 414 N. Sheridan rd., who says she's 89½ years old, took the same kind of transportation to vote for Dewey.

NEWSBOY IS ROBBED.

While riding toward Wolcott av. on 74th st. yesterday Donald Williamson, 13, of 6607 S. Marshfield av., was pulled from his bicycle by two boys of his own age and robbed of $7.50 collected on a newspaper route, he reported to Chicago Lawn police.

RADIO AND CABLE FLASH ELECTION NEWS TO YANKS

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—The army budgeted 50,000 words of election news for its overseas troops tonight to assure the men and women in foreign theaters results of the Presidential election as quickly as they were received by civilians at home.

Half of the budget was sent by radio and half by cable. Army news service, which serves army overseas newspapers, assigned approximately 30 men to work around the clock on the election story.

Principal spots ANS served included London, Rome, Paris, Alaska, Australia, Cairo, China, and the Philippines.

LATE ABSENTEE BALLOTS SENT TO PRECINCTS

By messenger, 32 absentee ballots were rushed to precincts under the jurisdiction of the Chicago board of election commissioners yesterday even after the 5 p. m. deadline for voting. Whether they would be accepted was left up to the precinct judges, but commission officials said they hoped the ballots would arrive before boxes were opened. Most of them were from men in the army and navy.

In all, 130,318 absentee ballots were received by mail, 116,117 at the board's office and 14,201 in the election department of the county clerk's office.

Early Ballots Sent with Supplies.

The election commission, said Chief Clerk John S. Rusch, sent 114,982 ballots Sunday and Monday with supplies delivered to precinct officials in Chicago and the nine suburbs under the commission.

County Clerk Flynn used messengers in sending out 250 ballots received yesterday.

Postmaster Ernest J. Kruetgen's staff was kept busy handling the special delivery election day business. Ballots received by Flynn and the election commission were placed in new envelopes and addressed to the polling places. The postoffice quit accepting special delivery mail to precincts at 12:15 p. m.

HALF MILLION CHEER RETURNS IN NEW YORK

1,150 Police on Duty at Times Square.

BY CHARLES GOTTHART.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Nov. 7 [Special].—An election crowd estimated as high as half a million jammed Times Square tonight and taxed the ability of 1,150 policemen to keep their enthusiasm within bounds.

Pedestrians, moved willingly or otherwise at a snail's pace along Broadway, were predominantly made up of the very young or middle aged. Some sailors and soldiers on leave provided the touch of youth.

A Pro-Roosevelt Crowd.

The crowd was predominantly pro-Roosevelt, which was to be expected from past Roosevelt victories in the city, and their sentiment was apparent when electric signs flashed that the President was leading.

Motor traffic was diverted from Times Square to prevent accidents, and store fronts were boarded to preserve the glass from the crush of crowds.

The election was orderly, altho mechanical difficulties with the voting machines caused delays in many polling places. The longest delay was in a Harlem polling place, where most of 350 persons waited as long as six hours until the right key was supplied to put the voting machine in operation.

Hillman to Continue PAC.

Sidney Hillman, head of the CIO political action committee and of the American Labor party, both dominated by Communists, according to often expressed charges in congress, announced plans to continue PAC activities.

Earl Browder, president of the Communist Political association, received the returns as a guest at a private party in the Commodore hotel.

G. O. P. CAPTURES SIX COUNTIES OF SUBURBAN AREA

Republican candidates for county offices in six Illinois counties in the suburban area were the winners in yesterday's balloting, incomplete returns showed early today.

Substantial leads piled up by Republican nominees in the early returns indicated they would win in several counties with total votes of 2 or 3 to 1 over their Democratic opponents. In none of the counties was the early vote close enough to give any Democratic candidate an apparent chance for victory.

On the basis of 25 out of 98 precincts in Will county State's Atty. James E. Burke, Republican nominee, appeared certain to be reëlected with 6,382 votes against 5,064 for his Democratic opponent, Anthony J. Garrity.

Will County Again Republican.

Other Republican office holders in this county returned on the basis of early returns were Paul V. Wunder Jr., clerk of the Circuit court; Robert L. Spreitzer, recorder; Herman C. Grassle, auditor, and Elwood A. Kingston, coroner. Their leads ranged from 770 to 1,400 votes. Estimates were made that they would win by average pluralities of 1,800 each.

In Lake county, Garfield R. Leaf, Republican candidate for reëlection as coroner, had 5,671 votes, against 4,621 for the Democratic nominee, Dr. Donald Cook, in 23 of the county's 103 precincts. Other Republican incumbents reëlected on the basis of these precincts were L. J. Wilmot, clerk of the Circuit court, and Harry A. Hall, state's attorney, who were unopposed; Robert J. Pearsall, auditor, and Howard L. Scott, recorder.

Seidel Leads in Kane.

Charles G. Seidel, Republican state's attorney of Kane county since 1940, received 10,988 votes in returns from the first 36 of the county's 129 precincts. This gave him a lead of almost 2 to 1 on the Democratic candidate, John Vincent, who had 5,812 votes. L. Victor Peterson, Republican coroner since 1937, had 9,988 votes, against 6,242 for the Democrat, Richard E. Geiser, who was honorably discharged from the marine corps for wounds received on Guadalcanal.

Unopposed for reëlection were three Republican incumbents, Charles F. Farmiloe, Circuit court clerk; Merrill H. Agnew, recorder, and George A. Chapman, auditor.

In Du Pake county, six of the 93 precincts gave the Republican nominees, all now holding office, leads of better than 2 to 1 over their opponents.

They are Lee Daniels, state's attorney; Paul Isherwood, coroner; Robert Haenisch, Circuit court clerk; Lawrence Hattendorf, recorder, and Robert Bradlee, auditor.

Returns from 7 of 41 precincts in Kankakee county indicated victories for three Republican incumbents and one new G. O. P. nominee. They are Joseph J. Tolson, state's attorney, and Ed P. Madison, coroner, who were unopposed; Roy J. Arseneau, recorder, and Victor N. Boudreau, who was seeking the office of Circuit court clerk for the first time.

No Opposition in McHenry.

There was no Democrat opposition in McHenry county to the candidacies of State's Atty. William M. Carroll, Coroner Harry L. Ehorn, and Circuit Court Clerk Lester Edinger for reëlection on the Republican ticket. They were averaging about 12,000 votes each in returns from 28 out of 35 precincts.

In Lake county, Ind., the most spirited contest appeared to have been lost by Charles W. Gahnon, Republican prosecuting attorney seeking reëlection. With returns in from 74 of 231 precincts, he was trailing John E. Roszkowski by a vote of 13,065 to 20,630. Other apparent winners in this county were six Democratic incumbents, Criminal Judge William J. Murray, Auditor Eugene H. Swartz, Recorder Paul A. Kozacik, Sheriff Fred M. Stults, Coroner J. Robert Doty, and Surveyor William J. Schroeter.

F. D. R. IS LEADING IN CALIFORNIA EARLY RETURNS

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Roosevelt took a substantial lead over Gov. Dewey in early California returns tonight.

The ratio in the President's favor was about 3 to 2 in populous Los Angeles and about the same in San Francisco. War-booming San Diego gave an early lead to Dewey.

The vote in 7,892 out of 14,841 precincts was Roosevelt, 773,419; Dewey, 587,896.

OREGON.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey held a narrow lead tonight over President Roosevelt in the contest for Oregon's six electoral votes, returns from 791 of 1,829 precincts giving him 65,096 votes to the President's 63,301.

COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7 (AP).—First returns from Colorado's general election tonight gave Gov. Dewey a lead over President Roosevelt. In 69 of 1,663 precincts, Dewey had 9,653 to Roosevelt's 5,704.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7 (AP).—The first Washington state precincts to report tonight gave Roosevelt 4,002, Dewey 2,771.

NEVADA.

Reno, Nev., Nov. 7 (AP).—The first 84 precincts to report out of Nevada's 280 gave Roosevelt 4,664; Dewey 4,743.

MONTANA.

Butte, Mont., Nov. 7 (AP).—Forty-one precincts out of 1,175 in Montana tonight gave Roosevelt 6,166, Dewey 5,529.

WYOMING.

NEW MEXICO.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 7 (AP).—In 142 precincts out of 892 Roosevelt was leading tonight, 18,257 votes to Dewey's 14,056.

UTAH.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 7 (AP).—Twenty districts out of 870 in the state give Roosevelt 4,043 votes, Dewey 2,669.

ARIZONA.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 7 (AP).—President Roosevelt was leading Gov. Dewey tonight 10,039 votes to 7,561 in 89 of 438 precincts.

Palm Beach Woman, 103, Ready to Vote 5th Term

West Palm Beach, Fla., Nov. 7 (AP).—Palm Beach county's oldest voter, Mrs. Lucertia Hanong, 103, cast a ballot today for President Roosevelt, then remarked: "I'll vote for him again four years from now if he runs." Her daughter, Mrs. Yeddie I. Bettner, 74, added her vote for a fourth term for Mr. Roosevelt.

FOUR DISTRICTS' CONGRESS RACES RUNNING CLOSE

BY WILLIAM SHINNICK.

Warm congressional races in four Chicago districts developed as forecast yesterday and all were in doubt, with only a small percentage of precincts reported, early today.

In the 2d, a big one on the south side, five precincts gave the incumbent, Rep. William A. Rowan, Democrat, 1,306 votes to 985 for Thomas J. Downs, Republican, whose supporters contended that he still would be a handy winner.

Busbey and Dewey Behind.

The 3d, with 74 precincts out of 678 in, gave Edward A. Kelly 14,743 to 12,497 for the incumbent, Rep. Fred E. Busbey, Republican. Busbey's friends remained confident, however, that later returns would reverse the trend.

In the big 7th, on the northwest side, 65 precincts gave William W. Link, Democrat, 15,708 to 11,248 for Charles H. Garland, Republican. Garland managers said this lead would be wiped out when new returns were received.

In the 9th, on the near north side, 13 precincts out of 233 gave A. J. Resa, Democrat, 3,724 to 2,289 for Rep. Charles S. Dewey, Republican. Here again the Republican side was undismayed.

Rep. Ralph E. Church seemed to be safe in the 10th district. Eight precincts in Evanston gave him 2,907 votes to 1,480 for his Democratic opponent, Curtis D. MacDougall, Northwestern university professor. They were running a close race in Chicago precincts.

Dawson Builds Lead in 1st.

In the 1st district, including the loop and an area south to 43d street, it appeared that the incumbent, Rep. William L. Dawson, Democrat, was building up a lead that his Republican opponent, William E. King, would find it difficult to overturn. Nine precincts gave Dawson, 2,577, and King, 1,128.

The 4th district was giving a substantial lead to the Democratic incumbent, Rep. Martin Gorski. In 16 precincts he had 5,580 to 1,239 for Leo J. Kozicki, Republican nominee.

In the 5th, Rep. Adolph J. Sabath, one of the oldest members of congress, was hardly threatened by Max Price, Republican. The 5th is a pint sized district with 112,000 residents.

Rep. Thomas J. O'Brien, Democrat, was building a big lead over his Republican opponent, Charles J. Anderson Jr., who was repudiated by his own party when it was discovered he harbored anti-Semitic views. In 141 precincts O'Brien had 36,875 to Anderson's 22,342. Iva J. Henderson, independent, got only a scattering vote.

The 8th district, a Democratic stronghold, was performing according to schedule, and giving Rep. Thomas S. Gordon, Democrat, a long lead over John F. Uczlewek, Republican, who made a valiant fight.

In the 11th, composed of McHenry, Kane, DuPage, and Will counties, there was no doubt that Rep. Chauncey W. Reed, Republican, would win over Otto J. Hruby Jr., Democrat.

EMILY DOUGLAS YAWNS AND GOES TO SLEEP EARLY Confident, but Wants to See Final Vote.

BY GLADYS PRIDDY.

While other candidates waited up last night for returns, Emily Taft Douglas went home and to bed. The Democratic candidate for representative at large said she preferred to sleep thru the election night watch, or at least what there was left of it when she left her headquarters at midnight after being told she was running behind her Republican opponent, Stephen A. Day, downstate, but ahead of him in Cook county. The Cook county vote in 424 precincts out of 4,588 was: Mrs. Douglas, 124,882; Day, 51,868.

"It isn't clear enough yet for me to know what is going to happen," Mrs. Douglas said, "so I'm just going home and to bed—full of confidence."

Plans? Master the Job!

But if she won, she pointed out, she'd be the second woman to hold the important post of representative at large from Illinois—her predecessor being Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms—and the first woman to appear on either Democratic or Republican ballots in Illinois for a state-wide contest since Mrs. Simms was defeated for the senate 14 years ago.

"If I have plans," she said, "they are simply to learn as much as possible about the job—if I get it. Right now, the best outcome of my campaign is having my daughter Jean back home with me."

Campaigned on A Card.

In early returns, Rep. Jessie Sumner of Milford, Iroquois county, congresswoman from the 18th district, was leading her Democratic opponent, Carl B. Jewell of Manteno.

"If I'm in," she said, "I just want to report I haven't campaigned in the usual sense. I only used an A card. And I expect I'll be going to Washington pretty soon."

The blonde lawyer, who began her political career in 1937 when she was elected Iroquois county judge, had decided originally not to run last January, but reversed her decision when she received messages begging her to do so from all over the country. She has served three terms in congress.

AUTO INDUSTRY IN BRITAIN HOPES FOR BIG VOLUME

MIDDLESBROUGH, England, Nov. 7 (AP).—A spokesman for the British automobile industry has predicted that at least 400 million dollars of export business a year awaited the industry for five years after the war.

Miles Thomas, vice president of Morris Motors, Britain's largest auto manufacturer company, made the prediction in a speech to the Middlesbrough Chamber of Commerce, but complained that the government was hampering management's preparations by failing to outline the tax program for the industry.

"The speed with which British goods can be offered on export markets will have a profound effect on the prosperity of this country for years to come," he added. "If we can secure a firm foothold while the markets are still empty after the hiatus of war production we stand a very good chance of creating a volume of trade that can be held in years to come."

RFC Claim of $365,655 Is Upheld Against Estate

The appellate division of the Circuit court on Monday upheld a Probate court order awarding the Reconstruction Finance corporation a claim for $365,655 against the estate of John T. Cunningham, ice cream manufacturer who died Jan. 10, 1941. The award had been appealed by Cunningham's widow, Margaret, 3030 Sheridan rd., and his son, Allen, 156 Woodstock rd., Kenilworth. The claim was based on a $254,811 note signed by Cunningham and 10 other directors of the Madison Trust and Savings bank.

MICHIGAN PUTS DEWEY IN LEAD OUTSIDE DETROIT

Voting Is Heavy in Industrial Areas.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 7 (AP).—Thomas E. Dewey led President Roosevelt tonight in outstate returns in what appeared to be a record-breaking Michigan vote, and with Detroit, the Democratic stronghold, still to report.

The vote in 341 out of 3,841 precincts was: Roosevelt, 63, 288; Dewey, 94,129.

In Detroit Oakley E. Distin, election supervisor, predicted a total vote of 750,000 or even higher compared to 584,000 in 1940 when Roosevelt's big majority in Wayne [Detroit] county almost overcome Wendell L. Willkie's outstate lead of 181,955.

Michigan counted its soldier votes simultaneously with the regular ballots.

Despite chill weather, long lines stood at most of the larger city polls all day long. In some cities the closing time ranged as late as 11 p. m. Detroit closed its polls at 10 p. m.

West Virginia Coal Mines Tied Up for Election

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 7 (AP).—West Virginia's giant coal industry came to a virtual standstill today as many of the state's 110,000 miners went to the polls. They were torn between a fourth term for President Roosevelt and supporting Gov. Dewey for whom district leaders in this state campaigned. The Kanawha Coal Operators' association said a survey of its field failed to show any mines in operation. The same situation was reported at other mines.

STEAL FUR COATS.

While a 6 foot man held him in conversation regarding a job, a smaller accomplice walked into a vault and stole three fur coats valued at $4,400, Isadore Kastil, furrier with offices at 5 Wabash av., reported yesterday to Central police.

Dewey Sweeps Dewey, Ill., Gets 160 Votes, F.D.R., 72

Dewey, Ill., Nov. 7 (AP).—Dewey carried this Illinois hamlet today. The vote was: Dewey, 160; Roosevelt, 72.

SOME 3D ARMY YANKS TOO BUSY TO CAST VOTES

BY ROBERT CROMIE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 3D ARMY ON THE MOSELLE RIVER, France, Nov. 7.—The election seems pretty remote from the mud and rain and chilly skies of France. But a brief canvas among the midwesterners of the 26th division today disclosed several were interested enough to vote, others professed interest but failed to vote, either because they were too busy or too young, while one or two were surprised to learn this was election day.

Pvt. Jim Walsh, 10518 Avenue F, Chicago, formerly employed with Republic Steel, said he hadn't voted because he has just turned 21. He didn't care who won "because I figure either man can do the job, since if he's that high up he must be pretty good."

Corp. Martin V. Brennan, 26, of 4319 S. Wells st., Chicago, who worked with Greenbaum Tannery and now operates a switchboard, said he didn't vote because he was too busy.

Doesn't Know Enough.

Lt Charles E. Okell, 24, of 630 N. Kenilworth av., Oak Park, Ill., said he didn't vote because he felt he didn't know enough of the situation from this distance, but that he favored Dewey.

Pvt. Adolph Bassi, 28, of 4434 Dover st., Chicago, said he sent in a ballot supplied by a precinct captain—Louis J. Rago. Bassi said he voted for Roosevelt because he was against changing Presidents in the middle of a war. He worked at the Dixie Vortex corporation.

Pvt. Harry Ziarnik, 22, Manitowoc, Wis., didn't ask for a ballot and hence failed to vote, while Pvt. Richard Wittman, 20, 151 N. Laramie av., Chicago, formerly employed with the Foote Brothers Gear corporation, had a better excuse—he's not old enough.

Not Much Interested.

Corp. Robert Lacey, 8941 S. Elizabeth st., Chicago, said he sent in a ballot but wasn't very interested in the outcome because he didn't feel it had anything to do with the outcome of the war.

Ohioans had a better record. Sgt. Robert Bash, Upper Sandusky, Pvt. John Asher of Barberton, and Pvt. Robert Talley of Youngstown all voted. Asher said he was thankful that as a United States citizen he had the right to vote and felt every soldier should do so. Talley said he voted because "I figure I'll have a job when I get back there if the Democrats are still in."

We found only one man with money bet. He had 500 francs [$10] on Maurice Tobin, candidate for governor of Massachusetts, against another soldier backing the Republican candidate—Horace T. Cahill. The Tobin backer is Master Sgt. Frank J. Brennan, 47, Boston, Mass., who has been a Tobin backer and a Tobin worker since the early '20s.

He was the only one we talked with who seemed to miss the election as you might miss a football game or chocolate milk shakes.

Smash Window Showing Service Star and Dewey

Joseph Ruth of 3145 N. Lawndale av. said a brick was thrown last night thru a front window of his home, in which a picture of Gov. Dewey was displayed. A service star for Ruth's brother, Kenneth, army private in France, also was in the window. Ruth is Republican captain in the 20th precinct of the 35th ward.

2d Warmest Election Day Sends Reading Here to 63

Yesterday was the second warmest Presidential election day in the history of the Chicago weather bureau. High for the day was 63 at 2:45 p. m. All-time high here for a Presidential election, O. T. Lay, meteorologist in charge, said, was 74 degrees on Nov. 7, 1916.

FRONT G. I.'S GIVE ELECTION ONLY SCANT NOTICE

BY WILLIAM STRAND.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 1ST ARMY IN GERMANY, Nov. 7.—Election day got scant attention today from American G. I.'s living in the mud and thunder of the western front. Random inquiries along the soggy trails thru the Hurtgen forest brought mostly disinterested replies from bearded soldiers trudging forward thru the mire or standing in the roadside and beating their hands together to keep warm.

Those who voted had done so days ago and for them the election was over; a number of others said they hadn't voted because the system was too complicated or they were too busy fighting. Of 16 queried only one, Capt. Charles Scott, Rockford, Ill., said he had found time to vote.

"Too Much Red Tape."

Censorship does not permit telling who individual soldiers preferred or voted for or otherwise sampling G. I. political opinion.

The following are some comments from middle westerners, who were asked about the election: T/5 Irving Carlson, Rockford, Ill.—"I didn't vote. There was too much red tape connected with filling out forms. We've had a few arguments about politics, but when you're far away it doesn't seem to make much difference."

Pvt. Joseph Reis, Evansville, Ind.—"I didn't vote because I wasn't sure what we were voting for. We haven't heard much about the election and we haven't had the time to think or talk much about it, either."

T/5 Carlos Roberts, Aurora, Ill., said that by the time he got an application for an absentee ballot filled out he lost interest, and T/5 Michael Dubick, Joliet, Ill., said he got his ballot too late.

Dependent on Army Paper.

"It seemed to me voting in this election is as important as any other duty of a soldier," Capt. Scott said. "I did everything possible to get my men to vote, but of course I couldn't order them to make out a ballot. I don't understand how men can fail to fulfill all the obligations of a democracy when they see men like those," he concluded, nodding to a truck load of German prisoners heading to the rear.

Aside from home newspapers and magazines, which arrive here weeks late, soldiers are entirely dependent upon Stars and Stripes, army newspaper, for campaign news. The paper has carried brief accounts of both Roosevelt and Dewey speeches and yesterday devoted about three columns to wind up the 1944 race.

M'ARTHUR RADIO CALLS: WHAT'S NEWS ON VOTE?

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 7 (AP).—When the army signal corps voice cast from the Philippines was set up this afternoon to handle Gen. MacArthur's bulletin, the first word from the announcer in the islands was:

"Have you anything on the election yet?"

Voters Line Up in Rain in Dewey's Home Town

Owosso, Mich., Nov. 7 (AP).—In this home town of Gov. Dewey voters were lined up in a light rain in front of every polling place at 7 a. m. Election officials called it the greatest voting rush in the city's history.

GOV. DEWEY GETS SLIGHT LEAD IN MISSOURI VOTE

Donnell Has a Margin on McKittrick.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 7 (AP).—Pivotal Missouri swung toward the Republican column tonight with returns form more than half of the state giving Gov. Dewey a narrow lead over President Roosevelt.

Most of the early returns, however, came from rural Missouri, where the G. O. P. expected to show its greatest strength. They included only a few precincts in Kansas City and St. Louis, which forecasters predicted would go Democratic.

The vote for President in 2,646 out of 4,543 precincts was: Dewey, 369,145; Roosevelt, 363,513.

For senator, in 1,473 precincts, Republican Gov. Forrest C. Donnell had 206,717 votes and Democratic Atty. Gen. Roy McKittrick, 183,708.

In the governorship contest the vote in 2,644 precincts was: Jean Paul Bradshaw, Republican, 364,616; Phil M. Donnelly, Democrat, 358,436.

The total state vote was expected to exceed 1,500,000.

Sen. Truman lost the county where he was born in his race for the Vice Presidency. Twenty out of 23 precincts in Barton county gave Roosevelt and Truman 1,524 votes while the Republican ticket received 2,157 votes.

NEBRASKA.

The vote: 532 precincts of 2,026 gave Dewey, 72,010; Roosevelt, 43,145.

Early returns also indicated Gov. Dwight Griswold had swept back into office for the third time along with his all Republican administration. Returns for governor were: Griswold, 74,930; Olsen, 22,961. The state's four Republican congressmen also were leading their opponents.

KANSAS.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 7 (AP).—Gov. Dewey, amassed a growing lead tonight in his bid for Kansas' eight electoral votes, and the G. O. P. candidates for governor, United States senator, and congress were riding along with him.

Returns from 745 of the state's 2,750 precincts gave Dewey 94,651 to 52,620 for Roosevelt.

Republican Gov. Andrew F. Schoeppel, running for reelection, was far out in front of State Sen. Robert S. Lemon [D.] of Pittsburg. Returns from 490 precincts gave Schoeppel 57,226, Lemon, 24,447.

With returns tabulated from 551 precincts, Sen. Clyde M. Reed [R., incumbent] held a lead of 62,431 to 35,612 over the Democrat, Thurman Hill.

All six Republican candidates for congress, five of them incumbents, had early leads over their Democratic opponents. State Sen. Albert M. Cole, only Republican not now in congress, defeated Rep. W. P. Lambertson in the Republican primary last August.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7 (AP).—Early returns in North Dakota gave President Roosevelt an edge over Thomas E. Dewey and put Democratic Gov. John Moses in the lead for United States senator.

In 152 of 2,254 precincts Roosevelt received 5,942 and Dewey, 4,640 votes.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 7 (AP).—Thomas E. Dewey held a substantial lead in the contest for South Dakota's four electoral votes, and Republican incumbents in congressional and gubernatorial races amassed margins approaching or bettering two-to-one in early returns.

Sen. Chan Gurney led in 247 precincts, 16,941 to 9,255 for George M. Bradshaw, Democrat.

Rep. Karl Mundt led Grover Lothrop, Democrat, 11,970 to 6,738, in 163 precincts, and Rep. Francis Case held a 410 to 155 lead over H. W. Clarkson, Democrat, in 44 precincts.

Gov. M. Q. Sharpe received 16,460 votes to 8,564 for Lynn Fellows, Democrat, in 241 precincts.

Cop Fails in Election Duty and Is Suspended

Cyrus Merrill, a patrolman assigned to the Albany Park district, was suspended yesterday by Police Commissioner Allman. Acting Capt. Robert Welling said Merrill failed to report at a warehouse Monday for delivery of election supplies, failed to report Monday for election day instructions, and was found Monday night in a tavern at 4200 Irving Park rd.

SEN. ALEXANDER WILEY.

DEWEY FORGES INTO THE LEAD IN WISCONSIN RACE

Sen. Wiley Ahead of McMurray.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 7 [Special].—Gov. Dewey was maintaing a slight lead over President Roosevelt tonight. One thousand six hundred seventy-one of the state's 3,069 precincts gave the Republican nominee 354,267 to 337,882 for the President.

United States Sen. Wiley was apparently reelected on the basis of intomplete returns. One theusand and 60 precincts gave him 157,907 votes to 85,902 for Rep. McMurray, the Democratic candidate, and 15,334 for Rep. Sauthoff, the Progressive.

Also on the basis of incomplete returns Acting Gov. Goodland was apparently elected. He had 182,451 votes to 87,745 for Daniel W. Hoan, the Democrat, and 16,782 for Alexander O. Benz, the Progressive.

Attacked as Isolationist.

Sen. Wiley was attacked as an "isolationist" by his Democratic opponent and was the principal target of attacks by New Deal orators before the election. Among those who came into the state to campaign against him were Vice President Wallace and Sen. Truman, Democratic nominee for Vice President.

Wiley conduced a vigorous campaign in which he accused his opponents of telling only part of his record.

Gov. Goodland did not campaign actively but contented himself with making a few public appearances.

Makes Few Speeches.

He confined his speaking to a few radio addresses. Hoan, who was Socialist mayor of Milwaukee for 23 years, said he was running to "unite the liberals of Wisconsin."

In 1940 President Roosevelt carried Milwaukee county by 75,000 votes and beat Wendell L. Willkie in the state by 25,615. Republican party officials announced they expected to cut Roosevelt's lead in Milwaukee county this year to 25,000. They also were confident that Dewey, long a favorite in Wisconsin, would carry the state by at least 40,000 votes.

REPORT HITLER WILL SPEAK ON BEER HALL DAY

New York, Nov. 7 [Special].—The Stockholm newspaper Tidningen said today in a dispatch from its Berlin correspondent that, according to "well informed Nazi party circles," Hitler would make an important speech tomorrow, the anniversary of the unsuccessful Nazi beer hall putsch of 1923.

The dispatch, as reported to the office of war information, said "it was not yet decided whether the speech would be made before a large audience or only to a circle of party leaders." Previous speeches by Hitler on this anniversary have been delivered before "old fighters" of the Nazi party in a Munich beer hall.

"The general opinion within party circles is that a public speech would demand too comprehensive precautions," the Swedish newspaper said.

PRESIDENT HAS LEAD OF 41,770 IN MINNESOTA

Returns from 691 of 3,703 precincts gave Roosevelt 185,115, Dewey 143,345, for a 41,770 lead.

The Democratic - Farmer - Labor party, formed last spring, had a complete slate of candidates in the field, headed by Byron Allen, their nominee for governor. Allen, a former Iowan, followed Vice President Wallace into the Democratic party several years ago.

The Republican candidate for governor was Gov. Thye, who succeeded Gov. Stassen in 1943, when Stassen resigned to join the navy.

SIGNS CHANGED; OFFICER LURED INTO NAZI TRAP

WITH AN AMERICAN ARMORED UNIT IN GERMANY—(AP).—Lt. E. Hulen Denton of Casper, Wyo., had a dangerous evperience as a result of tampering "by person or persons unknown" with the road signs along the German-Holland border.

"He left at night to go to the command posts of some forward troops," said Lt. Robert M. Batley of Detroit, Ill., "and he noted by the map that its position had not been changed. But the signs leading to it had.

"Denton drove seven miles following the signs and knew he was going too far. He stopped and lit his flashlight at an interesction to try to find his way and the Germans opened up on him with three rifles and one burp gun. He had driven right past our lines into enemy territory.

"He put out his flashlight, jumped into the jeep, and escaped. Later we checked and found the direction of four signs leading to the command post had been changed. There have been several such instances."

G. O. P. BELIEVED KEEPING LEAD IN LEGISLATURE

Early Returns Show Hot Contests Waged.

BY LEE SHASSERE.

Early returns from all 51 senatorial districts in Illinois indicate that Republicans have retained control of the state senate and house of representatives.

House contests were fought yesterday in 24 of the 51 districts. In the other 27, bipartisan agreement early this year resulted in three candidates being chosen in the primary for the three house seats in each district. Such action made the nomination equivalent to election.

Last to Be Tabulated.

As general assembly votes are the last to be tabulated in each precinct, results are slow to take definite form. This task was made more difficult as each voter cast three votes, which may be given to a single house candidate or divided between two or among three.

Predictions of hot fights in most of the contested districts were borne out by early returns. Political observers riveted their attention on Chicago's 27th district, where Joseph D. Day [R.] strove to unseat one of the three Democratic incumbents. This is the only district in Illinois where Democrats, A. L. Auth, John C. Kuklinski, and Anthony C. Prusinski, held all three house seats.

42d District Watched.

Early returns also were being scanned for some indication of the outcome in the 42d district [Clay, Effingham, Marion, and Clinton counties], where Ora A. Oldfield [R.], Centralia oil operator, was fighting it out with O. W. Wright [D.], mayor of Centralia, for the senate seat vacated by Sen. John J. Parish [D.], now in military service.

Another district which commanded attention was the 31st [Chicago], where Rep. Edward P. Saltiel [R.] and Albert L. Schwartz [D.], were running about even for the senate on the basis of early returns. This is one of the three odd numbered districts in the state where special senate elections were held. In this instance, either Saltiel or Schwartz will fill the vacancy created by the death of Sen. Milton D. Smith [D.].

New Faces to Be Seen.

Altho house and senate party lineups are expected to remain the same in number, several new faces will be seen when the house of representatives convenes at Springfield next January. Deaths, military service calls, failure of some incumbents to file for renomination, and a few defeats in the April primary brought about this situation. In 12 of the uncontested districts, 15 new members will be elected to the house.

Yesterday's election rang down the curtain on the 1944 general assembly race, which saw 303 house of representative candidates entered in the primary and only 177 emerging as nominees. Tuesday's contests reduced this field to 153.

14TH AIR FORCE SINKS 23 JAP SHIPS IN MONTH

CHUNGKING, China, Nov. 7 (AP).—The United States 14th air force sank 23 Japanese ocean going vessels totaling 38,000 tons during October, a statement said today. The China based planes probably sank 15 other vessels exceeding 36,000 tons and damaged 39 vessels of more than 68,000 tons.

One Japanese cruiser, a 225 foot naval vessel and two destroyers were probably sunk and one destroyer was damaged.

Not included in tonnage or naval vessels sunk for the month were a freighter, 92 sampans, 81 barges, 51 boats, 48 junks, 17 steamers, two launches, a tug, and sternwheeler, all less than 100 feet long.

WEATHER OVER GERMANY HALTS ALLIED AIR BLITZ

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP).—The great aerial blitz of Germany was interrupted by weather today after American and British planes had flown 25,000 sorties in three days, pounding the reich with more than 26,000 tons of bombs.

Eighth air force and R. A. F. combat planes were grounded today because of weather over Germany.

About 200 R. A. F. Lancasters raided freight yards in Coblenz last night, barely managing to get their bombs away before clouds blocked in most of Germany.

SMASH WINDOW AND STEAL JEWELRY.

NAZIS USE NEW TRICKS AGAINST NIGHT FIGHTERS

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP).—The Germans are using jet and rocket propelled planes and various other "newfangled" gadgets against allied night fighters, Lt. Col. Oris B. Johnson, Natchitoches, La., commander of a P-61 Black Widow group, said today. "In recent nights we've counted 15 to 20 jet planes," Johnson said. "They sometimes fly in formations of four, but more often they fly alone."

Johnson described a new kind of anti-aircraft missile which he said might be a phosphorus bomb. "It exploded in a large ball of fire at 10,000 feet and I could see drops of fire dripping away from it," he said. "The same ball of fire exploded several times, each time at a lower altitude. The dripping process followed each explosion," he added.

Capt. Robert Elmore, South Bend, Ind., P-61 pilot who once shot down a flying bomb over the channel, had a brush with an ME-163 rocket plane recently. "We went around two or three minutes each making 180 degree turns, but I finally lost him in a cloud," Elmore said.

ANTI-NEW DEAL VOTE CUTS F. D. R. LEAD IN SOUTH

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Traditionally Democratic South Carolina piled up a majority today for President Roosevelt, but apparently not as large as in former years, and a candidate nominated by an anti-New Deal third party was running ahead of the Republican nominee.

Returns from 663 of the state's 1,282 precincts gave Roosevelt 65,770 votes, Dewey 3,648, and Harry F. Byrd, Democratic senator of Virginia, 5,766. The Southern Democratic party, formed in South Carolina by bolting Democrats who opposed Mr. Roosevelt's domestic policies, designated Byrd as its nominee.

Tennessee: Dewey was giving Roosevelt a strong race, with the President leading by a 4 to 3 margin. In 1,880 precincts out of 2,300 Roosevelt had 213,562 and Dewey 141,551. Dewey ran strong in the eastern rural areas.

Texas: Roosevelt was far in the lead, but Dewey and anti-New Deal Democrats [Regulars] were polling a heavy vote. In 197 of 254 counties Roosevelt had 421,227, Dewey 87,172, and the Texas Regulars 64,728.

Kentucky: Dewey was giving Roosevelt a battle, but the President held a substantial lead in 2,219 out of 4,304 precincts, getting 256,499 votes to Dewey's 200,091.

Oklahoma: With three-fourths of the state reporting, Roosevelt had a 4 to 3 lead over Dewey. In 2,755 of 3,672 precincts the President had 283,462 to 219,865 for Dewey.

Mississippi: The special pro-Roosevelt supplemental slate of electors named by the legislature to replace three anti-Roosevelt electors on the regular Democratic ticket was far in the lead in 695 of 1,693 precincts. Roosevelt had 72,011, Regular Democrat, 5,139; Regular Republican, 1,997, and Independent Republican, 3,491.

Florida: In 600 precincts of 1,498, Roosevelt polled 148,354 and Dewey, 67,597. Sen. Pepper was leading Miles H. Draper [R.]. The anti-closed shop law was losing, 42,005 to 47,308 in 587 precincts.

Virginia: With most of the state heard from, Roosevelt had a wide margin, as 1,480 of the 1,714 precincts gave him 201,688 votes to Dewey's 126,620.

Alabama: Roosevelt and Sen. Hill were given overwhelming majorities. Ballots from 1,088 of the state's 2,300 boxes gave Roosevelt 115,094 and Dewey 25,403. In 325 precincts Hill had 27,484 and John Posey [R.], 6,109.

North Carolina—Roosevelt piled up a 5 to 2 lead, 1,291 out of 1,922 precincts giving him 382,029 and Dewey 158,379.

Louisiana—The President led 4 to 1 in 469 out of 1,871 precincts. His total was 109,134 to Dewey's 25,395.

Arkansas—Roosevelt had a 3 to 1 lead in 506 of 2,087 precincts, chalking up 31,959 votes to Dewey's 11,337. The "freedom to work" amendment was losing, 7,361 to 5,223 in 208 precincts.

Georgia—In 587 precincts out of 1,735 Roosevelt polled 172,276; Dewey 29,499, and the Independent Democrats 1,887.

Fear 3,200,000 Periled by Starvation in Holland

EINDHOVEN, Holland, Nov. 7 (AP).—More than 3,200,000 civilians in north Holland—slightly less than half of the population of that area—are in danger of starvation this winter, Dutch officials in the freed area of Holland said today. Presumably they also must live thru the winter without fuel, gas, with little electricity, and in some vicinities no water supply. The Germans have swept the Dutch flatlands of all harvest.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Nov. 7.—A story that Merry Fahrney, now the wife of a Mexican, Carlos Ojeda, was refused permission to enter Mexico "at Washington's request" and obliged to return to Argentina, is a pure invention, according to Merry herself. She said she has not left Bueons Aires since her marriage, but is awaiting priority for airplane passage.

Seeking Seat in Congress

Rep. Day, seeking re-election as Republican congressman at large, with Mrs. Day and Mrs. Grace Didier (left), Democratic election judge as they cast their ballots yesterday in Evanston.

FRAUD CHARGED, BUT VIOLENCE AT POLLS IS LIGHT

BY JAMES DOHERTY.

Some disorder attended yesterday's election in the city and, as usual, it was from the 1st, 20th, 24th, and 42d wards that reports of violence and fraud were most frequent. It was expected the counting of the ballots would bring many clashes but, all things considered, County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki said a big job was done with a minimum of trouble.

As to the honesty of the election, there were predictions that recounts would be asked, no matter which side won. John F. Tyrrell, Republican state chairman, said he was sure the Democrats had more than 50,000 fraudulent votes in Chicago.

"The Democrats prostituted the uniforms of our army and navy by hiring squads of soldiers and sailors to travel around the river wards voting illegally," Tyrrell charged.

Doubt Cast on 625 Votes.

The validity of 625 votes cast in the 7th precinct of the 44th ward was in doubt after it was discovered Mrs. Annie B. Jacobson, 520 Oakdale av., a Democratic election clerk, had been acting as a judge and initialing ballots.

After an investigation John F. Cashin Jr., attorney for the board of election commissioners, said the ballots should be considered void under a recent ruling by the Supreme court. The ballots were counted pending final action by the election commissioners. William C. Smith, 44th ward Republican committeeman, said he would await final count before determining whether to ask for further investigation of the matter.

The validity of 38 soldier ballots was not involved.

Among the more spectacular battles of election day was the one in which Bernard S. Black, state superintendent of lodging houses, received a fractured nose, two black eyes, and a fractured cheek bone in a fight with Pvt. Daniel Palaggi, a soldier suposedly here on furlough, outside a polling place at 2316 State st. Palaggi before his induction was a partner of Democratic Ward Committeeman Fred Morrelli.

Charges Sluggers Beat Him.

Black said Palaggi "vilified" him and they started fighting, but that several "1st ward sluggers," who accompanied Palaggi, "finished the the fight."

The soldier said Black was intoxicated.

Both made bonds on charges of assault filed by each other.

Black told police yesterday that he had a battle with Palaggi last spring when Black was a candidate for election as Republican ward committeeman.

Mrs. Emily Taft Douglas, seeking Day's seat in congress as a Democrat, as she emerged from voting booth yesterday.

Black also was slugged last Aug. 22 as a result of his political activities, he told the police at the time.

Frank Durham, vice chairman of the Business Men's committee, of which Black is the 1st ward representative, asked Judge Jarecki to invalidate all the votes cast in the 27th precinct of the 1st ward, the polling place of which was at 2540 Indiana av. He said the judges of election refused to heed hundreds of vote challenges.

Ordered Out by Policemen.

Henry Pope Jr., chairman of the committee, said four of his representatives were sent to that polling place about 11:30 a. m. in response to the reports that challenges were being ignored and fraudulent votes were being cast. They were pushed out of the polling place, according to Pope, who quoted Policeman Paul Baldwin as saying:

"Get out, or you'll get what 'Bun' Black got and I'll turn the mob loose on you."

Other watchers reported ballot box stuffing and vote buying, Durham and Pope reported.

Guy E. Reed, chairman of the Joint Civic Committee on Elections and president of the Chicago Crime commission, said his watchers reported many irregularities. He said he would have some recommendations to make after the election.

Dog Named Dewey Bites Boy with F. D. R. Buttons

Donald Aschermann, 8, of 5512 Hyde Park blvd., who was wearing nine Roosevelt campaign buttons, was bitten yesterday by a dog owned by Eugene Boroughs of 1430 Hyde Park av., the boy told police. Boroughs said the dog's name is Dewey.

6TH ARMY PLANS U.S., FRENCH RULE IN SEIZED AREAS

BY SEYMOUR KORMAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

AT U. S. 6TH ARMY GROUP HDQ., France, Nov. 7.—Planning for the coördination of American and French military government procedure in those sections of Germany to be occupied by the 6th army group is now under way, Lt. Gen. Devers, group commander, disclosed yesterday. While procedure for military rule of Germany also is being formulated by other allied army groups involved, the circumstances are different here, for Devers' command is the only one including French with American forces.

Devers said Lt. Gen. Patch, commanding the American 7th army, and Gen. de Tassigny, commanding the French 1st army, will have identical responsibilities.

"There remain, however," Devers said, "innumerable problems in respect to attainment of necessary procedural uniformity in French and American army areas."

As the provinces of Alsace and Lorraine are liberated they will be absorbed into French territory. French authorities will move without American interference to reestablish the government. American civil affairs efforts will be limited to providing supplies and caring for refugees and displaced persons.

NAZIS BRING UP NEW FORCES TO BATTLE YANKS

Doughboys Gain Slowly in Vossenack.

BY WILLIAM STRAND.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 1ST ARMY IN GERMANY, Nov. 7.—The Germans today brought up additional troops and heavy guns to support their sanguinary bid to hold the town of Vossenack for which doughboys and the Nazis have engaged in close quarter fighting for the last five days.

Veteran doughboys said enemy artillery was far heavier than they have encountered anywhere since the early stages of the Normandy battle and the Nazis are known to have more than 35 tanks participating in the battle for the little known village 13 miles southeast of Aachen.

Vossenack lies just outside a forest on the edge of the Cologne plain. It is a settlement of houses straggling for about a mile along a side road. It is a thoroly beaten up town from which all civilians are believed to have left.

Heavy Rain of Shells.

The Germans poured a heavy rain of shells along the western approaches to the town thruout the day. American artillery shelled the eastern limits, using Long Toms, eight inchers, and 240 millimeter howitzers. Inside the town fighting was too close to permit bombardment by either army, altho late this afternoon Thunderbolts dived under heavy cloud banks as low as 500 feet to attack enemy troops holding positions east of the town limits.

Advances in the town, as doughboys pushed tortuously along the main street, were measured by houses. Sometimes the Americans and Germans found themselves fighting under the same roof. Thus, it was when Lt. Jack Greene, Patterson, N. J., electrified field headquarters with the message: "Yanks and Jerries both in church. They ain't here getting married, either!"

Later he reported: "We got the church now."

Hold Firm in Hurtgen Area.

By nightfall the Americans were reported nearing the farther edge of the town, supported by tanks which were moved in two days ago over almost impossible terrain. The Germans also have tanks in the town and on the slopes overlooking a valley from the opposite side. There had not been an enemy counter-attack during the day, altho the presence of additional artillery, indicated the Germans were building up their resources.

Other American units still held firm in the Hurtgen area to the north. The Nazis continued to hold down Schmidt, south of Vossenack. The village of Schmidt is the key to the present battle by virtue of its position on high ground overlooking the Roer river and the valley leading to Duren. However, Vossenack must be secured first because it is astride the highway leading to Schmidt.

Willemstad Captured.

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—In Holland, American and Polish troops of the British 2d army captured Willemstad, ferry terminal on the Maas [Meuse] river, and smashed into the outskirts of Moerdijk on the same stream, virtually closing out the month long battle to clear the Germans from south of the Maas.

It was authoritatively estimated that the losing struggle to hold southwestern Holland had cost the Nazis from 43,000 to 46,000 troops out of an original force of 100,000. Of these, 26,000 were taken prisoner since Oct. 7.

British and Canadian troops, using assault boats and amphibious vehicles to get at the enemy thru flooded streets, virtually had stilled all Nazi opposition in Middelburg on Walcheren Island. Veere, on the northeast side of the island, was captured. Only on the northern fringe of Walcheren were the Nazis still making a stand.

British troops of the Canadian 1st army took 2,000 prisoners in Middelburg today, including Lt. Gen. Daser, 66 year old commander of the German 70th division.

The Berlin radio said British and Canadian forces had landed on Schouwen Island, north of Walcheren and Beveland Islands, in their progress up the Dutch west coast. Schouwen is one of the largest of the Dutch islands.

Win Villages in Vosges.

American and French troops in France maintained their pressure against the enemy. A Berlin broadcast reported that allied forces hitting toward the Vosges mountain gaps had reached the west bank of the Meurthe river between Baccarat and St. Die.

Allied supreme headquarters announced the French had captured three villages in an arc east of Baccarat, where they are closing in on Schirmeck and Saales passes, and that Americans seized St. Remy, Nompatelize, and La Salle at the approaches to Saales and Ste. Marie passes.

Along this mountainous front allied gains amounted to between two and three miles in the past two days. In the far south allied troops reached the Italian border along several miles of front near Menton.

Allies Battle for Vossenack

(Story in adjoining column.)

RAIN IMPEDES RUSSIAN DRIVE ON BUDAPEST

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Fighting along the winding eastern front slackened generally today—27th anniversary of the Russian revolution—with Moscow announcing only that "there were no essential changes on the front" and that yesterday 16 German tanks were knocked out in scattered local engagements.

The close siege of Budapest was impeded by a third day of torrential rains, but the Russians used the weather as cover for movement of thousands of infantry men into the front lines beside their tanks, and soviet artillery shelled the Hungarian capital's defenses.

Report Civil War Rages.

The Paris and Brazzaville radios said that inside the city a veritable civil war was raging among dissident Hungarians and German and Hungarian Nazi troops.

The Budapest radio claimed Russian troops had been beaten off in an attempted landing on 30 mile long Csepel Island in the Danube river, which reaches into the city's precincts, but acknowledged a landing was effected on a near-by smaller island.

The German radio said that for several days the Russians have been withdrawing mechanized formations from the east Beskids area of the Polish-Czechoslovak frontier. They said this was to reinforce assault divisions preparing for a new large scale attack toward Tarnow from the soviet bridgehead on the west side of the Vistula river.

Strong formations have been moved into that area west of Baranow particularly in the past 24 hours, and "the early beginning of a big battle is assumed," Berlin said.

Admit Tisza Crossed Again.

Berlin also acknowledged that soviet troops in northeastern Hungary had pushed two more bridgeheads across the Tisza river 75 and 125 miles above Budapest.

The Germans claimed that in East Prussia they had cleared the western shore of Goldap lake of Russians, but German pressure appeared to have decreased in the past day, with the Red army still in possession of its footings on German soil.

A late supplement to the soviet war bulletin said a reconnaissance in force was carried out in East Prussia and that more than 600 Germans were killed in East Prussia and in eastern Czechoslovakia.

In the southwest Latvian area where Marshal Stalin listed 30 German divisions as trapped and in the process of annihilation, the Germans said soviet attacks had eased somewhat southeast of Liepaja but were still going strong in the Auce area and had made some small gains.

GERMAN BLAMED FOR MASSACRE SHOT IN FRANCE

[By Wireless to the New-York Times and The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The German Gen. von Brodowsky was killed by FFI [French Forces of the Interior] sentries as he tried to escape from captivity in Besancon citadel, according to reports reaching Paris today.

France held him responsible for wiping out the village of Oradour-sur-Glane in Haute-Vienne department last June 10. His diary has been found and entries leave no doubt as to his responsibility.

On the pretext that a German army car had been shot at and that there was a secret ammunition dump in the village, the Germans first rounded up all the men and youths and mowed them down with machine guns. Then they herded the women, girls and young children into a church to which they set fire. The victims numbered 1,100, of whom 300 were children. There were only 10 survivors.

Swiss Council Denies Hostility Toward Reds

BERNE, Switzerland, Nov. 7 (AP).—Switzerland's federal council today denied soviet assertions that this country had shown a hostile attitude toward Russia. This was the basis of the soviet's refusal to resume diplomatic relations with Switzerland. The council indicated it would continue to seek such relations.

Allied Troops Crush Jap Resistance Near Tiddim

SOUTHEAST ASIA HDQ., Kandy, Ceylon, Nov. 7 (AP).—Allied troops have crushed all enemy resistance around Kennedy peak southeast of Tiddim in northwestern Burma and have cleared an additional eight mile stretch of the main road to Fort White, the allied command announced today. The British 14th army drove to within two miles of Fort White.

GERMAN RAIDERS LEAVE DEAD AND LEAFLETS BEHIND

Yankees Get Laughs from Propaganda.

BY ROBERT CROMIE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 3D ARMY ON THE MOSELLE RIVER, France, Nov. 7.—German propaganda leaflets aimed at American infantry men have put in an appearance on this front. They were found after a German combat patrol invaded the town of Juvrecourt early today, leaving four dead and one wounded behind. The Nazis took seven American prisoners.

One leaflet shows a frightened looking American infantry man with pick in hand as he digs into snowy ground and glancing back over his shoulder, where a grim reaper waits behind him. The caption below is "Your first winter in Europe," and inside there is the admonition: "The easy going has stopped. Perhaps you have already noticed it—the nearer the German border the heavier your losses. Naturally. They are defending their own homes.

Try to Make Yanks Homesick.

"Winter is just around the corner, hence the diminishing air force activity. More burden on the shoulders of the infantry and therefore heavier casualties."

Then in large red letters at the bottom a legend reads, "Who is cashing in the huge war profits at home while Americans shed their blood over here?"

A second leaflet, which also tries to make the Yanks homesick, has an illustration on both covers. One shows gay cabaret scene with a young man, glass in one hand and his other arm around a scantily clad beauty. The other shows a wounded American lying in No Man's land, while two others crawl to his aid.

Inside are figures purporting to show that four of every 100 American men are doing the actual fighting, while those at home busily seek nonwar jobs "which will carry them thru the post-war period," meanwhile urging that the soldiers should be kept in the army after the war "till jobs can be secured for them."

The legend at the bottom reads: "The draft dodgers at home expect every Joe to do his duty."

Save Leaflets for the Laughs.

The troops we saw were saving the leaflets for the laughs.

Juvrecourt, which is held by members of the 26th, or "Yankee" division, was a hot spot from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock this morning. According to Lt. Col. Lawrence Kirk, Boston, Mass., the German patrol's entry was preceded by a very heavy artillery and mortar barrage. Then the town was suddenly filled with Germans shooting up houses and vehicles. The Yanks forced the Germans from the town, killing four, and capturing one, but the Germans seized eight Americans. One escaped by pretending to be dead when a grenade landed close by. He dropped, lay motionless when the Germans kicked him a few times and finally went on without him.

There was at least one Chicagoan in Juvrecourt during the attack—Capt. E. J. McLean, 30, of 1446 E. 73d st., an artillery man.

The 26th division, commanded by Maj. Gen. Willard S. Paul, Shrewsbury, Mass., has been in action only a few weeks.

4 NAZIS SURRENDER IN ITALY TO UNARMED YANK FROM CHICAGO

WITH THE 5TH ARMY, ITALY.—Four Germans surrendered to Pvt. Mario Adelphio of 450 N. May st., Chicago, in Italy recently.

As is customary with medical aid men, Adelphio, of the 91st "Wild West" division, was unarmed. Rounding a curve in the road he came across a Nazi, calmly walking with a white flag. Adelphio jumped from his jeep and grabbed the Jerry by the arm. The German motioned to the Yank, who followed, and at a cave near-by three other Nazis emerged behind a white flag.

Adelphio put the four prisoners in his jeep and removed them to the proper authorities.

CLAIM YUGOSLAV PARTISANS KILL 3,600 GERMANS

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—More than 3,600 Germans and puppet troops have been killed and 930 captured by Yugoslav Partisans and Bulgarian units in recent actions from the Greek frontier to Slovenia, Marshal Tito announced in a broadcast bulletin today.

German forces were repeatedly cut to pieces along the Vardar valley communications route and their line of retreat was slashed in many sectors, the bulletin said.

Street fighting was reported in Strumica, 12 miles east of the Vardar and an equal distance north of the Greek frontier. Knin, the last enemy strongpoint in Dalmatia, was reported being approached from all sides.

IT'S LONG CHASE, BUT MIKE BRINGS IN NAZI OFFICER

WITH THE A. E. F. IN FRANCE—(AP).—Pvt. Mike Q. Rea, Bakersfield, Cal., infantryman, saw a German captain hiding in a culvert. Mike's first shot grazed the officer's right forehead and punctured his helmet, but the frightened German fled. Firing on the run, Mike scored again, this time thru the arm, but still the German kept running.

Rea halted long enough to replenish his ammunition, then continued the chase. Finally—in enemy territory now—he wounded the German a third time, grazing his forehead. The enemy officer gave up only after Mike wounded two other Germans they encountered during the two and one-half mile race.

LEYTE INVADERS TOO STRONG FOR JAPS: COL. LANZA

Enemy Not Surprised by Yanks' Landing.

BY COL. CONRAD H. LANZA.

Gen. MacArthur's troops landed on Leyte Island Oct. 20. Press reports at the time said some 225,000 troops had been landed. A list of the troops was published. Assuming that this was a complete list, it might well represent, with the usual attached corps and army troops, the number stated.

It is very exceptional when an offensive is undertaken to give an itemized account of the organizations participating. This is generally kept secret. There must have been some good reason for such a radical departure from a long established custom. It may have been done to discourage a Japanese counter-attack by impressing them with the futility of any such action in view of the great size of the invasion forces.

An Outstanding Job.

The number and size of the beaches where the landings were made are such that if 100,000 men had been landed the first day it would have been an outstanding job. Parts of all the organizations listed undoubtedly were landed. If the Japs caught any prisoners the identifications made would confirm the published list of American troops.

If the Japs were properly impressed, time would become available to land the remainder of the troops and the immense quantity of ammunition, stores, and supplies which will be needed for further operations. Leyte is just a convenient assembly area, where preparations can be made for an attack on more important islands.

The invasion force had to consider the possibility of interruption from weather conditions. Leyte is within the typhoon belt. Destructive typhoons, however, seldom visit the island, but they are unusually frequent on the adjacent island of Samar.

Critical Period Over.

When typhoons cross Samar they bring strong winds and heavy rains on Leyte. The official bulletins announced that a typhoon did strike Oct. 30. From the description it must have stopped all unloading of ships and landing craft. By that date, however, the critical period of unloading should have been over. The invaders were safely ashore and much, if not all their equipment, was on land.

The Japanese appear to have had no previous information that an invasion of Leyte was contemplated. But it would be incorrect to say they were taken by surprise. They reacted at once. They had been broadcasting statements that an invasion of the Philippines was expected, and it is known that in the last months they had reënforced their troops there. Perhaps more important, they brought in large amounts of ammunition and stores to provide against the possible day when communication with Japan would be cut off.

Too Small to Stop Yanks.

They must have considered the possibility of a landing in Leyte, for a Japanese division was there. It may have amounted to 15,000 men. This was too small a force to resist Gen. MacArthur's powerful expedition.

In northeastern Leyte is the port of Tacloban. This is a good harbor but a small one. In its rear and parallel to the east coast where the Americans landed is a short range of hills. A long range of mountains with summits exceeding 4,500 feet in altitude extends from the northwest corner of the island to the southeast corner. This range is rough and jungle covered. There are roads and trails, but the mountains are a substantial obstacle. Between these mountains and the low hills is the Leyte plain, highly cultivated and thickly inhabited.

At date of writing the Americans have won control of all the east coast, the short range of hills, and all of Leyte plain except the north tip, which is still held by the Japanese. They held also the main mountain range and the coast on the west side of this range.

90 Miles from Cebu.

On the west coast is Ormoc, a small port opposite Tacloban and just as good a port. It is about 90 miles by the customary sea lane from Cebu, which has been second only to Manila among Philippine ports. Cebu is believed, but not known, to be the Japanese center of activity for this part of the Philippines. It might well be. Motor boats can easily make the run from Cebu to Ormoc during the night.

Japanese barges make about 10 miles an hour and could also make the trip. These small craft are difficult to see at night from a plane unless flying very low and directly over the boats. The boats operate in convoys. If they meet an allied plane, they scatter. The planes seldom have enough bombs to chase all of them, and while some may be destroyed others escape.

Recent bulletins from Gen. MacArthur say that reënforcements are being landed by the enemy at Ormoc. This means that it is impossible to prevent some of these small craft getting by the allied blockade. At Ormoc there is an excellent beach. Small vessels can land over a front of several miles. They are then concealed during the ensuing day in coves or under overhanging tropical vegetation.

Jap General Very Active.

Any hopes that the Japanese would be discouraged by the size of the invasion force and would refrain from attacking it have been negatived by the events.

The Japanese commander in the Philippines is said by Gen. MacArthur to be Gen. Count Terauchi. Assuming that this is Gen. Count Juichi Terauchi, this is the same general who was in command in North China on the night of July 6, 1937, when the first shots were fired which started the war between China and Japan. This Japanese general has been a very energetic individual and can be expected to act vigorously. And in this case he has so far been very active.

JAPS ADVANCE 9 MILES IN NEW LIUCHOW DRIVE

CHUNGKING, China, Nov. 7 (AP).—Japanese troops launching a fresh drive down the Hunan-Kwangsi railway advanced nine miles and reached a point 36 miles from Liuchow, important Kwangsi province rail center, the Chinese high command announced tonight. The invaders captured Mosun, 45 miles south of Liuchow, yesterday.

The high command said there was no change in the fighting for Kweilin, where the Japanese were last reported to have pushed into the suburbs of the city from three sides. Kweilin is 95 miles northeast of Liuchow.

Foreign observers arriving here from southeastern China said the Japanese forces were well equipped while the Chinese units opposing them were poorly outfitted and generally outclassed.

Minot, N. D., Nov. 7 (AP).—Lt. Col. John H. McGee of Minot, N. D., who escaped from the Japs early in September after two and a half years as a prisoner in the Philippines, has landed in San Francisco, relatives here were informed. He was met by Mrs. McGee, who has been living in Plymouth, Wis. McGee escaped from the Japanese when a Jap freighter was torpedoed by a United States submarine.

LEAFLETS SCATTERED IN SOUTH ENGLAND FROM FLYING BOMBS

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—The sky over the English east coast was lit during the night by a great barrage of anti-aircraft fire and exploding flying bombs as the Germans flung robots in from the North sea for the third night in a row.

With the loss of their channel robot roosts, the Germans have switched almost entirely now to launching the flying bombs from aircraft over the North sea.

ROBOT ATTACKS POSSIBLE, ARMY AND NAVY WARN

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—The war and navy departments said today that robot bomb attacks by Germany on the United States are entirely possible. The departments said the question had been raised in view of continuance of robot bomb use against Great Britain after destruction of launching platforms in France and the Low Countries.

In a joint statement the departments asserted the bombs "might be launched from submarines lying offshore or from one way sacrifice flights of long range bombers controled across the Atlantic by submarines.

"It is doubtful that such attacks could entirely elude allied sea and air patrols. Reasonable measures are in force to protect the country. However, it is impossible to insure that such an attack will be completely frustrated. Any such attacks could have no great military effectiveness and could only serve to stimulate the nation still further in its determined prosecution of the war."

SUBCHASER MAY BE SMALL, BUT IT'S HOSPITABLE

BY HAROLD SMITH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 7TH DIVISION ON LEYTE, P. I., Nov. 7.—This is a salute to the tiny subchaser No. 632, skippered by Lt. Martin J. Hansberry of Boston, which saved assault day in the Philippines for a correspondent crippled by fungus foot.

Chosen originally because as a control ship inshore she was a superb box seat for the preparatory bombardment, this vessel for several days was Tribune headquarters for the south landing. Already overcrowded by control personnel, Lt. Hansberry and his boys hunched together a little closer and gave wholehearted hospice to one more.

All Gracious Hosts.

What followed was a heart warming experience in neighborliness. Without neglecting his duties, every man was a gracious host, from Lt. Hansberry to the lowest seaman, from 5 foot 4 inch RM 3/c Stanley Klauber of Brooklyn to 6 foot 3 inch QM 1/c James E. Brown, Guthrie, Okla., who has grown nearly seven inches since he joined the crew.

A lad of 19 in September, 1942, Brown is in the guitar trio with GM 3/c D. C. Volney and Ph. M. 1/c W. H. [Doc] Dowdy, Texans, who play with one ear cocked for air raid alerts that send them leaping to general quarters announced by Yeoman 3/c W. R. Shelby, Charlestown, Ind.

Two Brothers Killed.

A fellow Indianan, CM Herbert Lewis, Portland, peers chubbily out from behind the ship's most luxuriant crop of pink whiskers.

EM 2/c Francis Dockendorf, 21, Cold Spring, Minn., has a tragic distinction. One of his five brothers, Harold, 25, was killed on duty at Parris Island, S. C., in January, 1941; another, Sgt. Clifford, 22, was killed in action in New Guinea last May 15; a third, Sgt. Cyril, 24, a gunner in a Flying Fortress, was shot down over France last February and is believed a prisoner of war; the fourth brother, Ralph, is an army private in England.

Lt. [j. g.] C. P. Bell, Charleston, S. C., second in command, trained in Chicago, where he has many friends. The other officer aboard is Ensign Phil Standerman, Scotch Plains, N. J.

Like most of the other young men who staff the countless small unheralded vessels, which play a highly important part in our amphibious operations, these officers and men are reservists mainly, the majority of whom didn't know a binnacle from a belaying pin before they joined up. Now they are rough and tough and resourceful sea fighters.

Tank Keeps Right on Clanking.

BY WALTER SIMMONS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WITH THE U. S. 24TH DIVISION ON LEYTE, P. I., Nov. 7.—"Klankin' Coffin," an M-4 Sherman tank, proved today that American material is rough and tough, indeed.

Advancing in the hilly country beyond Capoocan, elements of the 24th division were pinned down at a sharp highway curve. One casualty, a wounded infantry man, had to be left behind. Tank support was brought up and a few minutes later the foot soldiers started around the curve again, while the tank, named the "Kankin' Coffin" by its commander, Sgt. Raymond Cartier, Hopkinton, Mass., trimmed the high grass on either side with bullets.

Jap with a Satchel.

The mission of this force was to return with the wounded man. At the point of the earlier ambush a 6 foot Japanese marine darted out of the grass and deposited a 20 pound satchel charge of TNT on the rear of the tank.

Pieces of nickel and debris hurtled thru the air as it exploded. The "Klankin' Coffin," however, kept right on going. So did the infantry men. They took care of the Jap, accomplished their mission, and returned triumphantly.

Armor Blown Away.

Sgt. Cartier hopped out of the tank to assess the damage, followed by the other four crewmen, Corp. Robert Daenan, Green Bay, Wis.; Pvt. Isaac Hardman, Lehi, Utah; Pvt. Manuel Quintas, San Diego, Cal., and Pvt. Michael Dobay, Far Rockaway, N. Y. All escaped without a scratch.

The tank rear armor was partly blown away and the right engine bank was ripped. Sgt. Cartier accepted these things philosophically as curable by a 48 hour repair job.

"But what makes us mad," he explained, "is that we had two boxes of rations and a couple of bed rolls on the bank of the tank. There isn't enough left to put in your eye."

Boy, 9, Left in Hospital, Runs Away; Returned

Charles Arthur, 9, of Lane, Ill., was returned to the Illinois Eye and Ear infirmary, 904 W. Adams st., by police yesterday after he was found wandering at 431 S. Sangamon st. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Arthur, had left the boy at the infirmary for observation. The boy said he ran away "because I was scared of the doctor."

Filipino Baby Born on Transport with Yank Aid

LEYTE, Philippines, Nov. 7 (AP).—A Filipino baby born during the Leyte invasion has been given the name of the transport on which his birth occurred and $300 by the Yanks who were present. Lt. Allen Goodyear of Stamford, Conn., member of a medical party, rushed the mother to the transport where he and Lt. David Reulman of Monroe, Wis., delivered the child.

5 CHICAGOANS ON LEYTE RUN BANK, ONCE A GARAGE

What Other Yanks Are Doing There.

BY ARTHUR VEYSEY.

LEYTE ISLAND, Philippines, Nov. 7.—Here are some notes about Chicagolanders on Leyte: Walter Zalesiak, 5146 S. Major av., is a member of an anti-aircraft crew, which already claims five planes.

A former garage at Alangalang is a bank for five Chicagoans working in the finance office. They are Sidney Goldberg, 6327 Cornell av.; Sanford Rabin, 3658 W. Polk st.; Marc Chouinard, 8426 Kerfoot av.; Charles Milburn, 2854 Rosemont av., and Herbert Glover, 2970 N. Sheridan rd.

Two Work on Roads.

Irving Woods, 2143 Archer av., mans a howitzer and Al Johnstone, 6726 Emerald av., works in a headquarters company. Millard Warner, 1213 N. Austin blvd., George Greenberg, 2023 Humboldt blvd., and Ed Michelson, 1749 N. Linder av., are among the Seabees working on roads.

Col. Carl Horan, former instructor with the 124th infantry, Illinois national guard, is an area commander and Maj. Jim Shanks, 274 Lionel rd., Riverside, Ill., is one of his motor transport officers.

M. P. Walt Seay, Birmingham, Ala., guarding a bridge, was all excited. "A Jap just tried to crawl up on me and slug me with a club," he said. "I shot him 15 times to make sure he would die."

Picks Headquarters Sites.

Lt. Col. T. H. Compere, a former Home Owners Loan corporation attorney in Chicago, has the job of picking out the location of the 24th division headquarters camp. He has changed it almost every night in an attempt to keep it close to the fighting troops. He and 15 men came ashore in the fifth assault wave and five men were injured by mortar fire.

Another day he picked a site so far advanced that a Jap counter-attack threatened to overrun it. And on another day artillery fell among the men laying out the camp, killing one and injuring eight engineer troops, including Aaron Rambeau, 2466 Jackson blvd., Chicago; Steven Vrankovick, 255 25th st., Chicago; Allen Gault, 4031 Kenmore av., Chicago; Robert Mitchell, 1604 S. Austin blvd., Chicago; Dario Sarti, Morris, Ill., and George Vanderhagen, 1145 Morse av., Chicago.

Hit-Run Driver's Victim Succumbs in Hospital

Phlander Foster, 34, Negro, of 3235 Calumet av., a clothes presser, died yesterday in Michael Reese hospital from injuries suffered Monday when he was struck by a hit and run driver at 32d st. and South Park way.

MAGPIE ALLEY HAS GONE TO WAR!

MISS WALEEN

Do you remember the salty trio of big-hearted belles who burst upon the literary scene in Mary Laswell's "Suds In Your Eyes"? Well, they're back again, as hilarious as ever, in Miss Laswell's latest, "High Time" ($2.00). Miss Waleen, manager of the Board of Trade Book Shop says this time the Misses Feeley, Rasmussen and Tinkham decide to help the war effort by organizing a sort of "Dead End" day nursery for the kids of Magpie Alley whose mothers are in war work. You'll get a healthy case of hysterics from this.

But for those of you who prefer more romantic fiction, Miss Waleen highly recommends "Deep River" ($3.00) by Henrietta Buckmaster—a tender, yet powerful story laid in Georgia during the Reconstruction Period. This is the kind of book you'll carry with you constantly—snatching a few paragraphs at the lunch counter, or on the bus, or even while you're waiting for the traffic signals to change. You'll stay under its spell long after you've turned the final page.

Now that you've got your "Over There" Christmas packages all mailed, it's time to start thinking about gifts for the boys "Over Here." If your G. I. has a sense of humor at all, (as what G. I. hasn't) he'll get a big bang out of Peter Arno's new collection of cartoons, "The Man in the Shower" ($2.50). Arno's works range from the subtle to the not-so-subtle to the frankly outspoken, but in any mood, he is really funny haw-haw. This volume will do big things for your fighting man's morale.

Now let's talk about Thanksgiving for a minute. It's always a grand gesture to send greeting cards, but along about Turkey Time it's an especially nice reminder of the friends we have to be thankful for. You'll be thankful, too, for the selection of warmly-phrased Thanksgiving cards which Miss Waleen is featuring right now. Drop in at the Board of Trade Book Shop and see for yourself, why don'tcha?

No matter if you're buying or "just looking," you'll get the kind of service you dream about at all these Handy Book & Gift Shops: Field Bldg., Daily News Bldg., Palmer House, Hyde Park Book Shop (1457 Hyde Park), Post Office News (37 W. Monroe), Merchandise Mart, Beard of Trade Bldg.

BAG 249 MORE PLANES, SINK 5 SHIPS AT MANILA

Navy Raises 2 Day Toll to 440 Jap Craft.

PACIFIC FLEET HDQ., Pearl Harbor, Nov. 7 (AP).—Third fleet carrier planes returned to the Manila area Sunday, destroying 249 Japanese planes to raise their two day toll to 440, and running their shipping score to six sunk and 24 damaged.

Adm. Nimitz, announcing the continued neutralization of the Manila area in a bulletin today, reported additional heavy damage was inflicted on ground installations.

Five ships were sunk Sunday and five more, plus several cargo vessels, were damaged. One ship was sunk Saturday and five, plus several cargo ships, were damaged.

14 Ships Damaged.

These ships were sunk Sunday: Three cargo vessels, one oil tanker, and one destroyer. Damaged: Two destroyers, two destroyer escorts, and one trawler and several cargo ships, bringing to 14 the two day toll of these vessels.

Presence of many cargo ships in Manila harbor indicates the Japanese either have been able to slip one or more small convoys into the Philippines or were preparing to rush supplies to other Philippine Islands.

The destroyers and destroyer escorts probably were for escort duty. The two cruisers damaged Saturday might have been refugees from the second battles of the Philippines, Oct. 23-25.

Three oil storage areas were set afire on the north strip at Clark field and a tremendous explosion started another large fire in the northeast area of the same airdrome.

North of Malvar a railway engine and five tank cars were destroyed.

Second Highest Bag.

The two day toll of 440 planes probably was the second highest of the war in the Pacific, exceeded only by the 500 record of June 18-19, when the 5th fleet destroyed 402 in one day and followed up with scores more the succeeding day.

Adm. Nimitz said that for two days 113 Japanese planes were shot out of the air and 327 destroyed on the ground. "Many others were destroyed on the ground by strafing," he added, making no attempt to estimate the number.

Air Fields Repaired.

Discovery of so many planes in the Manila area means not only that the enemy has been able to resupply the air fields there, but that he probably has repaired much of the damage done last month to air fields on Formosa and in the Ryukyu islands by the Halsey-Mitscher fleet.

Largest concentrations of enemy planes were found at Nichols, Clark, Nielson, Lipa, Fahlac, Bamban, and Mabacalat air fields. American losses were not reported.

Adm. Nimitz told of a running battle in which three army Liberators destroyed one and probably another of seven Japanese fighters which intercepted them over the Kuriles. Two of the Liberators were damaged. Onnekotan was their target.

Crucial Battle Raging for Leyte

HURL 3 NEW JAP DIVISIONS AT U.S. TROOPS IN LEYTE

GEN. MacARTHUR'S HDQ., Philippines, Nov. 8 [Wednesday]—(AP).—The United States 24th division is locked in a critical battle in Ormoc valley on Leyte with elements of four Japanese divisions, including three rushed in as reenforcements, headquarters reported today.

This was the crucial fight presaged by Japanese convoy landings at Ormoc while the 24th was capturing Pinamopoan on Carigara bay and swinging south.

Today's bulletin said elements of the 1st, 30th, and 102d Nipponese divisions had augmented the 16th—the torturers of Bataan—in opposing the 24th. Three strong enemy counter-attacks were repulsed.

Less than 10 miles north of Ormoc, Japan's port of last hope on western Leyte, American artillery laid down a barrage on the enemy defense at Valencia. The shelling wrecked warehouses and supply dumps. Large fires broke out.

Adding to the destruction, Leyte-based Yank fighters dive bombed communications, bivouacs and supply dumps.

Fighting Is Savage.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy in these counter-attacks, made at night just south of Pinamopoan on northwest Leyte. The savage fighting was equal to the heaviest encountered on the island.

After they failed, the Japanese infiltrated American positions and some withdrawals were necessary, but the ground lost has been recovered by the Yanks.

The scene of the fighting is along the northern section of the narrow road from Pinamopoan to Ormoc as well as in adjoining ridge barriers dominating the valley.

A spokesman said the Japanese were well dug in. However, constant artillery shelling has forced the foe to restrict movements of reenforcements and supplies to the night hours.

Battle in Hills.

On the eastern side of Leyte the Japanese in the hills west of Dagami still offered opposition to the United States 96th infantry division. Headquarters reported today the 96th wiped out pockets in the hills near Patok, four miles northwest of Dagami.

The recent bombings of Nipponese air fields on Cebu, Negros and Luzon by army and navy planes has been so effective that enemy raids against Leyte have been cut down to a negligible factor. The bulletin said ground gun defenses on Leyte have shot down a total of 144 Nipponese planes to date.

Some American units that penetrated the ridge country ran out of ammunition because of difficult supply conditions and were forced to draw back or fight it out with numerically superior enemy forces. The Japanese still were bringing up reinforcements from Ormoc.

Most of the isolated American groups, reported AP war correspondent Fred Hampson, held their ground, but casualties were heavy on both sides. The enemy turned captured American machineguns on the Yanks, taking a heavy toll.

Some of the American units were encircled by the Japanese after a tiny winding road, used to supply the advancing Americans, was cut. Supply trucks tried to get thru, but ran into a hail of Japanese gunfire. Some of the trucks were lost, a few managed to retreat. None got thru.

Meanwhile a numerically superior Japanese force pressed attacks against the isolated American units. The Nipponese were beaten off with heavy losses, but the Americans soon exhausted their ammunition.

Some Fight All Night.

Sgt. Richard Braun of Bridgeville, Pa., said one band of Japanese attacked an American mortar position from 30 feet, but all the Japanese were cut down. Another mortar group of 20 was less fortunate. Pvt. Harvell Allen of Muldrow, Okla., said only five Americans survived.

After elements of the American 24th division withdrew from some dominating positions "Long Tom" artillery shelled the enemy. Then fresh troops drove into the ridges again and were reported making good progress.

JAPS WIPE OUT 2 INDIES VILLAGES, DUTCH REVEAL

Tell of Atrocities in Islands.

San Francisco, Nov. 7 (AP).—Emulating the Germans at Lidice, Japanese have wiped out at least two villages of the Netherlands East Indies with virtually their entire populations, headquarters of Netherlands forces in the far east announced today.

A village near Medan, on Sumatra, was soaked with kerosene and gasoline and burned to the ground. Any inhabitants who tried to escape were shot with machine guns. A village on Java was set afire by incendiary bombs, and machine guns also were turned on those trying to flee.

Some Burned Alive.

Other atrocities were described in a document, "Japanese Atrocities in Occupied Netherlands Indies." It listed cases of savage mistreatment of prisoners of war and civilian populations.

Some people were burned alive; some were forced to drink soapy water until they were bloated, and then soldiers jumped on their stomachs until the water spouted from their mouths. Prisoners were suspended by their feet and their heads were bumped on the ground. Others were forced to stand with their heads thrown back and their eyes opened to the blazing sun.

Women Bayonetted.

Javanese women who resisted the advances of Japanese soldiers, the document related, were bayonetted.

"The brutality practiced by the enemy during his administration of the islands has been so appalling that this headquarters is making public a few of the instances but by no means the most severe," the document said.

The names of the destroyed villages were not published but the document said the one on Sumatra was wiped out because it was the home of a newspaper writer who criticized the Japanese in an article in the Medan newspaper.

The Java village refused to give up its rice crop after two harvests had been seized by the Japanese. The citizens were so enraged they killed a policeman sent to arrest a man accused of being the ringleader of the "opposition." The Japanese surrounded the place immediately, bombed it and watched the population perish in flames.

400,000 Soldier Letters Released by Censorship

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Approximately 400,000 letters written by soldiers now in the Philippines campaign and impounded for security reasons, now are being delivered to families. The war department said the letters, some of which were written as far back as last July, were held up by army censorship so that no inkling of the Philippine invasion might be conveyed.

JUDGE HELMICK TO STUDY CHINA'S LEGAL SYSTEM

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Milton J. Helmick, former judge of the United States court in China, is en route to that country to make a general survey of the Chinese legal system.

A state department announcement today said Helmick will pay particular attention to commercial laws affecting American firms in China. The Chinese commercial legal code has not been thoroly clarified since the United States relinquished extraterritorial rights early in 1943. A new Chinese-American commercial treaty reportedly is under consideration.

Helmick was judge of the United States court in Shanghai from 1934 until Pearl Harbor. He was repatriated in 1942.

NELSON NAMES 5 STEEL MEN FOR CHINA MISSION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Donald M. Nelson today announced the names of five iron and steel men who will accompany him to China and concentrate on increasing production from existing Chinese facilities. The iron and steel mission will be headed by Herbert W. Graham, director of metallurgy and research for Jones and Laughlin at Pittsburgh. Other members are Carl Albert Bell, United Engineering and Foundry company, Newcastle, Pa.; Henrik Ovesen, Lukens Steel company, Coatesville, Pa.; Harry A. Strain, United States Steel corporation, Pittsburgh, Pa., and E. K. Waldschmidt, formerly of Jones and Laughlin but now of the war production's steel division.

FIRST LIBERTY SHIP AT LEYTE BATTLES ZEROS

Carries Valuable Cargo of Men and Guns.

GEN. MacARTHUR'S HDQ., Philippines, Oct. 28 [Delayed]—(AP).—The S. S. David Dudley Field, a Liberty ship with four voyages to her credit, steamed into Leyte gulf unescorted one day after American troops had landed and claimed to be the first Liberty ship to arrive in the Philippines.

She began discharging her cargo and before she left had another first to her credit, the first Liberty ship to shoot down a Zero in the Philippines.

It was the night of A plus four—four days after the landing on Oct. 20—when Japanese strafing planes winged in for a heavy attack on shipping in the bay. One plane picked out the Liberty and bored in barely 50 feet above the water.

Plane Crashes on Bridge.

The Liberty's navy gun crews opened up. Just off the port side the gunners hit the Zero and a wing caught fire. The pilot sought to crash his plane against the ship, and the gunners attempted to beat it off.

It came on, its wing hit the port gun position and shattered on the starboard side and spread its wreckage over the bridge.

The Field, out of San Francisco and under the command of Capt. Albion M. Burbank, 32, of Cambridge, Mass., carried 750 additional troops for the fighting fronts, 105 and 155 millimeter howitzer shells for the 24th division artillery, and hundreds of 50 caliber machine guns and mortars. It was considered one of the most vitally needed ships to reach the Philippines.

There was no dock for the ship and her own merchant marine crew labored day and night to unload her cargo.

Has Share of Wounded.

The Field has left the Philippines now, slightly more battered than when she arrived, after several hectic days of almost incessant raids. Her purser, who had six weeks training as a pharmacist mate, is wiser now in the treatment of wounded—because the Field had her share of wounded.

The navy gunners, among the least known of America's combat forces, have real war experience to their credit. There were many of these armed guards. Those who fought off the Jap planes included: Loren E. Aylor, Mill Soals, Ill.; Robert W. Hicks, 815 Bradshaw, Indianapolis, Ind.; Charles W. Smallenberger, Route 2, Lansing Mich., George M. Dockweiler, 3425 Ridge rd., Lansing, Ill., and Lyle E. Yaunke, Channing, Mich.

B-29S FLY OVER TOKYO 3D TIME IN A WEEK—JAPS

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

American Super Fortresses were over Tokyo and the industrialized Kanto area yesterday for the third time within a week, the Tokyo radio reported. No bombs were dropped. The same broadcast said 40 more of the big B29s on Sunday raided Iwo in the Volcano Islands, 750 miles south of Tokyo.

The radio said two B29s flew over the main Japanese Honshu Island's Kanto region for an hour "for reconnaissance purposes."

Japanese propagandists warned that the B29s would return in force to bomb Tokyo and other sections of the Kanto area, which roughly covers the eastern half of Honshu.

BOMBER FIGHTS 4 JAP PLANES IN RAID ON KURILES

Illinois Gunner Helps Bring One Down.

AT AN ADVANCED ALEUTIAN BASE [Delayed].—From the time that Lt. Francis R. Littleton sighted the Jap plane until the burning enemy fighter struck the water was probably not over 60 seconds.

The Ventura bomber pilot, whose home is at Fairfield, Ia., had just completed a run on a Paramushiro military installation and had turned for home when some one yelled over the interphone "Fighters, starboard!"

There were four of them coming in fast.

Littleton whipped his bomber to the right, directly toward the approaching enemy quartet, so that two of the fighters were immediately ahead of and a little above him. Both were now firing, and their tracers were whipping across the Ventura's bow. Lt. Littleton opened up with a return burst from his bow guns at the lead plane, which immediately nosed up as if trying to get away.

Jap Plane Takes Fire.

Littleton's next reaction was so fast that his co-pilot, Lt. [j. g.] Douglas M. Anderson, Wellesley Hills, Mass., described it as "purely automatic."

"He yanked back on the yoke, and he must have pressed the firing button at almost the same instant," Anderson said. The results were perfect. The belly of the Jap plane hung there as a huge target and Littleton's tracers poured into the fighter as it "just sat there."

The Jap caught fire, began to trail smoke, and, turning slowly over on its side, passed close above the bomber.

Second Jap Joins Fight.

As it went by, the Ventura turret gunner, Richard H. Peterson of Mattoon, Ill., fired another burst at it for good measure, then watched it pass down beside his plane. From the tunnel gun position Zane V. Hadley, the plane captain, Weatherford, Okla., saw the blazing Jap slide swiftly down, strike the water, and drop below the surface.

The second of the two attacking fighters was now coming in for an inaccurate firing run on the Ventura. Passing only 50 feet above the bomber, the fighter swung about and joined two others which were now trailing the Ventura. Most of the time the trio stayed a respectful distance astern, but occasionally one would pull forward momentarily.

Japs Give Up Chase.

During all this Lt. Littleton was streaking homeward to his Aleutian base—and after a chase of more than 80 miles the fighters quietly gave up the pursuit and went away. It was a "long 80 miles," tho, since for all that distance there was the realization that if any of the fighters scored a lucky hit on the Ventura, or if the bomber developed any mechanical trouble, all three fighters would be there for a quick kill.

The whole encounter had produced no injury to the plane or Lt. Littleton's crew—and not only had they shot down a fighter, but before the encounter they scored direct hits on shore installations in the northern Kuriles.

FOREIGN CHIEF OF NORWAY TO TALK WITH REDS

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Trygve Lie, Norwegian foreign minister, has arrived in Moscow for conferences with soviet officials on questions of "common interest" to Russia and Norway, a spokesman for King Haakon's government announced tonight.

Lie was accompanied by Terje Wold, minister of justice, and Dr. Karl Evang, director general of public health. The delegation, which had been in Stockholm for discussions with members of the Swedish government, flew to Moscow yesterday.

The spokesman said Lie probably would be received by Premier Stalin. Diplomatic quarters considered this significant since Russian troops are fighting on Norwegian soil.

CLOTHING STOLEN FROM AUTO. Thieves stole $250 worth of clothing and books from a car in front of the home of Mrs. Beulah Hawkins of 6234 Green st., she told police yesterday.

WOMAN SOLDIER OF JAPS KILLED IN GUINEA FIGHT

ADVANCED SOUTHWEST PACIFIC BASE (AP).—A Japanese woman grenade thrower was among a group of the enemy annihilated near Kantome village, New Guinea. Lt. R. W. Buck of Warsaw, N. C., and his 20 man patrol chased the Japanese up a ridge and Sgt. John Hulteen of New Haven, Conn., knocked down four with a tommy gun.

From the ridge the Japanese tossed down a cascade of grenades. Buck said he saw the woman at close range and "she was pitching grenades with the best of them." She was about 27 and dressed in a Japanese air corps uniform. "She had a mouthful of gold teeth and wasn't much to look at," Buck added.

Pvt. Jose Truijillo of Montrose, Colo., finally ended the fight with grenade fire. Twelve Japanese were killed on the ridge, including the woman. Sgt. John Gross of Greenville, Ia., assisted Truijillo. Corp. Fred Botkins of Madison, Wis., attended American wounded under fire for half an hour.

NAB CANADIAN WAR PRISONER ON WEST COAST

Opposed Dutch Merger with British.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 7 [Special].—Martinus Telling, 40, movie stunt man and circus performer who twice used his professional talents to escape from Canadian internment camps, today was being held here by immigration authorities for Canadian officials after his recapture several days ago.

Telling, termed a Dutch-German prisoner, was seized Thursday near Olympia, 70 miles south of here, by an FBI agent who saw him walking along a road and recognized him from old photographs.

Flouts His Liberty.

It was said Telling's talents for escape were matched only by his audacity in flouting his liberty after his flights, which he attempted to justify thru letters "exposing" what he termed British-Canadian mistakes in handling internees.

Claiming Dutch citizenship, Telling also cautioned the Dutch against accepting overtures for a post-war amalgamation of the British and Netherlands empires.

The letters, written after Telling fled a camp at Nanka, Alberta, Oct. 14, were given to the New York FBI by the recipients—newspapers, magazines, columnists, and a motion picture company for which Telling had done occasional camera work.

Empire Scheme Denied.

Altho his letters stated negotiations were in progress in London for a consolidation of the Dutch and British empires after the war, official sources in New York and Washington, D. C., denied this. They said there had been no developments since the proposal was broached nearly a year ago by Premier Jan Christian Smuts of South Africa, and promptly turned down by Dutch Foreign Minister Van Kleffens. The Netherlands official said his country would "never become an integral part of the British empire."

British sources said the proposal, reflecting Smuts' personal views, had never reached the "official" level of discussion.

Seized in Britain in '40.

Telling was picked up in England in 1940, and escaped from a Dutch refugee camp at Sherbrooke,, Que., Nov. 7, 1942. The FBI then learned his father was German, and listed Telling as an escaped German prisoner. He was recaptured in Canada 21 days later.

Telling jumped into the English channel from a ship on which he was being deported to England from the United States and swam to Southampton. He had been arrested in New York as a stowaway on a ship from England.

Telling made no secret of his flight from the Alberta camp last month, despite the royal Canadian mounted police bulletin describing him as a prisoner of war, but until today managed to keep ahead of government agents trailing him thru the postmarks on his letters.

Traced thru Film Office.

Telling had audaciously given a New York motion picture office as his return address and New York FBI agents traced him.

Telling, who professed to reflect Dutch sentiment, said his letters were intended to "further the common war effort."

He said most of the important Nazi agents in England had slipped thru the British roundup begun with the outbreak of war in 1939.

Anti-Nazis shipped to the Canadian camps were exposed to the influence of domineering German Nazis rounded up later in Africa, he asserted.

"The two groups of German internees were thrown together and the lack of backing which the England-Germans received from British internment authorities was exploited by the Nazi bosses from Africa," he said. "The anti-Nazis were silenced by threats and not recognized by the authorities."

Telling asserted the authorities had refused the pleas of anti-Nazis to permit them to work outside the camps altho Canadian farmers had offered to employ them.

SENTENCE RADIO ANNOUNCER FOR NAZIS IN PARIS

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP).—Francois de Vibraye, 30, former announcer for Radio Paris, was sentenced today to 10 years in prison for having directed message in English to Britain and the United States during the German occupation. The prosecutor in the French court said the announcer received 7,200 francs [$144] monthly from the German embassy as a propagandist. A blonde girl member of the French resistance movement testified that she had urged him to continue the broadcasts to cover up her communications with London, but the four man jury convicted him.

The Inquiring Camera Girl

BY MARYON ZYLSTRA

[The Tribune will pay $5 for each interesting question submitted by a reader and used by The Tribune. Today's question was submitted by Mrs. F. H. Deen, South Bend, Ind.]

THE QUESTION.

What is the biggest single item of waste in the running of your household?

WHERE ASKED.

Madison-Crawford National bank building.

THE ANSWERS.

Mrs. Leonard Zaehler, stenographer, 4051 Wilcox st.—It seems that bread is drying out much faster than it did a few years ago. We have to throw away a lot of bread because it doesn't stay fresh. Of course I make bread pudding and use it for dressing, but we have more than we can use and frequently throw it out.

Mrs. Wilbert Holmquist, housewife, 4024 West End av.—Instead of having the daily newspaper delivered to our house, I buy it at a newsstand. My husband does the same thing, so each day we buy two identical newspapers. Often we bring home the same magazines too, which is certainly a waste of money and paper.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson, accountant, 208 N. Kenneth av.—I think all of us are more saving than we were before the war. We buy less now, so there is less to waste. But I am extravagant with the lights. I hate a dark house, so I turn on all the lights. Once my husband came in, turned on a lamp, and said, "You missed this one."

Mrs. A. J. Dewey, housewife, 4628 Lake Park av.—If all the little pieces of soap I throw away could be counted in dollars and cents it probably would add up to quite a large amount by the end of the year. But a little, tiny piece of soap is so annoying I'd rather throw it away and start on a new bar.

Mrs. Vernon Oman, bookkeeper, 1632 S. 50th ct., Cicero—It's always hard to know how much to cook for dinner at night. I always cook too many vegetables. Usually I save them in the refrigerator for two or three days and then put them in the garbage because they don't fit into my menus.

Mrs. M. Goldman, assistant manager, millinery shop, 3855 Fillmore st.—Each month I have a large electric bill. I'm not home very much because I work during the day, but when I am home I like to have every light in the house on. It seems so cold and lifeless when the house is dark, but with lights on the atmosphere changes.

TO AN ARTIFICIAL LEG THIEF: COME IN FOR A FITTING!

If the legs fit, the thief can keep them, W. H. Swinbourn, owner of an artificial limb company at 329 S. Wood st., said yesterday when he reported the theft of a pair from his automobile.

Swinbourn said the legs, which he planned to take to the Hines Memorial hospital, are numbered and cannot be sold easily. He will help fit them free of charge if the person who stole them can use them, he said.

A one-legged man once stole a leg, returned to Swinbourn to have it fitted, and now is serving in the merchant marine, the dealer told police.

50 CARTONS OF CIGARETS STOLEN.

Ruben R. Borovik, owner of a drug store at 3958 N. Cicero av., told police yesterday that 50 cartons of cigarets were stolen by burglars Monday night.

WITH THE U. S. 5TH ARMY IN ITALY, Nov. 7. — Allied forces in Italy are quietly winning a victory over the Germans, which cannot be measured in ground gained or cities taken but can be gauged in its strategic effect upon other war fronts several hundred miles away.

This military success of the American 5th army and the British 8th is an unspectacular kind, which makes a much better showing on pin dotted maps in allied military headquarters than in newspaper headlines. It rests on the fact that these two forces, despite having been bogged down by bad weather and difficult mountain terrain for more than a month, have been able to keep more than 20 crack German divisions fully occupied. This is at a time when the Nazi high command undoubtedly would give much to be able to send a dozen or so of the divisions to either the western or eastern fronts.

Many Men on Short Front.

A few statistics show the importance of this successful containing action in Italy. The Germans are holding a long and difficult line from the Netherlands coast to the Swiss frontier with not more than 60 divisions, and many of these divisions are hastily recruited. Opposing these divisions is the full weight of the combined American, British, Canadian, and French armies which have priorities on allied air support, munitions, and other supplies.

In Italy, on a far shorter defensive line the Germans find it is necessary to employ more than 20 divisions to hold their defensive line in the Etruscan Apennines despite the fact they are facing two allied armies, which have been sadly depleted by casualties suffered since the Gothic line offensive opened on Sept. 13.

A further compliment to the 5th and 8th armies is that they have contained this German force without being able to call for help in the manner of allied forces in France. Here air support is more limited, and armored units cannot be employed as freely.

Why Germans Hang On.

Altho German strength was more or less equally divided against the 5th and 8th armies during the offensive which broke the Gothic line, since then Field Marshal Kesselring has concentrated his forces against the American 5th army of Lt. Gen. Clark. More divisions now face the 5th army on the Bologna front than the British army on the eastern flank. Before the 5th army began its push which smashed the center of the Gothic line and threatened Bologna, the 8th was opposed by twice as many divisions.

Other German divisions are in Italy but are not directly oppposed by the two allied armies.

The question often has been asked why the Germans are striving so to hold the Apennine line when it would be simpler to withdraw across the Po valley to the Alps foothills and make a stand there, with probably not more than half the force they are now employing in Italy. Apparently there are several possible answers.

One answer is that withdrawal to the Alps would place virtually all of Italy in allied hands, a move Hitler apparently is extremely reluctant to make. One by one his satellite nations have been stripped from him, and loss of Italy, formerly the main hinge of the axis, might cause political damage beyond repair.

Stripping Industrial Plants.

Another reason is that Kesselring is holding on while German industrial units and impressed Italian labor battalions strip northern Italy of the machinery and factory equipment and every other article which might prove useful to the Germans in carrying on their fight in Germany. Liberated southern Italy, with its bare factories and demolished utilities, is an example of Nazi efficiency at such pillaging.

A third reason may be one of morale. The Germans have been unable to hold the Russians to a standstill. On the western front continuous allied pushing is causing a sag in the German defensive line. Possibly the Nazis have been able to derive some satisfaction from the fact that Kesselring's forces thus far have been able to hold against everything these two allied armies in Italy have been able to bring against them.

SGT. JAMES WARNER OF MAYWOOD KNOCKS OVER 2 JAP PLANES

Staff Sgt. James P. Warner, 20, veteran of 49 bombing missions over China, Burma, Thailand [Siam], and India, with two Jap Zeros officially credited to him as the nose gunner aboard a B-24 Liberator, is home after 18 months in India. He is a son of Henry L. Warner, 1203 S. 15th av., Maywood, past commander of Cook county council, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

S/Sgt. James Warner.

Sgt. Warner, who has been awarded the distinguished flying cross with cluster and air medal with cluster, is a member of the 7th bomb group, 10th air force, which has been bombing oil refineries, Japanese railheads, supply dumps, and other military installations. On one of these missions last May, Clay Gowran, Tribune war correspondent now on the Italian front, was aboard the plane to witness the effect of the group's precision bombing.

The flyer, a 1942 graduate of Proviso Township High school, said the original personnel of the 7th bomb group was largely Chicagoan.

BRITISH IN ITALY MOVE ON FORLI; AIDED BY PLANES

ROME, Nov. 7 (AP).—British 8th army troops, stalled for days outside Forli on the Bologna-Rimini highway, moved toward the town today, aided by a powerful attack by medium bombers.

Large formations of Marauders and Spitfires dropped thousands of fragmentation bombs on troop concentrations and gun positions. Returning pilots said the mission was successful.

In the San Stefano area of the Adriatic coastal sector the Germans attempted to infiltrate allied positions by dark but were driven back.

Polish troops in a 1,000 yard advance south of Forli cleared the village of Marsignano in the hills between the Rabbi and Montone rivers, north of Predappio. In the same area the villages of Monte Maggiore and San Martino also were taken, along with prisoners.

RESCUE BEACHED PT BOATS UNDER JAPANESE NOSES

ABOARD PT BOAT EN ROUTE TO A LEYTE BASE, Nov. 7 (AP).—The navy's "expendables" added another colorful chapter to the sage of the PTs last night with the rescue of the two disabled boats from under the shadow of Japanese air patrols.

The two craft had been unreported for 38 hours on patrol for Japanese shipping off western Leyte when a destroyer picked up a message from them. They had hit a reef while traveling at full speed.

Two PTs sped to the rescue to find their crews being lavishly entertained by Filipinos in Japanese held territory.

Crew Pushes and Pulls.

Lt. [j. g.] Ed Wakelin, Holyoke, Mass., skipper of one of them, said they hit the reef while zigzagging because of two Japanese planes overhead. Wakelin's boat had only one prop left and the shaft was bent, while the other was completely disabled.

In water up to their knees, the crews pushed, pulled and rocked the boats for four hours.

The lone crippled engine got Wakelin's boat free after a five hour struggle. Then he pulled the other boat free. Wakelin followed Filipino guidance to a safe anchorage, but the other boat grounded again in river mud.

Then natives began a hurried camouflaging job that brought joy to the PT crew, bringing canoe load after canoe load of palm fronds. These blanketed the top side of Wakelin's boat, fish nets were strung down the sides. Japanese planes passed overhead without spotting the boat.

Missed by U. S. Planes.

Next day the two boats were jockeyed together and again camouflaged. Once more the Japanese planes passed over.

"But the thing we really got a kick out of," said Ensign W. B. McDonald, Struthers, O., "was when we heard our own army search planes report they couldn't find any trace of us. We could see them in the air."

All the crews said they received a "fantastic" reception from the Filipinos, who hadn't seen white visitors in years. They turned their homes over to the crews and put on a jive session on the beach the second night with a strange saxophone, trombone and basso orchestra rendition of "Sweet Sue." A roast pig feast and a school house dance were scheduled for last night.

CHICAGOAN IN ITALY DIVES INTO CELLAR; IT'S FULL OF WINE!

Shaffer, a member of the 88th Blue Devil division, part of Lt. Gen. Clark's 5th army, was resting in the doorway of an abandoned house when a German shell landed nearby. He dashed for a basement exit nearby, ran down the few steps, and into a wine cellar. The floor was flooded with fermenting wine and for over an hour Shaffer sat on a box in the spilled liquid.

Mrs. Penny Shaffer, his wife, and their 18 month old daughter, Judy, live at 8108 Essex av., Chicago.

NAZIS ARE NOT 'REELING BACK,' RALSTON SAYS

MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 7 (AP).—Col. J. L. Ralston, who resigned last week as defense minister, said in a speech today that his recent tour of the western front disclosed that supply and reënforcement problems "have been very difficult."

He made no mention of the cabinet crisis, resulting from his demand that Canadian draftees be sent abroad as reënforcements, regardless of whether they volunteered. He said the Germans were fighting desperately, not "reeling back," and that men at the front "know that there is bitter fighting ahead" before the war ends.

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton has succeeded Ralston as defense minister.

Woman Leaps Into River; Saved by Bridgetenders

Miss Gladys Rienert, 30, of 1242 N. La Salle st., who stepped from a taxicab and leaped into the Chicago river at the Clark st. bridge yesterday, was rescued by bridgetenders and taken to Henrotin hospital where she later was reported to be recovering.

ESTIMATE NAZIS' 6 MONTH LOSSES 2,044,090 TROOPS

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Germany has suffered at least 2,044,090 casualties in the last half year, official statements from the eastern, western and southern fronts disclosed yesterday. Actual enemy losses may be a great deal higher.

Official allied sources listed these German casualties between May and November: Russia, 790,000; Western front, 1,060,090; Italy, 194,000; total, 2,044,090.

Premier Stalin in announcing the German casualties made no estimate of German wounded and it was not clear whether the 790,000 included all sectors of the 1,800 mile Russian front. In September, the soviet information bureau announced that 1,185,476 enemy troops had been killed or captured between June 23 and Aug. 31. Stalin said 120 German divisions had been smashed during the summer, an indicated enemy loss of 1,200,000 men.

Incomplete figures of various armies in France, the Low Countries and western Germany listed 660,090 prisoners. Prime Minister Churchill said on Sept. 28 that 400,000 more Germans had been killed or wounded.

Misses Husband

MRS. RHODA DE SANDO.

Mrs. Rhoda De Sando, 23, of 1422 Ferdinand st., mother of three children, was arrested yesterday after, police said, she fired two shots at her estranged husband, Bruno, 29, of 2013 Kendall av., at 11th st. and Wabash av. Both shots missed. Police said she has been receiving $20 a week from her husband, a pressman, for the support of their three children, Minnie, 6; Sylvia, 5, and Patricia, 4.

JAP SINGAPORE GENERAL MOVED TO PHILIPPINES

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Indicating concern over American successes in the Philippines, the Japanese war lords have switched generals for that area. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, Japan's victorious general at Singapore and Corregidor, has been transferred from Malaya to serve as commander in chief of the Japanese forces in the Philippines, Tokyo radio said last night.

Yamashita apparently succeeds Lt. Gen. Shigenori Kuroda in the Philippines. He presumably will be responsible, as was Kuroda, to Field Marshal Count Juichi Terauchi, commander in chief of Japanese forces in the southern regions, including the Philippines.

It was Yamashita who replaced Lt. Gen. Masaharu Homma when the latter's Bataan campaign dragged on as the result of heroic opposition by Americans and Filipinos. Yamashita was in charge of the Japanese when Corregidor fell in May, 1942.

French Grant Amnesty to Communist Leader Thorez

PARIS, Nov. 7 (AP).—The French cabinet today granted amnesty to Communist Leader Maurice Thorez. He may return to Paris now from Moscow to take his place as a member of the consultative assembly. The decision culminated a year of agitation by the Communists for the government to quash desertion charges arising from Thorez's flight from the country during the Daladier government's Communist roundup in 1939. At that time Thorez was a member of the French army.

KENOSHA SERGEANT DIES OF WOUNDS, HIS BRITISH BRIDE TOLD

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Sgt. Michael Sungail of Kenosha, Wis., member of a famous air borne division, and Miss Jessie Wheeler of Leicester had planned to marry last June, but invasions don't wait on romance.

After landing in Normandy by glider on D-day and participating in the fighting, Sungail was granted special leave for the wedding. Seven hours after the ceremony, Sungail had to report to his unit.

Mrs. Surgail has just been informed, only a month after she became a bride, that her husband died of wounds in Holland.

MacARTHUR GIVES PURPLE HEART TO CORRESPONDENT

GEN. MacARTHUR'S HDQ., Philippines, Nov. 7 (AP).—Casualties among war correspondents in the Southwest Pacific are proportionately greater than in any other theater of action because the aggressive correspondents go in with the troops from one operation to the next with little rest, Col. Legrande Diller, press relations officer, said today.

His statement was made with the announcement of a Purple Heart award to Clete Roberts, Blue network radio correspondent, by Gen. MacArthur. Roberts was wounded by the same bomb which killed Asahel Bush, Associated Press war correspondent, and Stanley Gunn, Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Houston Chronicle correspondent.

Roberts' citation was the second general order issued by MacArthur. The first was to his troops.

U. S. RECOGNIZES 'REBEL' REGIME IN GUATEMALA

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Acting Secretary of State Stettinius today announced United States recognition of the revolutionary junta in Guatemala. He said it was understood many other American republics are taking similar action.

The present government of Guatemala is a triumvirate which came into power following a revolution that overthrew Provisional President Federico Ponce on Oct. 19.

The new government last week held congressional elections which were described as "the first free election in the history of the country." A Presidential election is scheduled for next month.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

FOUNDED JUNE 10, 1847

18 ★★ WED., NOV. 8, 1944.

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER MAY 14, 1903, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT CHICAGO, ILL., UNDER ACT OF MARCH 3, 1879.

All unsolicited articles, manuscripts, letters, and pictures sent to The Tribune are sent at the owner's risk, and The Tribune company expressly repudiates any liability or responsibility for their safe custody or return.

WAR TIME ELECTION.

THE TRIBUNE has decided to postpone comment on the outcome of the election for at least a day. Because in a number of states the polls will remain open longer than has been customary, the tabulations will arrive later than usual. Our first obligation to our readers is to give them the news as promptly and as fully as it becomes available. Accordingly, we have thought it best to concentrate the efforts of our composing room upon that task. Only if the outcome becomes transparently clear at an early hour shall we feel justified in altering this decision.

Regardless of its outcome, this election has served once again to prove that there is no need to suspend elections during war time. Lincoln set the precedent in the election of 1864. After it was over, he made one of his most memorable addresses to a throng that gathered outside the White House. It was in that address that he said:

"It has long been a grave question whether any government not too strong for the liberties of its people can be strong enough to maintain its own existence in great emergencies. On this point, the present rebellion brought our Republic to a severe test, and a Presidential election, occurring in regular course during the rebellion added not a little to the strain. . . .

"But the election was a necessity. We cannot have free government without elections, and if the rebellion could force us to forego or postpone a national election, it might fairly claim to have already conquered and ruined us. . . .

"But the election, along with its incidental and undesirable strife, has done good, too. It has demonstrated that a people's government can sustain a national election in the midst of a great civil war. Until now it had not been known to the world that this was a possibility."

Our country is still the only great country in the world which has dared to hold national elections in the midst of war. Of that achievement and of that proof of our faith in our Constitution and in each other, all Americans can feel proud.

NEW DEAL LAW.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Los Angeles has upheld the sentences imposed by a military court in Hawaii upon two civilians. Judge Delbert Metzger of the United States District court in Hawaii had granted writs of habeas corpus to the two men, and in doing so had upheld the supremacy of the civil courts over the military, except in the presence of invasion or insurrection. This wholesome finding has now been reversed.

There can be no doubt that the danger of invasion which was the justification for military law in the territory has long since disappeared. The press reports indicate that the opinion turned on the question whether Gov. Stainback's decree of Feb. 8, 1943, restoring the civil functions of government, also terminated the suspension of habeas corpus. The court held that it didn't, thus reversing Judge Metzger.

The American people will not be slow to recognize the trend disclosed in this decision. It will gratify the New Dealers who are forever looking for new devices by which to impose summary punishment on citizens who dare to oppose the administration in the political arena or who venture to question the ultimate wisdom of its regulations of business and daily life. This is a New Deal decision, laying down New Deal law, and runs counter to the republican principles upon which this nation was founded.

The Bill of Rights was written into the Constitution in the shadow of a great war, during which a substantial proportion of the leading citizens of the new country were Tories or Tory sympathizers. Nevertheless, the Bill of Rights insists upon the fullest protection by the civil courts of the citizen charged with a crime. The scope of military justice is narrowly restricted. The Los Angeles decision subordinates the independent judiciary to summary courts under control of the executive. The American people cannot afford to let this opinion stand unchallenged.

LIBERIA.

Closer economic and political relations between the United States and Liberia, as recommended recently by THE TRIBUNE, are likely to eventuate from the visit of an American economic commission to the African republic.

Under a treaty negotiated ten months ago, but made public only within the last week, the United States undertakes to respect and protect the independence of Liberia and is permitted to build naval, military, and air installations in the country. A seaport is to be constructed. Liberian ports now are poor, and have been a principal factor in retarding the development of the country. We may already have airports there, but, if so, they are a military secret.

Liberia, situated astride the equator, is one of the better localities for growing rubber. The Firestone Rubber company is producing 21,000 tons annually now from plantations leased in 1926, and has permission for further leases sufficient to provide 400,000 tons a year if and when the trees are brought to bearing.

Liberia also has rich mineral resources, largely undeveloped, but its greatest value, perhaps, to the United States, lies in the fact that it can furnish an eastern anchor for the outer defenses of the United States, and a most useful base for international air routes. Monrovia, the capital, is 38 miles closer to the bulge of Brazil than more highly publicized Dakar.

Liberia has regarded the United States as its protector since the nation was founded by the repatriation in Africa of freed slaves. The colonization, however, never assumed large proportions. More than 90 per cent of the million-odd Liberians are native jungle tribesmen.

TRUMAN ON THE POLL TAX.

We are indebted to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for pointing out an error in a TRIBUNE editorial on Oct. 17, in which we asserted that Sen. Truman was paired against the petition to limit debate on the anti-poll tax bill. The failure of that petition to pass resulted in the bill being talked to death.

The Congressional Record shows that Sen. Truman was paired in favor of the petition, not against it. Our erroneous information came from the senate roll call on the matter as furnished by the Associated Press, and printed May 16 in THE TRIBUNE. We regret that the error was not brought to our attention before the campaign was finished. The copy of the Post-Dispatch which mentioned it reached our desks only yesterday.

WORLD CO-OPERATION AS STALIN SEES IT.

An unscheduled speech which wound up the New Deal campaign was delivered from Moscow by Marshal Stalin on election eve. He came out for world organization, at least to the extent of enforcing the peace by "a special post-war armed organization." He said that an alliance of Russia, the United States, and Great Britain was important for all. He, significantly, did not invite China into the brotherhood of peace-loving pistol packers, nor France, altho the tentative draft at Dumbarton Oaks called for them to be members in the select security council, along with the other three powers.

Stalin's speech may have been delivered, as stated, in observance of the 27th anniversary of the Russian revolution, but its timing was rather fortunate for Mr. Roosevelt. It was designed to overcome some of the suspicions that have been aroused recently as to the amount of coöperation that might be expected from Russia in the days to come. In an indirect way, at least, Stalin sought to demonstrate that he stood with Mr. Roosevelt and the internationalism of which Dumbarton Oaks is one manifestation.

It is difficult, however, to accept Stalin's declaration at face value, in view of the fact that everything else that is coming out of Moscow these days confirms the impression that the leading isolationist nation of the world is this same Russia of his.

Russia, for instance, has been deploring the presence of American troops in Iran. It is true that they went there to guard the line of supply from the Persian gulf over which American lend-lease materials were poured into Russia, thus enabling Stalin to turn back the Germans at Stalingrad and reverse the course of the war on the eastern front. That does not seem to concern the Russians now. They want to get hold of Persian oil and apparently regard the American troops in Iran as agents of capitalism.

Meanwhile, Russia threatens to withdraw from the European inland transport conference, which is endeavoring to arrange a pool of all transport facilities to insure priorities in moving military supplies and forces, relief supplies, and repatriating war prisoners. The Russian objections are to an American proposal which would place transport control in the hands of the very same three nations which Stalin now says can work together effectively to enforce a peace.

In his dealings with Iran and other nations Stalin is pursuing a course of nationalistic diplomacy motivated by self-interest and nothing else. He proposes to get something out of foreigners wherever it can be had, and the Atlantic Charter, the four freedoms, and the high-flown procedures worked out at Dumbarton Oaks for regulating intercourse between nations don't influence his methods or enter into his calculations.

When the Romanian government doesn't suit him he orders the Romanians to get another, and they do. When the premier of Iran is slow in coming thru with the oil he wants he starts manufacturing "provocative" incidents inside Iran, just as Hitler used to stage them along the Czech and Polish frontiers. When he is displeased because Mr. Roosevelt invites Spain to the international air conference he turns his own delegates around after they have got as far as Canada and brings them back home. It has to be his way or he won't play.

Switzerland, after 20 years of diplomatic non-recognition, makes a gesture toward international amity by proposing that diplomatic relations be restored between Russia and herself. Stalin retorts that the Swiss are "pursuing a hostile, pro-fascist policy toward the soviet" and the offer is turned down cold. The Russian dictator doesn't even say "no, thanks." He just says no.

Meanwhile Stalin's conception of the good neighbor policy is to assimilate part of Poland and Finland, part of Romania, and all of the Balkan states. He growls at the Turks on a weekly schedule. Poles trying to deal with him describe the alternatives he proposes as a "choice of being murdered or committing suicide."

In view of all these inconsistencies, it is a bit difficult to reconcile Stalin's declaration favoring international coöperation with his actual performance. It can be done, however, if one accepts the logical view that Stalin intends to fix his frontiers and obtain the other concessions he seeks before any peace is made and any united nations council or world court gets a chance to have any say about it. After that, a peace based on force to uphold the status quo would be altogether to his advantage and liking. It would be insurance that what he has he will hold, whether his new subjects like it or not.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

Reg. U. S. Pat. Office

THAT IS THE QUESTION.

Newspapering is an occupation about which the nonparticipating reader has an apparently insatiable curiosity. The routine of a newspaper writer's life includes frequent questions from laymen about the methods and conditions of his work. Such quizzing is often automatic, uttered without attempt to recall previous information given on the subject. People whom we have known for years are likely to ask today the same question that they asked last week or month: "When do you do your work?" On the other hand, when we excuse ourselves from festivity with the statement, "I've got to go to work," they invariably ask, "Why are you going to work now?"

* * *

This column is released to the printers in corrected proof between 3 and 3:30 p. m. The work that produced it has been performed during the preceding 24 hours, and also during the numerous years of our life that run back to the dawn of memory. But it is difficult to explain, in casual conversation, that there is no measuring rod for journalism, and that we do not operate like a water faucet, turning on and off at stated intervals. Therefore the question, "When do you do your work?" has become our favorite bore.

* * *

The editing part of these columns is done in the afternoon between 2 and 6 o'clock, and the writing part—such articles as this—at any time of night that is favorable, generally between 11 p. m. and 2 a. m. The work is arranged so that it is always well in advance of composing room requirements. There is never hurry or excitement when the Line o' Type column meets its deadline, and its editor fears that he is not a character for the motion pictures.

* * *

These remarks will explain why today's column does not reveal any knowledge of the election returns. Nevertheless we expect that many readers, on noting this omission, will say, "I wonder when that guy does his work?"

CELESTIAL GARDENER.

Now, as you walk at evening thru the mead
Of cobalt sward, where stars are daisies; where
The Milky Way scatters the giant seed
Softly before your reverent feet, is there
One swift, bright moment when you lean to see
What lonely blossoms grace your garden far
Below? And do you stoop to pick a star—
Remembering—and toss it down to me?

And do you, from celestial gardens, turn
Tired eyes to rest on brake and maidenhair,
And feel a sudden stab of grave concern,
Finding your garden in the sky less fair?
Do you, a gardener now in Paradise,
Look down upon blue phlox with wistful eyes?

Ferdinand Goes to the Cleaner.

"If you don't look like something the cat dragged in!" I gasped as Ferdinand, my silver tabby cat, emerged from the basement. "Did you lose an election bet or have you changed to winter lubrication?"

"That's right, laugh," he stormed. "Whose fault is it I look like this? Yours, my girl. Remember yesterday when you wondered what had happened to the can of waste kitchen fat? Well, I found it—accidentally. Not only did I knock it down from the shelf, but sister, I skidded in it."

"Do you realize that you are literally dripping with a pound of steak?" I demanded.

"You won't be for long," I said, grimly bringing out a huge pan. "We're going to lux your panties. I can't have you lying on the furniture as long as you resemble an oiled floor mop."

"Help, help," he screamed. "This will kill me."

"In that case," I said, "have you any last words?"

"Tell them," he moaned, "that what happened to me shouldn't happen to a dog."

GRANDMAS PAST AND PRESENT.

The grandma of the days gone by
Was feeble, old, and gray;
There was no luster in her eye,
No scent of sweet sachet,
And as she hobbled down the trail,
Her step was 'bout as spright as
That of hibernating snail
Afflicted with arthritis.
But ah, the grandma of today,
With ruby lips and curls!
Her laughter rings out bright and gay
Thru teeth as white as pearls.
And while she may not be a whiz
At strenuous athletics,
There is no doubt but what she is
An expert at cosmetics.

PRODUCTION ANALYZERS.

The navy has several good billets open for men 21 to 35 years old as production analyzer officers if the candidate can meet either of the two following sets of qualifications: [a] Electrical or mechanical engineers with four years' experience in industrial sales work or two years of actual production experience; [b] graduates of a recognized school of business administration and experienced in business or industrial organization and management. Candidates in the latter group also should have had four years of sales work or two years of production experience. Candidates selected will be commissioned and assigned to the analysis of production methods and to check the progress of products manufactured under navy contract. See Lt. Petrie, room 302, Board of Trade building, Chicago.

OBLITERATING SCARS WITH SKIN GRAFTS.

THE covering of the body is an important organ. When healthy and uninjured, it promotes elimination and gets rid of a substantial amount of waste. Furthermore, it forms a protective envelope which resists infection. We seek to promote the healing of every cut and scratch; every abrasion. We do this primarily because we do not wish to offer bacteria an opportunity to enter the circulation. We must look upon a denuded area, therefore, as a possible source of trouble.

Now, nature is kind. The normal edges of the cuticle around a wound will do their best to cover the laceration. But, more often than not, a large amount of scar tissue will be deposited. Except as a "filling," this material is worthless. It is not elastic like true skin. It may be compared to putty, which hardens and contracts with the passing of time. It is devoid of many structures which we need, such as sweat and sebaceous glands, hair follicles, etc.

Fortunately, surgeons have come to the rescue. They have found that they can transplant bits of cuticle, which can be removed from a remote portion of the body. They are placed upon raw regions and permitted to grow. Thus we find it possible to mend extensive areas, not only preserving the function of the damaged parts but insuring satisfactory cosmetic results. Some of us may recall that experts in horticulture are able to fasten twigs from one fruit tree on the stem of another.

As we would expect, there are a number of methods, including the so-called pinch grafts, which are quite tiny. Other varieties are split, full thickness, and pedicle grafts. Which style shall be employed will depend upon the location of the lesion and its size.

The value of this rather delicate type of surgery is exhibited in extensive burns, particularly with children. Otherwise, a wide scar may contract and produce a serious deformity. The procedure is to remove it, expose the well nourished tissue beneath, and then apply strips or dots of new epidermis. From these islands, the spread of epithelial cells will radiate in all directions. It is no uncommon situation to find that a given blemish will require several hundred additions. Thereafter, pressure dressings may be applied, to make certain that the new elements will "take."

Reconstructive surgery will be accorded a new birth when we contemplate the thousands of our wounded warriors who will return with repaired but unsightly wounds. Enough of this remarkable work is already under way to enable us to obtain a clear conception of the problem.

The technique is becoming more perfect and more sure with the passing of time. While the process is as old as Egyptian civilization, its perfection has been brought about within the last two generations. We can anticipate with confidence that denuded hands, arms, legs, and features will be restored to a degree hitherto undreamed of.

PAIN IN SIDE.

W. C. writes: Each winter I am troubled with pains in the pleural region. Is there anything I can do to forestall them?

REPLY.

If this is true pleurisy, an examination will disclose the cause and site. Strapping the affected side of the chest [with adhesive] may be helpful. Other conditions, such as neuralgia, herpes, pleurodynia, etc. should be investigated.

EYE INFECTION.

H. S. writes: What is virus conjunctivitis?

REPLY.

You probably refer to keratoconjunctivitis, which may become epidemic. The cause is supposed to be a virus, which is spread by close proximity as well as contact. Outbreaks have occurred in a number of industrial plants. The malady is thought to be of oriental origin.

HIGHLY NUTRITIOUS.

T. W. writes: If a person expects to be operated on soon, is there any special diet he should follow?

REPLY.

A well balanced nutritional program should be adopted. Reinforcement with vitamins C and K is recommended.

YELLOW SCALES.

G. L. writes: How can one tell the difference between ordinary dandruff and seborrheic dermatitis?

REPLY.

In seborrhea, the scales are larger, greasy, and yellow tinged.

News of Last Month.

The daily news sheet issued daily on board a warship in the Pacific first gave a resumé of war news of the day [Oct. 19]. Then, under the heading, bulletin No. 3, came this miracle of wry understatement:

"Adm. Halsey reported to Adm. Nimitz that all the 3d fleet ships sunk by radio Tokyo have been salvaged and were now retiring toward the enemy. Repeat—toward the enemy."

The Morning After.

Maybe the United States has a 33d President today. Maybe it still has the 32d. Maybe a lot of voters are unhappy. Maybe they do not feel the election results are sufficiently conclusive as yet for them to be unhappy. Maybe you are eating crow, and your best friend [to whom you no longer are speaking] is drinking champagne. Maybe you are abstaining from both food and drink.

At any rate it seems a good time to delve a little further into our recent inquiry into the origin of placenames in the United States. You may disagree, but surely you will not when we inform you that the Cape Cod hamlet of Mashpee, Mass., was the first town in the country to come thru with its balloting results. If that does not indicate an eventual victory for curious nomenclature, what does?

The thing that distressed us was that there was no breakdown, for national edification, on the voting of Roll, Ariz., or Sinky, Neb., or Elbow, N. Y., or Swat-the-Fly, Ia., and it may well be that the general public will never know what actually transpired yesterday in Yelper, Va., or Full, Ill., or Loco, Cal. But Mashpee—Mashpee was first in 1940 and again in 1944.

And Wapsipinicon Junction, Ia. What of it? Must we always know about Boston and all about New York and all about Trenton, N. J., and nothing about the towns who have made our tongues so agile?

And what about Bill's Place? We can't tell you what state it is in, but it is [according to Mr. S. Hyman, a fountain of information on such matters] the smallest post-office in the country. Bill's Place is a small store on top of a mountain. Bill, his wife, and three children constitute the population. Was Bill judge at the polling place while his wife voted and his wife judge while he voted? And do you suppose they voted the children this year? Ten to 1, we'll never know, and in that, any one may say, lies one of the tragedies of our civilization.

And then there are all those places in Kentucky: Million, Eighty-eight, Seventy-six, Twenty-Six, Breeding, Sparrow, Dimple, Bluehole, Marrowbone, Prosperity, Cracker, Paint Lick, Sacredwind, Thousandsticks, and Mouthcard. If the public can remember their names, the public desires to know their vote. They are indigenous America.

And it probably won't affect your disposition today one way or another, but Rising Sun, Ind., is just across the Ohio river from Rabbit Hash, Ky., and the really sad thing about the next four years is the great number of political oratory ghost writers who will be out of work.

Homecoming.

The volunteer worker at the Masonic Temple service men's center here arrived early on Halloween. As she neared the door, a gray metal coffin covered with an American flag was being withdrawn from a hearse. A soldier quartet carried it inside and up to the chapel at the back. A few women in black and fewer men waited within the doors to go to the chapel with it.

The worker asked the service men's center hostess if it were any one she knew. It was. There had been a double airplane crash in the west a few days before. This was one of the pilots, the son of the caretaker at the temple. It was his last routine flight. He had been scheduled for a leave home before going overseas. He had been expected in time for the party, and he arrived just in time. One by one, many of those there who had known him left the merriment of Halloween to go into the little chapel and pause beside the sealed, flag draped gray coffin.

ELECTION DAY IN TEXAS.

San Benito, Tex., Oct. 31.—The readers of THE TRIBUNE may find it of interest to note how the Australian ballot system works in "The Tip o' Tex," Cameron county being the southmost point of the continental United States.

San Benito is a city of about 10 thousand with an equal surrounding rural population using it as a voting place. A couple of months ago a primary was held at the one voting place and this is the picture: A large room in the water company building, a table and on it a pile of uninitialed ballots, four chairs, on one a judge of qualifications, on another a clerk holding a list of those who had paid their poll tax, a third holding an ordinary pasteboard shoe box with a slit cut in the top—no booths, no rail, no flag, no watchers, no challengers, no registration books. None were needed.

It was Saturday, a big day in San Benito in cotton ginning time, with at least 3,000 men and women of voting age milling up and down its two business streets, yet late in the afternoon the clerk had checked off but about 50 on his list. A "worker" brought in a voter, he, himself, flashing a well worn poll tax receipt and remarking, "He's all right, Judge;" the judge nodded, but the clerk made no entry, and the voter picked up a ballot and checked those he favored, drawing lines thru the others, keeping up a lively tilt the while with the others as to the personalities and records of the candidates, then crowded his vote into the shoe box.

This was only the primary? Not on your tintype! This was the election of county officers, of all state officers, including the governor and members of both branches of the legislature, also a representative in congress and Presidential electors. On Nov. 7 there will be a ratification, nothing less, nothing more, as the two party system here is as extinct as the dodo. As to Texas, the greatest of the 48 [in some ways], "It's in the bag," along with the "four freedoms." F. W. BALCOMB.

FROM COMMISSIONER CORRIGAN.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The splendid cooperation so generously extended to this department by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE during Fire Prevention week is gratefully acknowledged.

It is believed that our campaign to advise the people of Chicago on the important subject of fire prevention was most successful, and accomplished by the invaluable assistance rendered by you. M. J. CORRIGAN.

HER HUSBAND'S PORTRAIT.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—This last week I received a sketch of my husband, drawn by your artist, Gary Sheahan. I want you to know how much I appreciated receiving it. It is very heart warming to know that some one else is taking interest in our fighting men, some one besides their own family and personal friends. I am sure Sgt. Cox and I will treasure it always. MRS. JAMES COX.

WAR WORKERS' AWARD.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—The Chicago Tribune War Workers' Award each month to a Chicago area war plant worker for outstanding service to the nation's war effort we believe to be an effective method of increasing employe morale. You are to be congratulated on this work. We are very glad that one of our employes won the 27th award.

L. L. COLBERT.

WHO'S PICKING UP THE CHECK?

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The account of the international air conference which is taking place at the Stevens is very interesting reading, but THE TRIBUNE doesn't tell us a lot of things about it that we'd like to know.

Of course, I am just a common Joe who pays his taxes and does his work and I probably should not exhibit curiosity about things which concern only our ruling bufocrats in Washington, but I cannot help wondering.

After reading about two special trains from Washington, 500 rooms and a private dining room reserved for delegates and staffs, a staff of 200 efficient secretaries, etc., I wonder who is paying for all this, and why, and with what.

With the experiences of the New Deal's operations for the last 12 years in mind, I suppose that the American taxpayers are holding the bag as usual. What are we apt to get for our investment? Do they have to spend money like this to get the opportunity to give American air supremacy away? What are we negotiating? With most of the plane production facilities, the best pilots to fly them, and three-fourths of the traffic and freight loads bound to be ours, what have the other nations to offer?

I note, too, that Russia is absent. No doubt the Russians will take care of Russia, as usual, while we try to take care of the world and lose our shirts.

HENRY WILLIAMS.

HOW TO HANDLE GERMANY AFTER THE WAR.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 25.—All we need do is send to Germany our department of justice [Hididdle Biddle] and a carefully chosen flock of our screwy deal planners and give them a free hand to experiment, regulate, and generally make the country over. Given enough rope, they would keep the krauts from being much good either from a military or an economic standpoint for as long as the civilized nations felt it was humane to leave them there.

Of course, you couldn't let the Jerries know what was in store for them or they would surrender to Uncle Joe Stalin. JIM MACK.

A NOT SO JAUNTY ANGLE.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Now that we are faced with a cigaret famine, what will our commander in chief put into his famous long holder, for surely he will join the masses in deprivation? Incidentally it would be interesting to know just where the cigarets are going. My sons in the air corps in Italy receive four packs a week and write home for more. MRS. J. BYRNE.

AIR TRANSPORTS PEACE FACTORS, SWINTON HOLDS

Bombers Are Secondary, Says British Leader.

BY FRANK HUGHES.

World security—the keeping of the peace—is one of the principal responsibilities of the International Civil Aviation conference here, and the British plan for an international aviation pact provides for it, British Civil Aviation Minister Swinton, chairman of the United Kingdom delegation, said in a press conference yesterday.

Swinton presided over the gathering of correspondents and writers, which is a daily feature of the conference of 51 allied and neutral nations in the Stevens hotel, in the place of Adolf A. Berle, president of the conference and chairman of the United States delegation, who flew to New York Monday night to vote.

Transport Quota "Birthright."

He said that while there is a great difference between bombing planes and civilian transports, bombers can't capture a city or country, but an airborne division can. Airborne divisions, he said, are carried in the equivalent of civilian transports and the paratroopers who crushed Holland during the German invasion were carried there by JU-52s, the standard German transport plane.

Given the right to carry a quota of air traffic, passenger and freight, equivalent to the amount originating in that country, Swinton said, each country would have its "birthright" in civilian transports which it could count on to fly its armies in event of war.

Since the armies of the future will be transported largely by air, he said, this will give the nations a feeling of security necessary for world peace. He added, however, that the British as well as other nations hope that the world will not remain an armed camp.

British Policy Like Canada's.

It was learned that the British air policy, which calls for a strong international air authority, has no essential differences from the Canadian plan, which would set up a world equivalent of the American civil aeronautics board, empowered to regulate routes, rates, frequency of schedules, and operating policy.

The British, in addition, believe that any international organization governing the air should work according to rules laid down for it, and should not be a legislative body creating its own laws. The British also are intent on getting commercial airplanes in flight immediately after the war and are willing to negotiate separate flight agreements in the time between the end of the war and the ratification of any international air pact, which some say may be two years or more.

Each nation at the conference is entitled to set forth a list of air routes it might like to operate after the war. Many of these documents, including the United States' proposal, have been filed. The Swiss delegates added theirs yesterday, listing 17 routes, including one to the United States.

Election Holds Spotlight.

Altho nine subcommittees held meetings during the day it was evident that only routine progress was made, with the American election holding the spotlight even in the international cosmopolitan atmosphere. Somebody started a straw vote among the 150 newspaper correspondents and photographers at the Stevens who include two men from the Russian Tass agency and a number of British, Canadians, Chinese, and others, but balloting was so slow it appeared that the official returns would be counted first.

The newspaper men were busy asking other persons how they thought it would go.

VISIT MIDWEST, IS ADVICE OF JAN STRUTHER

Jan Struther, author of the book, "Mrs. Miniver," was enthusiastic yesterday in her praise of the midwest, and said she wished more travelers from foreign countries would visit the heart of the United States instead of just skirting the coastal cities. Mrs. Struther spoke in Hotel Sherman at a meeting of the Rotary club of Chicago.

"People in the midwest are so much more like people of my generation," she said, after remarking on the similarity of eastern residents to men and women of "my grandmother's day."

The author's husband, 1st Lt. Anthony Maxtone Graham, who served with the Scots guards, is a prisoner in Germany after being captured in Africa during fighting in Lybia. Her elder son, 1st Lt. Jamie Graham, also is serving with his father's regiment. Mrs. Struther came to America in July, 1941, with her two younger children.

CHICAGOAN IN ITALY GETS TOO VIOLENT WITH WRONG 'COW'

WITH THE 5TH ARMY IN ITALY.—Pvt. Lawrence Landstrom of Chicago, recently suffered a black eye and bruises when attacked by a bull while serving with the 5th army.

Landstrom, a medic with the 88th Blue Devil division, was taking cover after treating wounded doughboys during a heavy barrage. Believing the bull to be a cow, he brushed the animal aside. The bull snorted and charged Landstrom, throwing him into the air. Landstrom climbed the nearest tree, with the animal close on his heels. Another soldier shot the animal as it pawed at the tree. Landstrom serves with the 349th [Krautkiller] regiment. His wife, Gloria, lives at 1450 Glendale ave., Chicago.

164th Infantile Paralysis Case Is Reported in City

An 8 month old girl on the near north side was reported to the board of health yesterday as an infantile paralysis patient. It was the 164th case in Chicago this year, and there have been nine deaths, compared with 961 cases and 85 deaths a year ago on Nov. 7.

CHICAGOANS PAY HURRICANE TOLL IN FRUIT BOOST

Hurricane damage suffered by Florida growers will be reflected in price advances to Chicago consumers, effective tomorrow, Marion W. Isbell, metropolitan area director for the office of price administration, said yesterday. The increases will amount to 2 cents a pound for whitemeat grapefruit, 1 cent a pound for pinkmeat grapefruit, and ½ cent a pound for oranges. Other price changes include snap beans, off 4½ cents to 22 cents a pound; lettuce, large head, up 1 cent to 13 cents a pound, and sweet potatoes, up 2 cents to 18 cents for two pounds.

GAS KILLS CHILD, PERILS LIVES OF 4 OTHER GIRLS

Ottawa, Ill., Nov. 7 [Special].—Mary Laine, 7, is dead and her sisters, Arlene, 13; Rita Mary, 10; Joan C., 9, and Constance, 6, are in a serious condition as a result of gas fumes from a water heater inhaled last night as they slept at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Laine, in a federal war workers housing project in Seneca.

The father of the children, who has been seriously ill, is a patient at a hospital in Champaign, and Mrs. Laine, with her daughter, Claire, 3, went to Streator last night to see her mother, Mrs. Buelah M. Reno, for financial assistance and stay overnight, authorities said.

Mrs. Sam West and Mrs. Ida Johnston, neighbors of the Laines, when unable to arouse the children this morning, broke into the house to find Mary dead and the others unconscious.

Civil War Veteran Votes, but Won't Tell for Whom

Keene, N. H., Nov. 7 (AP).—Frank E. Amadon, 98, this city's only surviving Civil war veteran, cast his ballot today but declined to reveal his choice. Amadon cast his first Presidential ballot for Gen. Ulysses S. Grant.

GROVE'S COLD TABLETS

This Thanksgiving Season, perhaps more than any other, should be a time for giving thanks to a kind Providence for the good things that have come to us.

There's much for which to be thankful.

Our industries have met the challenge of war. With fortitude and skill workers have labored long hours, producing all of the things needed to wage victorious battle.

Our farmers have toiled to produce larger and ever larger yields. A "salvo" to them, and their Victory Garden "cousins," for the miracles they have performed in feeding a nation and its fighters.

Our railroad workers continue their untiring, 'round-the-clock effort. On them has fallen the responsibility of moving millions of uniformed men, equipment and supplies. Their accomplishments have amazed a nation.

Our armed forces are pushing forward in every theatre of war—forward to the complete collapse of the Axis powers—forward, ever forward, to the day when every uniformed American will be home again. To them, our undying gratitude!

Yes, there is a "break in the clouds of war"—an ever-widening break. Final Victory is coming, and here at "North Western" we are thankful for the privilege that is ours to play a part in the swift-moving drama.

Tribune Man Aboard as Ice Perils Plane.

BY FRANK STURDY.

UNITED STATES AIR BASE, The Pas, Manitoba, Nov. 7.—Both propellers on army flight 62, a C-47 Douglas transport, are slinging ice in a dense overcast at 12,500 feet. Frozen slugs hit the fuselage with the whacking noise of a hard hit baseball.

The clouds are dense and wet. De-icer boots on the wings puff and shrink much too slowly. Over them, from wing root to tip, there is an inch thick coating of ice. The boots knock chunks of it off from time to time, but most stays on.

Overcast High Above.

Ice coats the windshield. Occasionally the wipers and the deicing solution spraying on the glass thru small metal tubes cut the ice so we can see that the top of the overcast is still well above the plane, probably at about 14,000 feet. There is every indication that the cloud level rises ahead of us to 20,000 feet.

So far, there is not too much ice on the wings for the plane to handle, but Capt. George Frank of the Alaskan division of the air transport command, our pilot, says he would not want any more. The throttles are advanced to the limit, both engines delivering maximum power, but we cannot climb above the icing clouds.

The air speed indicator reads 120 miles an hour, falls off to 110 in rough spots in the air, unpleasantly low. The engine in the right wing falters at intervals, running jerkily. The prospect is not good.

Five Soldier Passengers.

In the cabin, a cargo of several thousand pounds put aboard at The Pas is destined for Churchill, the next base up the line, on the southwest shore of Hudson bay. Five soldiers, bound for Churchill and Southampton Island, 500 miles beyond Churchill, are sprawled on the cargo, or sit just as uncomfortably in bucket seats.

Airports at the three bases are under jurisdiction of the United States army forces in central Canada, with headquarters at Winnipeg. They were intended as ferrying points to England for aircraft from American factories. They were built when German submarines were sinking large numbers of ships in the Atlantic, boldly showing themselves in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The submarines were under control before work was finished on the bases. They are not used in military operations. At each base there is a small force for "housekeeping" for weather reporting, and to maintain runways.

Our flight 62 is a weekly run, supplied by the Alaskan division of the air transport command to get fresh food and mail to the isolated stations at Churchill and Southampton.

15 Above Zero.

Frost coats the windows of the cabin, unevenly heated by warm air from a ceiling duct. The thermometer dial on the instrument panel in the cockpit shows the temperature in the clouds outside the plane is 15 degrees above zero, Fahrenheit.

Lt. Frank Light of Norristown, Pa., peers at the ice on the wings thru a peep hole scraped in one of the frosted windows. He is riding in an airplane for the first time. So is Sgt. Milton Goldman, 2942 Polk st., Chicago.

The other passengers are Corp. Paul Kalb of Dubuque, Ia.; Pvt. Irving Weiss, Clayton, Mo., and Corp. Catello Amato of Brooklyn, N. Y. Light and Amato are assigned to Southampton, the others to Churchill.

Fortunately, static in the radio is not very bad. It sounds in the earphones like some one crumpling paper, but thru it, Capt. Frank talks to the Churchill base. The weather there has performed a typical quick change, for the worse.

Back to The Pas.

Clouds roof the airport at 300 feet, and the wind on the ground is 45 miles an hour. Churchill gives Capt. Frank a choice of returning to The Pas, or going to Regina or Edmonton. The Pas is nearest and 2 hours and 15 minutes later we land there, in darkness, to wait out the weather overnight.

The next morning was bright, the ceiling high, and we flew north with a good view of the ground, which was totally uninspiring. There was nothing to see except limitless muskeg and brush, littered with small lakes and cut by streams.

At Churchill airport soldiers were putting back in the ground many road signs that had been blown away.

There are two runways on the base, both long enough, but probably not smooth enough, to take the heaviest bombers now operating. One is concrete, the other asphalt.

Hundreds of thousands of tons of gravel were piled up and flattened out by bulldozers when the base was built in the winter of 1942-'43 to give a solid foundation for runways and buildings, which sit on this artificial table some 20 feet above the general level of the surrounding swampy muskeg.

Two Bases Compared.

The Pas also has two runways. Hangars at both bases can accommodate C-47s.

Both bases were built in winter, in bitter winds, deep snow, and temperatures as low as 64 degrees below zero. Both soldiers and civilian employes lived in tents the first half of the winter.

The base at The Pas is 21 miles from town, as the foot of Atikameg lake. Transportation of supplies was a tough hurdle here, but even more complicated at Churchill, the northern terminus of the Hudson bay railroad. There are no highways north of a point about 400 miles south of Churchill.

Game is plentiful around The Pas, wolves have been shot within 100 yards of the runways and they raid the garbage dumps regularly at night. This entertains newcomers, but not for long.

The Indians of the locality are Crees. They trap white and cross foxes, beaver, muskrat, wolverine, and lynx. Deer and caribou are hunted so little that Capt. Orval R. Gilbert of Cleveland, O., once was able to approach a caribou within 15 feet for a rare closeup photograph.

KIT OF RUNAWAY, 11, BOUGHT WITH STOLEN MONEY

Robert Githens, 11 year old runaway from Des Moines, Ia., yesterday was in the juvenile home while authorities awaited word from relatives or guardians. The boy said he left his home Sunday after taking $70 from All Saints' church in Des Moines to finance his trip and traveled by bus to Chicago to visit a sister who lives here. When found by Detectives Dan Kenny of the 1st district, Robert had with him a neatly wrapped bundle which held a pipe, dark glasses, a comb, shoe laces, tooth brush and paste, and postage stamps.

ORDERS NAPHTHA RATION TO END ILLEGAL USE

The rationing of light naphtha, effective Nov. 20, announced yesterday by the office of price administration in Washington, D. C., will break up illegal use of the product for motor fuel in certain midwest areas, said Rae E. Walters, regional administrator of the OPA here. Cities where this practice is most widely prevalent are St. Paul, Minn., and Milwaukee, Wis., he said. The rationing will cover North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Iowa, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, and Ohio.

PRICE OF VODKA CUT BY 25 PER CENT FOR SOVIET ANNIVERSARY

MOSCOW, Nov. 7 (AP).—Vodka prices went down 25 per cent today as Russia celebrated the 27th anniversary of her revolution. Cigaret and tobacco prices tumbled also.

The gilded domes of the Kremlin were polished for the occasion. Hardly a Muscovite house failed to fly a red banner. State stores issued special candy and cooky rations to children from seven months to 12 years of age.

Bands parade thru the streets. Marching groups swung by from time to time, but the general idea was group singing and the hit tunes were "Moscow, My Moscow" and "Beloved City."

CEYLON BIDS FOR VOICE IN WORLD AIR OPERATIONS

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Nov. 7 [Reuter].—The Ceylon government is considering the question of policy and development of post-war commercial aviation. In view of the international air conference now being held in Chicago, Ceylon has submitted its views to the colonial office.

Ceylon's aim is to have some control of the financial and operational working of air services passing over Ceylon and wants to afford local personnel opportunities for training and employment in such services.

The government is emphasizing its right to be consulted at all stages of the conference on points relating to the operation of external services.

Teen-Agers: Learn How to Use Make-Up

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

[Copyright: 1944: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

One can learn about make-up for teen-agers by strolling around to the different cosmetic counters in department stores and 5 and 10s.

From salesgirls and demonstrators you may learn that the teen-age girl with her cosmetic purchase hopes to achieve the sophisticated look of an older sister, and sometimes, regrettably, that's what she acquires, damaging considerably her own more appealing young charms.

From the salesgirls one learns that the same girls drop in so often, almost daily after school, that the girl behind the counter gets to know them.

"What they do with the lipsticks they buy," one sales person said, "I can't imagine, unless they eat them! It's hard to keep them in stock."

The lipstick definitely is the most popular cosmetic with these young women, neither children nor adults. Because they want to seem glamorous, they feel they must look older for the role, and if they wear a deep lipstick shade they erroneously believe they've got what their favorite movie star has. "They know all the latest shades," contributed another sales person. Their required reading must point that way, for they never have to be told what the new shades are.

The salesgirls and demonstrators, depending as they do upon mounting sales records for job security, still would like to see these young girls better directed in cosmetic use. Currently they are rejoicing in the popularizing of the lighter, more pinkish lipstick and rouge hues, because they're so much more becoming to young person and infinitely more in keeping with their tender years than the heavy, brooding tones, which only succeed in making them look hard and as unglamorous as a traffic light. Cake make-ups are a runnerup in popularity, which we think is bad news since the object too often is to conceal blackhead blemishes, which are far better routed than hidden.

Gay Rain Coat Is Just Right for Soggy Fall Day

BY REA SEEGER.

Melancholy days of fall and winter may call for the brightest colored rain coats obtainable. The neutrals of beige and gray are classics, especially the swanky, tailored garments of water repellent gabardines. They're twice as tempting when they're made and finished like the smart officer's rain coats, complete to shoulder tabs, huge pockets, and snug, strapped wrists on easy-to-slide-into sleeves.

Most girls are going completely feminine these days, so your new rain coat should be typically feminine in color and style. See the stunning new faille material coats for just that combination. The material is the exact ribbed texture of silk faille, only this stuff is rayon, specially treated to be water resistant. The coat is shown in one style, a very flattering silhouette of belted blouse back streamline, long gathered and cuffed raglan sleeves, a neat turnover collar, and a tie sash belt. There is a wide inverted flat pressed plait at the center back that allows complete freedom of action.

But the colors will make the excitement. Shocking pink, purple, emerald green, and black are four ideal contrast shades to help you thru a dull and sloppy day. The shocking pink and emerald green models are smart enough to wear as decorative street coats; they look like a smooth town or dressmaker coat of wool or silk. The black is super-smooth for the conservative shopper, and the purple shade is a winner to wear with beige or gray or dull green dresses or suits.

Soprano Wins Critic's Vote in Debut Here

BY ALBERT GOLDBERG.

Jane Johnson Burroughs, a lyric soprano from Indianapolis, came to Kimball hall for a debut recital last night, unfortunately choosing an evening on which the public was more interested in votes than notes.

But tho Miss Burroughs' audience was scanty, it did not appear to affect the singer's powers nor her evident relish in her task. She has a brightly colored voice, which for the most part obeys her commands in subservient manner, tho now and then, in the upper register, it slides upward from the exact pitch. It boasts, too, an amply extensive range, a fairly reliable system of production, and sufficient flexibility to meet the demands of a program exacting both musically and technically.

Miss Burroughs' success with her songs varied from number to number. She realized the mood of Griffes' "Evening Song," but nervously missed the rapture of Rachmaninoff's "In the Silence of the Night." Monteverde's "Lasciatemi Morire" was sustained in the best classical style, and the vocal manner carried over into Respighi's "Nebbie."

Poulenc's "Air Champêtre" came forth with charming lightness, and a sense of characteristic French style colored Hue's "J'ai pleure en rêve" and Debussy's similar "Il pleure dans mon coeur." But Hahn's "L'Heure Exquise" was uneasy and the tone was often forced in Georges' "Hymne au Soleil." Of the closing group of five Strauss songs, the soulful ones fared best: "Allerseelen" and "Ruhe, Meine Seele." The accompaniments of Edwin Biltcliffe were admirable.

Women in War Work

By Dorothy Johnson

Seven Chicago women are in the list of newly commissioned WAVE officers just graduated from the naval reserve midshipmen's school at Smith college, Northampton, Mass. One, Marian Morse Crane, 724 California terr., has been commissioned a lieutenant [j. g.], the others as ensigns.

Lt. [j. g.] Crane.

Mrs. Crane, now on duty at the naval barracks in Washington, D. C., attended Chicago Normal college and was graduated from the University of Chicago. Before enlisting, she was a teacher of English at Crane Technical High school.

Also serving in Washington is Ensign Helen Elizabeth Knuth, 904 Ainslie st. Her job is in the office of the director of public relations of the navy department. A graduate of the University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Ia., and holder of a master's degree from Northwestern university, Miss Knuth was a high school history teacher in civilian life.

Ensign Charlotte Vanderploeg, 7653 S. Honore st., on duty at the navy yard in Philadelphia, Pa., is a graduate of the University of Illinois and was employed as a ration bookkeeper at the University of Chicago before joining the navy. At the time of her enlistment she was president of the Chicago alumnae chapter of Phi Mu sorority.

Ensign Helen Ann Cmarik, 2817 E. 76th st., another of the recent graduates, has been assigned to the Great Lakes Naval Training center. She was graduated from St. Xavier's college, and also trained at Mercy hospital as a dietitian. Before enlisting she was employed as assistant supervisor in the "chow" hall at the naval signal school at the University of Chicago.

Ensign Esther Kantor, 4907 Kimball av., has gone on duty at the naval training center in San Diego, Cal. She attended Chicago Teachers' college and the University of Illinois and was an adjustment teacher at the Audubon school before going into uniform.

Ensign Helen Eileen O'Connor, 6438 Parnell av., on duty with the resident inspector of naval materiel in Lynn, Mass., received her degree from Central Y. M. C. A. college in Chicago and also attended Clark college in Dubuque. She was a sales correspondent for a surgical supplies company before enlisting.

Winnetka is represented in the latest Smith college officer candidate class by Ensign Sallie Ellen Welsh, 480 Westmoor rd. She is a graduate of Vassar college and of the North Shore Country Day school. She is on duty at the Philadelphia navy yard.

[This department reports on women's war activities and answers questions regarding such activities.]

Announcement of Marriages Is Being Made

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beattie of Kimball av. announce the marriage Oct. 28 of their daughter, Virginia May, to Lester Nolon Smith of the navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith of Huntsville, Ala., who recently returned from overseas service, having taken part in the Sicilian and Normandy invasions. He and his bride, who attended Monmouth college, have gone to his new post in Charleston, S. C.

The marriage of Miss Alice Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wysonik of Iron River, Mich., to Lt. William O'Kane Jr. of the army air forces, son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Kane of Draper av., took place Sept. 9 in Carlsbad, N. M. The bride, who served as a navy nurse for 15 months until her marriage, has gone to Michigan following a visit in Chicago, while Lt. O'Kane has returned to his post in California. When he receives further orders his bride hopes to join him.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Violet DeCaprio, daughter of Domenico DeCaprio of Evanston and the late Mrs. DeCaprio, to Ensign James Sturm of the naval reserve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Sturm of Lunt av., took place Aug. 19 in the Gesu church in Miami, Fla. Ensign Sturm and his bride are living near his post in Seattle, Wash. The bride was graduated last June from Northwestern university, at which Ensign Sturm was a senior when he entered the navy.

The marriage of Miss Grace Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider of Hiawatha av., to Lt. [j. g.] Thomas C. Cravens Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Cravens of Martinsville, Ind., took place Oct. 13 in the Little Church Around the Corner in New York City. The bride, a graduate of DePauw university, has returned to Chicago now that Lt. Cravens has gone to sea. He was graduated from Indiana university and attended the Harvard law school.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Mary Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Jordan of W. Monroe st., to Corp. Marshall L. Broussard of the army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avery J. Broussard of Galveston, Tex., took place Oct. 1 in St. Paul's Catholic church in Delaware City, Del. When Corp. Broussard goes overseas his bride will return from New York, where they have been living temporarily, to be with her parents. She attended Mundelein college.

Announcement is made of the marriage Oct. 17 of Mrs. Bert Christian Markle to Dr. Roy S. Schluchter, both of Wheaton. The Rev. Robert B. Stewart officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the First Presbyterian church. A reception followed at the new home of Dr. Schluchter and his bride in Wheaton.

White Collar GIRL

BY RUTH MAC KAY

Sub-Professional WCG?

A diller, a dollar,
I wear a white collar
Tho badge of the scholar
It be!
But what I would know
As I trippingly go
Is the real status quo
Then of me!

BABS BOWERS.

Att. Harry Joe Smedley:

You ask, "Whatever has become of the office girl who didn't smoke?"

Well, they still are around. I'm one, and I know several others. You just haven't bumped into 'em—that's all.

Don't you think we ought to form a club just for fun? ALYCE.

Notice in the WCG column that Harry Joe Smedley wants to know what has become of the o. f. office girl who doesn't smoke. This one is keeping the home fires burning until her only son comes back to her again and there is peace on earth. E. A.

P. S.—And I don't chew gum, either!

Home, James.

Bosses may come and bosses may go—but make room for the boss who tops the list for thoughtfulness. Our Mr. A. N. puts his car and chauffeur at the disposal of his nine south side white collar girls, knowing that music to our ears are the words: "Girls, the car and driver are yours for this evening." ANNE PULIAM.

Those Super Women.

I, too, have had many years' experience, some disallusioning, tho I still can laugh and still believe there are many "human" men and women in business. My answer to the question as to why the big bosses countenance unethical, often cruel business practices of some of our super-successful business women is one of two reasons, or both:

1. This type of woman is more than a match for the average man who happens to be her immediate superior. She outwits him at every turn. Moreover, his rules of conduct do not encompass the tailor-made set of ethics of the woman herself. Hers are formulated to win her objective, or her side of an argument, regardless of what or whom she may hurt.

2. The big bosses' primary aim is to make a success of the business. What happens to the lowly cog of the wheel is not their chief concern as long as the wheels keep moving. The only time they make it their concern is when the pocketbook is touched, or their hearts happen to be touched—which is seldom. CARMEN SLOCUM.

The Question.

About the question mark after questions—I think that Nosey Es is a bit out of date on this punctuation. I always used a question mark after all questions until I read "The Secretary's Handbook," which states: "A request is usually followed by a period, rather than by an interrogation point." For example: Will you send me these articles by parcel post. May I ask you to come early. P. E. G.

Sorority Benefit Bridge.

The Alpha Gamma Delta Mothers' club of Northwestern university will give a benefit bridge party at 1:30 p. m. today in the sorority chapter house on Northwestern's Evanston campus.

Splendid Cough Relief Is Easily Mixed at Home

No Cooking. Makes Big Saving.

To get quick and satisfying relief from coughs due to colds, mix this recipe in your kitchen. Once tried, you'll never be without it.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. A child could do it. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its prompt action on throat and bronchial membranes.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. This makes a full pint of splendid medicine and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and tastes fine.

And for quick, blessed relief, it is amazing. You can feel it take hold in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you sleep. Money refunded if not pleased in every way.

Horse Show's Proceeds Go to War Fund

BY JUDITH CASS.

THE Chicago Horse show, to be presented Dec. 9 to 17 in the Coliseum, will attain a number of objectives in addition to being the nation's largest event of its kind this year, it was announced yesterday by the executive committee at a luncheon in the Palmer House. To begin with, the proceeds, which may reach $60,000, will go to the Community and War Fund. Then, the $60,000 in cash awards, the largest amount of prize money in the history of horse shows, will be paid in war bonds at the discretion of the winner, thereby boosting the sixth war loan drive which starts Nov. 20.

Also, any charitable agency willing to help in the sale of tickets may receive a percentage from the tickets it sells, and, last but not least, the show will stimulate America's pioneering interest in the development of the saddle horse. This last point was stressed in a brief talk by Curt G. Joa of the executive committee, whose enthusiasm and composure did not even hint that he had been up since 1 a. m. fighting a fire in the new barn on his farm near Sheboygan, Wis., in which he lost much machinery, two saddle horses, and all the crops that his young son and some contemporaries harvested and stored after long, hard work.

With the fire out, Mr. Joa took a train for Chicago to join Paul Butler, president of the horse show; Clarence B. Randall, head of the community fund and vice president of the show; John F. Cuneo, chairman of the executive committee, and others in their discussion of plans for this first big horse show since Pearl Harbor. Absent from the meeting was H. Leslie Atlass of the executive committee, whose daughter, Harriet Jane, a well known young horsewoman, is seriously ill from being kicked by a horse recently.

A. P. Fleming, show manager, expects 450 "top horses, top quality" to be entered from all parts of the country. Enthusiasts from nine states are listed among the 52 box holders who already have reserved space for the nine evening and five matinee performances. The performances will be timed to run off in two and a half hours each, allowing for special features to interest the public. Special nights are being planned to honor branches of the military services, and arrangements are being made to entertain groups of service men, children, and others under the sponsorship of organizations.

On the Calendar.

The lobby of the Ambassador East will be crowded next Tuesday by Christmas shoppers attending the annual Christmas sale of the Woman's Exchange of Chicago. The board of directors of the exchange has promised "a surprisingly large assortment of new ideas for Christmas gifts," which will be a boon to early shoppers who already have been racking their brains for bright gifts. Christmas wrappings and decorations, unusual gifts for children, including dolls and doll clothes, and small, delicately tooled leather articles suitable for stocking gifts are in the merchandise. Mrs. James Ward Thorne, whose artistic hand is seen in many of the Exchange gifts, is having a preview of the stock tomorrow afternoon in her Michigan av. studio.

The Winnetka board of the Gads Hill center will hold a sale of baby gifts, luncheon sets, antiques, and other interesting objects from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Nov. 29 in the Winnetka home of Mrs. Francis Senear. Mrs. Edward R. Adams is chairman of the sale. Mrs. Russell T. Stern is president of the board, whose members have been working all summer at the center. Its nursery school activity has been greatly increased since the war started, and proceeds from the sale will go to the nursery school.

Guest speaker at the fall meeting of the Chicago Junior league Nov. 17 at the Woman's Athletic club will be T. R. Ybarra, author of "Young Man of Caracas," who will speak on "What Next in Latin America." League members may invite guests

Marine in Action.

When Capt. Michael Bartlett of the marines steps on the Civic Opera house stage Saturday night as Montague to Jeanette MacDonald's Capulet, he will be an old timer in the role. In fact, he will be singing Gounod's, and Shakespeare's, Romeo for the second time. The first was last Saturday afternoon, when Capt. Bartlett plunged into one of the most taxing roles in the tenor repertory after one dress rehearsal on the heels of less than two weeks of intensive coaching. The audience didn't know that. All we knew was that the marines had landed and had the situation well in hand.

Capt. Michael Bartlett.

Perhaps you remember this column's "Wherefore art thou, Romeo?" of not too distant date, when our opera suddenly discovered that Mario Berini could not sing Romeo as billed and was desperate for a substitute. It was no joke to the management, which had sold out two performances on the strength of Miss MacDonald's debut draw. Then came last minute word that Michael Bartlett would leap in, tho at the time no one suspected what a flying leap it would be.

Well, the captain was quiet about it. He just sang Romeo with competence, often with beauty, always with presence and style. It wasn't until he saw Lawrence Tibbett at a rehearsal of "Pelléas and Mélisande" that he broke down and told the story. Mr. Tibbett, a Christian soul, asked him to tell it to me.

Mind you, the captain still doesn't think it was so much. But judge for yourself what happened. For two years, in fact since his performance here in "La Traviata," Capt. Bartlett has been in the marines, as personal aide to Maj. Gen. Philip H. Torrey, commanding general at Quantico. On Oct. 16 he departed on accumulated leave, went to New York, called on his agent, went to see "Mexican Hayride," dropped in to say hello at the Metropolitan, then went to Boston to rest at his sister's. Four days later she was giving him a cocktail party when the telephone rang. "Can you sing Romeo in Chicago Nov. 4?" it wanted to know. "Certainly," said the captain, having always wanted to do just that. Then he hung up, did a double take, and shouted, "Good gracious, what have I done!"

The trouble was, you see, he not only had never sung Romeo, he didn't know Romeo. And the title of the opera isn't fooling when it reads "Romeo and Juliet." He went into action, left the party flat, made the best possible time to New York and his favorite coach, Wolfgang Martin, got a room at the Princeton club and costumes at Brooks. He ate, drank, and slept Romeo until he took the Century to Chicago Oct. 29. The next day he sang the role from memory at rehearsal.

Without those commando tactics of operatic invasion there would have been no "Romeo and Juliet" to launch Miss MacDonald, and the opera would have indulged in that saddest of managerial pastimes, refunding money. In fact, without Capt. Bartlett, the only possible epilog to the whole episode would have been Shakespeare's own,

For never was a story of more woe

Command Performance.

Nobody ever did get to vote on that request performance to close the season the night of Nov. 18, but it's going to be "La Traviata," with Bidu Sayao and Nino Martini. The baritone will be announced later.

Paris Milliner Specializes in Brilliant Hues

BY ANNE BRUYERE
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Millinery in unexpectedly vivid color combinations and in pastel shades is being shown by Agnes for winter wear.

"Ali Baba" is Agnes' latest novelty. It is a brilliant lamé cone shaped model with long green and purple scarves hanging on the sides. The scarves are wound high around the head and tied in back, forming an individual turban. There are matching gloves in lamé with purple and green bands.

"Red Riding Hood" is a bright red felt bonnet with a high crown. Yellow ribbons are tied under the chin. It is for bicycling and is shown with red felt shoes mounted on inch high wooden soles.

Large pink and blue roses with green leaves and stems sticking far on top of the head appear on a purple hat made of dozens of rows of tiny ruffles in velvet. It is called "Deux Roses" and goes with a huge muff fashioned of matching ruffles on which are set identical roses.

Multicolored pastel flowers made of felt are shown on a pink bonnet. Cut out embroidery, also of felt, trims a sky blue off-the-face beret. Lavender, pale green, and yellow balls made of wool appear on a knitted scarf which is wound into a turban.

Martial & Armand shows an amazing green velet hat trimmed with two red tomatoes and a bunch of purple grapes. It is worn with a beaver lined tweed suit trimmed with triangle shaped pockets edged with matching fur. The blouse is of lavender silk.

This house also presents a brown corduroy jacket with big square pockets adorned with green velvet plaits. A Scotch plaid dress worn underneath has a green velvet collar and large velvet buttons. Silk jersey frocks with deep pockets hidden in the hip drapery are shown for afternoon wear. These are worn with bright yellow or red wool jackets embroidered with black beads and spangles at the collars and cuffs.

Martial & Armand closes its "liberation" show with long sleeved red, white, and blue silk jersey evening growns appearing simultaneously. The red one is heavily draped at the hips and worn with a huge jeweled clip; the white one is made of fine, knife plaiting caught at the shoulders and has a circular skirt.

Worth is the only house in Paris having any heavy worsted woolens left. These are fashioned into fitted tailored suits with long jackets or big, roomy sports coats with raglan sleeves.

"Douceur" is a light yellow dressing gown trimmed with a huge pomegranate red velvet belt falling to the floor. The velvet cuffs are a foot wide and edged with yellow embroidery.

Mrs. Tilt Bissell and other members of the woman's special gifts committee of the Community and War fund drive will meet for luncheon Friday at the Shangri-La restaurant for a final report on their work. It is expected that the committee's quota of $300,000 will have been met.

Thru the Looking Glass

Finding the right makeup foundation that does exactly the things we expect of such preparations is often a matter of trial and error until we hit on the one to suit our individual needs. Some of us want a foundation that is oily, others like the cake varieties, still others prefer the untinted kinds, and we could go on and on listing variations on the theme.

If your private hunt is for a base that acts as a protective covering for the skin while it flatters and adds a hint of color to the complexion, you might try one that we think is tops in its class. It's directed to young women, but we know many older women who rely on its creamy smoothness and subtle tint to give their not-so-youthful skins a pretty finish.

The base is a frothy cream, light and airy, designed to give the skin a nice look of delicate transparency. Its whole effect is to make the complexion seem naturally lovely without a hint of being heavily coated with a cosmetic. The creamy texture makeup is easy to apply and it can be spread on in a few quick whisks with little possibility of its streaking or staying stubbornly in spots in telltale blotches. There are three colors to choose from, light, medium, and dark, and while that may not seem a broad selection, it's adequate for this particular base, which doesn't aim at changing the color of the complexion but rather tends to blend with natural skin tones.

This is an ideal base for the woman who wants to protect her sensitive skin from the wind and cold. It forms a nice protective shield that keeps the face comfortable in rough weather, but it isn't so oily that it breaks down and becomes messy after application. Powder and rouge cling beautifully to it.

If Child Balks at School, Find Out the Cause

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.
[Copyright: 1944: By News Syndicate Co., Inc.]

Have you a child who says to you beseechingly and quite often, "Mother, can't I stay home from school today?" Or perhaps one who says: "I hate school!" When you hear things like this, quite often something is wrong, and the thing to do is to find out what it is.

Sometimes this is difficult. You often have to go about it in various kinds of ways before you unearth the cause of their unhappiness or dissatisfaction. Sometimes you can find it out by questioning directly; sometimes you can't. Quite as often as not, the children themselves don't realize what is the matter.

But they ought to be happy—or if not happy, contented—in school, especially when you consider how many hours of their young lives are spent there. The cream of every childhood day is given to school, and for that reason, if for no other, we want to make each day something to anticipate, not dread.

One of the most unusual reasons why children develop a distaste for school is a physical one. If they're not well, school involves an exertion for them that they are not quite up to. A thoro examination by the doctor may get at the root of the whole difficulty. Anemia, tonsils, eyes, any one of a number of things may be wrong.

Another frequent reason for objections to school is to be found in the children's lessons. Their arithmetic may be going badly, and they are utterly discouraged. The writing of a story may be a bugbear to them, and they may have to write one every day. Reading aloud may simply overwhelm them because of a combination of shyness and inability to master the subject. Find this out if you can and then help them every day, besides asking their teacher's coöperation. The sense that you are all working together on the trouble will more than half win the battle.

Occasionally it happens that a child is so mischievous that he or she is always in trouble in school, and yet doesn't like it in spite of the fact that it's his own fault. Also, sometimes a teacher will not understand a child, and the two do not get along. Both of these difficulties make a child dislike school and both of them can be eradicated by firm handling at home and a friendly, tactful talk with the teacher.

These are only a few of the reasons why children turn against school. If it is not one of these with your child, your intelligence and understanding of him will make it possible for you to find out what is the trouble and to cure it.

INSTALMENT XLV.

SECRET MESSAGE.

Mrs. Mottram rang the Doncasters' doorbell. At the rectory she would have opened the door and called, but the Misses Doncaster were sticklers for what they called the forms of civilized society, and what was the good of putting their backs up? Her heart, which was as soft as butter, really pitied them, and however rude and disapproving they were, she always turned up again, with an egg, or a cabbage-leaf full of raspberries, or one of the bright unsuitable magazines showered upon her by her friends in the air force. She had one tucked under her arm now.

Admitted by the elderly maid, she pranced gaily upstairs. She found Miss Mary Anne alone in the drab room. It was rather a relief only to have one of them to deal with. She shook hands, felt the slack, cold fingers slip away, and saw the pale glance slide disapprovingly over her yellow jumper and her rather bright blue slacks.

"Lucy Ellen is out," said Miss Mary Anne in a grumbling voice. "I'm sure I don't know what she goes out for—morning, noon, and night, until you'd think she'd be worn out. And at the end of it I don't know what she's done. Shopping is what she says, but what is there to shop in Bourne? Picture postcards at Mrs. Bush's, I suppose. And off to Marbury every week. And what does she do there—that's what I'd like to know. It's my belief that she just walks about looking in at the shop windows, and then she has tea at the Ram and comes home again."

Ida Mottram thought it all sounded too grim for words. She sat down on the hearth in front of the languishing fire.

"No wonder you're cold," she said. "I'll have this up in no time. I may be a fool about some things, but I'm the world's smash hit with fires. You just wait and see!"

"Well, she can't do it when she's out, can she? Look—it's coming along like anything!"

Sitting there with the firelight on her face, she began to tell Miss Mary Anne all about Bunty's encounter with a bumble bee.

"And she brought it in sitting on her hand and wanted me to stroke it."

"How very foolish! I suppose she got stung?"

"O, no, she didn't—it loved her! But I made her put it back on one of the roses. She was so disappointed. She wanted to take it to bed with her. Don't you think it was rather sweet?"

Miss Mary Anne sniffed. She was not in the least interested in bumble bees or in Bunty Mottram. She wanted passionately to find out whether Garth Albany and Janice Meade were engaged, and to find out before Lucy Ellen did.

She began to ask questions which circled the subject, drawing in gradually, getting nearer and nearer. It was an art in which she excelled, and Ida was no match for her. Having, in fact, nothing to conceal, she was as open as the day. O, yes, she thought they liked each other—why shouldn't they?

She began to look around for something to screen her face from the fire. It was fairly blazing now, and her skin scorched so easily. She could feel her left cheek burning. She reached out to the small table by Miss Mary Anne's couch and took a paper at random from a pile which cluttered the lower tier. Turning it over, she saw that it was a garden catalog with a cover displaying apples, pears, plums, gooseberries, raspberries, and black currants, all at least twice as large as life and much more brightly colored. She was about to say, "O, are you getting any fruit trees?" when Miss Mary Anne remarked that young men in the army were notorious for the way in which they flirted.

Ida, sitting back on her heels, turned the pages of the catalog. She was listening as you listen to something which you have heard before, and which doesn't matter at all. She flicked the pages over.

She stopped hearing Miss Mary Anne's voice. There was something very odd about the page with the nick in it. Faint brown writing coming up where the paper was hot—getting more distinct as she looked at it. At the top and at the bottom of the list of apple trees—words—very odd words. Now she could read them. At the top of the list two words, "Am widder." And the bottom of the list three more words, "Montag halb funf."

She stared at the writing, and quite unaccountably her heart began to thump. She didn't know why. She hadn't really begun to think what the words might mean, but they frightened her, coming up like that out of the blank spaces on the page of Miss Doncaster's catalog.

They frightened her because they came up so suddenly out of nothing, and because they were German words. A secret message written in German—that was enough to frighten any one. Almost without thinking what she did she doubled the catalog over and pushed it up under her jumper. She had her back to the couch. The littered table screened her.

Miss Mary Anne said in her treacly voice,

"So it all goes to show you can't trust any one."

Ida Mottram got up. Her legs had a funny disjointed feeling. She kissed her hand to Miss Mary Anne and said she really must go.

"Because Bunty is having tea with Mary Giles and Mrs. Giles will be bringing her back." Ida shut the door with relief and fairly ran down the stairs and out of the house.

Outside in the road she stood still and wondered what she ought to do. She must tell some one who would know. Miss Silver would know.

She ran all the way to the rectory, to be told by Mabel that Miss Silver had gone to Marbury and she didn't know when she would be back, and Miss Sophy and Mr. Garth were gone up to Prior's End to have tea with Miss Madoc, but they would be coming back soon and Miss Janice would be coming back with them.

When Mabel was telling Janice and Garth about it, she said Mrs. Mottram seemed as if she was upset about something—"Not at all in her usual, Mr. Garth—looked for all the world as if she was going to cry. I hope she hasn't had bad news or anything like that, poor thing."

It was then that Janice said, "O, I'd better go round and see."

Ida Mottram went away very much discouraged. She went back to her own house, which was next door to Pennycott, and rang up Mr. Everton. She didn't feel like standing on any one else's doorstep and being told they were out. So she rang up, and there, almost at once, was Mr. Everton's kind, cheerful voice saying, "Dear lady, what can I do for you?"

"You're sure I'm not interrupting?"

She was feeling better already. Men were such a comfort—they always knew what to do. He was being most polite in his kind, old-fashioned way. "If all interruptions were as pleasant as this one——" He would be coming round at once. This was in answer to her, "I'm so terribly worried about something." She hung up the receiver.

League members soon will receive a shopping list thru the mail, a circular for the league's book shop in Lake Forest which does a humming business the year around. Mrs. John B. Morse is the shop's new manager.

Today's Events.

The Arts club will be distinctly "en fete" this afternoon when the Illinois Opera guild entertains at tea and a reception for Fausto Cleva, general artistic director of the Chicago Opera company, and Mrs. Cleva. Among the artists singing with the company this season who will be present to greet the guests will be Bidu Sayao, Vivian Della Chiesa, Josephine Antoine, Lucile Browning, Doris Doe, Capt. Michael Bartlett of the marines, Raoul Jobin, Brooks Dunbar, and Wilfred Engelman. Mrs. George Woodruff has delved into the closets of the opera company to bring out the stunning accessories which will decorate the tea tables. Mrs. William E. Ragland [Edith Mason] and Mrs. Millard B. Kennedy, vice presidents of the guild, will be in the receiving line.

To the same club this morning will go members of the Illinois chapter of the American Institute of Decorators and others who have purchased tickets to a series of lectures which will begin at 11 a. m. today with Prof. Walter Bogner's talk on "Post-War Interiors." Prof. Bogner is a member of the department of architecture of Harvard university. Mrs. James Ward Thorne, Mrs. John Paul Welling, Mrs. Stanley Keith, and Mrs. Charles Garfield King are a few of those who have subscribed for the series.

Looking at Hollywood

By Hedda Hopper

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 7.—Vera Ralston has got herself a new deal at Republic. Her next picture will be "The Healer." Starts in two weeks. Herbert Yates will be out to see the beginning of it. . . . I asked Gary Cooper, actor, who was going to do the worrying for him when he's Gary Cooper, producer. He said, "Listen here. When I feel that I'm about to get ulcers and start worrying I'll just stop being a producer and go on acting." . . . Buffy Cobb, Irvin's daughter, is writing radio shows back east and also finishing up a new play. . . . Lucille Ball won't sell her Chatsworth ranch, but she sure is going to change its name, which, when she was in love with Desi, was "Desulu." Now I suppose it will have to be "Desudon't." . . . Lou Smith joined Margaret Ettinger's house of publicity as a full partner. Here's wishing them both luck.

Cobina Is Still Doing It.

Cobina Wright sure had a star studded party Saturday night. The hill, the wind, the rain, and the storm stopped nobody. I could better tell you who wasn't there than who was. Her guests included Gary Coopers, Bob Hopes, Harold Lloyds, Randy Scotts, Dinah Shore, Ilona Massey, Jeanne Crain, Paulette Goddard, the Basil Rathbones, David Selznick's, Joan Fontaine, Jennifer Jones, Eddie Robinson. In fact, it was what we'd call a gala in the old days. . . . Tony Moreno told me the best story of the evening. A year ago he was motoring to Tia Juana to see a bull fight. He picked up a gentleman along the roadway who was thumbing a ride. Gentleman asked, "Could you get me to the airport?" Seems his car had broken down a couple of miles up the road, so he started walking. Tony took him. Time went on. Tony visited friends in Mexico City, walked into a bank there, and was greeted by his hitch-hiking friend, who said, "I've looked all over for you." And I'll be darned if Tony didn't sign a contract to make five pictures with him—three as actor and two as director. And Tony said to me, "That will teach you never to pass anybody by on the highway."

Girls Will Be Girls.

The day after Tallulah Bankhead and Anne Baxter fought over their mutual lover Alexis in "The Royal Scandal" both girls showed up black and blue. Bankhead had a sore back and shoulder. The girls kept saying to each other "I hope I'm not hurting you" as they slugged it out. They couldn't have been more apologetic. But they just didn't know their own strength, so Otto Preminger sent for an osteopath, who treated them both. . . . S. Z. Sakall, that plump character, sat looking at Alexis Smith between shots on "San Antonio." "I'm madly in love with this girl, and have been since she was a baby—and you can print it, too!" said he. . . . When John Garfield, Eddie Hall, and some of their pals were playing baseball in a vacant yard there was a guy standing by, heckling them. Finally Garfield yelled out and said, "What do you know about baseball?" "Not much," said he. He just happened to be Jimmy Dykes, the manager of the White Sox.

Agnes Started Something.

Seems the hepcat talk used in "Janie" by Writer Agnes Christine Johnston was a new type of language even to the bobby-soxers. Now they're all writing to studio like mad asking for the key to this new lingo. You'll hear more of it in the sequel to "Janie." . . . Ketti Frings is getting little writing done these days. Too busy attending to her two newly adopted. They're a handful. . . . Capt. Archie Twitchell, whose life was saved by penicillin after he'd had a frightful time getting it, visited John Hubbard backstage, and while there was seen by Producer Al Rosen, who asked if he'd read a scene from the play, "Good-Night Ladies." He had, and now he's playing the Skeets Gallagher rôle in Seattle. Twitchell and Hubbard worked together in the studios here in '37 and learned to fly at the same time. . . . The Rickenbacker picture can't start until Fred MacMurray is finished with "Where Do We Go from Here?"

Here and There in Hollywood.

Warner Baxter, without mustache, visited the Lloyd Nolan set of "Circumstantial Evidence." It's a busy place, with about 55 youngsters working on the picture. Their lessons alone are enough to drive them crazy. Trudy Marshall was also showing the set to a very handsome sailor, but this doesn't mean that her heart doesn't still belong to daddy. . . . Understand Capt. Jack Warner Jr., who's with Gen. Bradley in Europe, is doing our army and his family proud. . . . Dennis O'Keefe sure has the women of his family on his neck because he's changed his name from Flannagan to Doyle, and now to O'Keefe. And his aunts think Flannagan is a pretty darned good name. . . . Manley Cramm, a soldier over there, writes that he likes "Devotion" better than any Warner picture, but we may not see it here for a long time on account of "Livvy" De Havilland's fight with Warners. . . . Stu Gilmore has been upped from cutter, which he used to be for Preston Sturgess, to director on "The Virginian." He looked at the old one, which was done by De Mille, then went to confer with Cecil—and Cecil has promised to direct the first scene of the picture.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 club	Pass	1 diamond	Pass
2 no trump	Pass	6 no trump	Pass
Pass	Pass

Today we continue the consideration of how to judge the slam possibilities of your hand when your partner has opened the bidding. It has been observed that where your partner opens the bidding and subsequently jumps, if your hand is equal to an opening bid itself, your partnership very likely has a slam, provided a convenient contract can be found.

In today's hand, South opened the bidding with one club and North responded with one diamond, knowing at the time that he did so, that the partnership would surely reach a game contract at least. South decided upon a rebid of two no trump. [Many players would have preferred the bid of one heart, except in cases where partner's dummy technique leaves something to be desired.]

At this point, North should be sure that there is a slam in the hand. Actually he has more than an opening bid and his partner has opened the bidding and jumped. The number of aces and kings that the partnership holds is not the important concern. The paramount consideration is that the partnership can take 12 tricks.

Notice that North's failure to hold anything in spades should not in any way deter him from backing his judgment that the hand will produce 12 tricks. Do not worry about your partner's no trump bids. Obviously he must have something very important in spades to be able to jump to two no trump.

At one table where this hand was played, North, after South's two no trump bid, invited the slam by bidding four no trump [not conventional]. South felt that he had already shown the full strength of his hand and was obliged to refuse the invitation. He quite properly passed.

The moral that this hand should bring home to North is: "Don't ask your partner to do that which you are perfectly well able to do yourself." If you are sure that a hand will produce a slam, bid it yourself. If you are not certain, invite your partner to do so.

TOMORROW'S PROBLEM.

You are South and hold:
♠ K 9 6 ♥ A 9 3 ♦ 7 4 ♣ A K J 7 4

The bidding has proceeded as follows:

North	East	South	West
1 diamond	Pass	2 clubs	Pass
3 clubs	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

"They're softer and smoother since I started to do my dishes with American Family Bar Soap . . . and I'm saving money, too."

CHARITY RACE MEET HONORS MAJ. WILLIAMS

It's Chairman's Day at Sportsman's.

BY MAURICE SHEVLIN.

Maj. Ednyfed H. Williams, chairman of the Illinois racing board and president of the National Association of State Racing Commissioners, will be honored today at Sportman's Park. The third day of The Chicago Tribune Charities' six day meeting, the final week of thoroughbred competition in the state, has been designated as Maj. Williams day.

Maj. Ednyfed H. Williams.

The program of eight races will be highlighted by the Maj. Williams handicap, a $2,000 event for 3 year olds and up at a mile and 70 yards which has attracted a field of seven of the best routers at the Cicero track. Three other events will bear the names of members of the racing board, William E. Fay, Frank E. Mandel, and Clement A. Nance, the organization's secretary.

Wagering Breaks Records.

Maj. Williams who, with Gov. Green and other state officials, has been instrumental in the unprecedent success of racing in Illinois in recent years, served as a special services officer overseas during World War I. and now practices law in Chicago.

Chicago's regular racing season, which was concluded last Saturday at Sportsman's Park, saw parimutuel wagering rise to record heights. During the 162 days at the five metropolitan tracks, $139,853,988 was bet and more than $825,000 was distributed to charity. The present meeting, for which President John L. Keeshin and the National Jockey club are agents, is expected to swell the fund for service and welfare organizations to well over $1,000,000.

10,249 Out for Second Day.

A crowd of 10,249 turned out under pleasant weather conditions yesterday to support the second afternoon of the charity meeting. The mutuel handle was $729,402, an increase of $126,088 over Monday's figures.

The daily double for the second straight day went to a pair of favorites, Sir Lo and Dusky Duke, and the return on each ticket was $10.80. Sir Lo, ridden by Bruno Pucci, paid $5, and Dusky Duke, with Tommy Haley up, paid $4.60.

Hopeful Play, a 38 to 1 shot, won the fourth race and a $2 win ticket was worth $80.80. Hopeful Play was brought to the front in the last few feet by Jockey Aulee Carr.

Lady Flares, a 4 year old filly owned by R. F. Norris and ridden by Sylvester Haynes, won the featured sixth race, an $1,800 allowance event for older horses. She scored by a neck over the Happy Hour farm's Impenetrable and paid $41.40, $15.60, and $7.20. J. H. Miles' Rush Act, the favorite, was third in a field of 10.

DIMANCHEFF IS BIG NINE'S NEW SCORING LEADER

Boris Dimancheff's scoring spree in Purdue's 35 to 0 victory over Wisconsin last Saturday catapulted the Boilermaker back into the individual scoring leadership of the Big Nine, statistics revealed yesterday by the Western conference service bureau reveal. The scoring of eight touchdowns in four games gives Dimancheff the lead with 48 points, six more than Bob Wiese, Michigan full back, rolled up in four conference games before leaving the Wolverines.

Altho sixth among the scorers, Les Horvath of Ohio State leads in rushing with a net of 356 yards to 429 for Dimancheff, who is second.

Johnny Yungwirth of Northwestern sets the pace for the Big Nine's forward passers with a record of 24 completions in 46 attempts for a net gain of 332 yards. Western conference statistics scoring leaders based on conference games only:

In the WAKE of the NEWS

BY ARCH WARD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Pvt. George Lott, former University of Chicago and Davis Cup tennis star, has been transferred from duty at Ashford General hospital in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., to special service headquarters in New York City. . . . Lott expects to lead an army-sponsored tennis troupe on a tour of United States and overseas posts. . . . Salvatore Carella, who hoists the heavy band equipment of Gene Krupa's orchestra, now playing Chicago's Sherman hotel, was a New York Golden Gloves welterweight star in 1941. . . . Carella has just completed a two-year hitch in the navy. . . . Why hotel managers go crazy: A large and crowded Milwaukee hostelry held rooms for the Denver university football squad recently and wondered why the westerners never checked in. . . . Denver played Marquette in Milwaukee last fall and some one in the hotel office had filed a 1943 letter with the current reservations. . . . Ensign Merle [Cut] Jennings, former national collegiate wrestling title holder, who was graduated from Michigan State college in 1943, champions the navy, which he says is moving him closer to Tokyo, and then writes high praise from his Southwest Pacific station for marine and army units. . . . Fight fans in New Orleans raised a rumpus at the ringside and demanded their money back the other night when Vince Dell 'Orto claimed a hand injury in the first round of his bout and refused to continue. . . . The shifting of odds just before the bout started from Dell 'Orto to Serean had everybody suspicious.

The Southern association will go back to the Shaughnessy play-off system next year. . . . Tulane university suffered a blow in the transfer of Leonard Finley, veteran quarter back by the navy. . . . Tulane hasn't lost a game since it played Notre Dame. . . . Its next date is with powerful Georgia Tech in Atlanta Nov. 18. . . . Herb Fleischhacker, son of a San Francisco banker and former full back for Pop Warner at Stanford university, is a lieutenant commander on the staff of Admiral Reeves in the Pacific. . . . Leo Leavitt, Honolulu boxing promoter, writes that business is booming out there. . . . George Watts, former Columbia football end, was a gunner on a troopship which landed troops at Salerno. . . . Joe Bodner and John Barnes, Muhlenberg tackles, were marine buddies on Guadalcanal. . . . Capt. Richard Ramey, on leave from The Tribune sports department, has a new assignment as public relations officer at the newly activated Army Air Forces Convalescent hospital, Fort Thomas, Ky.

HARRIS AGAIN SETS HAMMOND ALL-STAR PACE

Bowling Meet Will End Tomorrow.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

While Chicago bowlers still are in the total-pin phase of their local trials for the fourth All-Star individual match game championship, their tenpin neighbors in Hammond, Ind., tonight will be entering the penultimate leg of the trials being conducted there by the Hammond Times at Jay G. Batchelor's Bowl-Era.

John Whitaker, sports editor of the Times, stated yesterday that the fifth and sixth blocks of the Times' Hammond-Calumet City round robin will be rolled tonight, with the seventh and last scheduled for tomorrow night. Whitaker also added that the Hammond trials constitute the most successful promotion ever undertaken by his paper, so enthusiastic has been the response to it in Hammond, East Chicago, Calumet City, and Whiting.

Harris Leads in Close Race.

Joe Harris of Hammond, who represented the area in the 1943 world series of bowling, is leading after the first four round robin matches in the fight to win a place in the main event. This will be conducted from Dec. 2 thru 10 in Chicago's Auditorium service men's center by The Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., and the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America.

The Hammond-Calumet district standings, complete with averages and points based on the Petersen system, going into the final three blocks, follow:

Joe Harris, Hammond, 200.5 pins and 74.30 points; Sam Sanderson, Hammond, 196.4 pins and 74.15 points; Jay Batchelor, Hammond, 189 pins and 67.24 points; Wesley Works, Hammond, 186.5 pins and 66.31 points; John Klen, Whiting, 182.12 pins and 65.24 points; Vic Acicich, East Chicago, 181 pins and 64.46 points; Ralph Lundswall, Hammond, 170.7 pins and 64.31 points, and Mike Swick, Calumet City, 175 pins and 63 points.

The winner of the round robin, ending tomorrow night, will represent the Times and the Calumet district in the big show in the Auditorium next month.

Chicago Trials End Nov. 16.

Similar trials are being held in a number of cities thruout the country for the benefit of those bowlers who have not been seeded into the tournament because of their performances in the 1943 event.

The Chicago trials will remain on a three game, total-pin basis until 11:55 p. m. Nov. 16, the last time at which a candidate may go to the line in any of the five plants conducting local preliminaries. Only requirements for entering the trials are a fee of $2 and bowling for each three game series rolled and the stipulation that no following set be rolled on the same pair of alleys as its predecessor.

After Nov. 16, the top eight men at each of the five centers will go into round robin competition, with each man meeting each of his seven rivals in a four game block, all on the Petersen point system. This round robin schedule will be held in each of the qualifying sites on Nov. 18 and 19. The leaders at the end of this man-to-man battling will gain entrance to the main event.

LEADERS HOPE TO BREAK TIE IN CLASSIC TONIGHT

Battles to break the deadlocks for first and second places will head tonight's program in the Classic bowling league over the Northwest Lions' lanes, 4308 W. North av. The Chapin & Gore quintet, co-leaders with the Thompson's Restaurants, face the Meister Braus, defending champions, while the Thompson's meet the last-place Sunkist Pies. The Du Bouchett Liqueurs are favorites to break their second place tie with the Congress Arcades. The latter engage the sixth place Monarch Beers, while the Du Bouchetts draw the eighth place Washington Shirts. The fifth match will bring together Prima Beer and Keeley Half and Half.

Coincident with the regular bowling schedule will be a presentation ceremony, involving the Gep-Rods, winners of the super-sweeper held last week by the Classic league. The Geps will receive a check for $1,000 and a trophy presented by Arnold Finkelstein of the National Billiard Supply company.

Chapin & Gore [17-10], Thompson's Restaurants [17-10], Congress Arcade [15-12], Du Bouchett Liqueurs [15-12], Meister Braus [14-13], Monarch Beers [13-14], Prima Beers [12-15], Washington Shirts [12-15], Keeley Half & Half [10-17], Sunkist Pies [17-17].

HAWKS INVADE HOCKEY CHAMPS ICE TOMORROW

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Our poor Blackhawks, eager, earnest and ambitious, but quite befuddled by the dazzling skating of such experts as Sweeney Schriner of the Toronto Maple Leafs and Herb Cain and Bill Cowley of the Boston Bruins, will venture into the frozen den of the Montreal Canadiens tomorrow night. There is no way of telling what will happen to our lads, unless the Montreal president and manager, Tom Gorman and Dick Irwin, swept with a tender thought of the long ago times when they were Blackhawks, put hobbles on the Canadiens after the world champions have scored a half dozen goals or so.

Hawk Manager Paul Thompson announced he had shuffled his lineup plans as he prepared to depart on the Hawks first road trip of the season. But he shuffled from the same roster he had for the two losses suffered by the Hawks, and ignominously suffered, in the first two Sunday nights of the home season. Paul knows hockey and he perhaps knows that he could shuffle his current deck endlessly without bringing any considerable number of aces to the top. He has come up with several deuces, but not very wild deuces.

Canadiens Protect Record.

The Canadiens, who are not noticeably weaker than they were last year, did not suffer a loss on their home ice in the 25 games they played there in the regular schedule last season. They were nipped once in the playoffs there—but not by last year's Hawks, tho the Chicagoans of last season did get into the finals with the Canadiens.

The Leafs beat 'em in that one playoff loss in Montreal—and the Leafs have beat them once in the regular season this fall. This early breaking of a record they carried thru all last season is said to have caused the Canadiens to resolve that they will not again be even threatened on their home ice. And our poor Hawks will open their 1944-'45 road season on that said ice!

Thompsen Seeks Help.

It is probable that while Manager Thompson is in his native Canada for the first time this season, he will sob for some help from the Canadiens, who hold the deeds to many more players then they can use in their National league depradations. The Hawks have one player, perhaps their current best, on lendlease from the Canadiens. His name is Lude Check and he, unlike some of the Hawk newcomers, seems to have been on skates prior to this autumn. If the Canadiens could lend a half dozen lads as good as Check, the Hawks probably wouldn't become pennant contenders, but they would be much better than the two capacity Sunday night crowds have seen here thus far this season.

Savold, Lane Box Tonight in Coliseum

BY FRANK MASTRO.

Lee Savold's ranking as No. 7 heavyweight contender will be at stake when he meets Larry Lane of Trenton, N. J., tonight in a 10 round bout topping the Coliseum's first show of the indoor season.

Savold, who accepted the bout in an effort to redeem himself for his setback at the hands of Joe Baksi three months ago, is picked to score his sixth Chicago victory.

Lane, who is 26 years old and weighs 192 pounds, will be aiming at a second Chicago success as well as Lee's National Boxing associa-

Physician O. K.'s Lane.

Dr. John Drammis, chief medical examiner for the Illinois Athletic commission, yesterday was quoted as saying the injury will not prevent Lane from going thru with the match.

A six round semi-windup this evening will bring together Clarence Brown, 1937 Catholic Youth organization heavyweight champion, and Johnny Flanagan, who, as John Bouquet, was a finalist during the city Golden Gloves tournament last February. Flanagan is undefeated as a professional, his victims including Sam Williams in Jacksonville, Fla., and Vecie Van in Milwaukee. Van was floored for the count in the first round.

Brown Returns to Action.

Brown has not boxed in this city since being awarded a split decision over Nate Bolden in Marigold Gardens a year ago last July. He was suspended for six months by the commission for failing to go thru with a scheduled match against the late Lem Franklin in Wrigley Field in August, 1943. Preliminary events:

O'Neil Bell, Detroit, vs. Terry Gibson, Los Angeles [6], 147.

HOPPE, COCHRAN OPEN PLAY FOR CUE TITLE TODAY

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 7 (AP).—Willie Hoppe will begin defense of his world's three-cushion billiard championship tomorrow, playing Welker Cochran, San Francisco, a former champion.

The challenge match, first championship three-cushion competition since 1942, will be played in four cities. Two blocks of 50 points each will be played here Wednesday thru Saturday. On Nov. 13 play will shift to St. Louis for three days, with remaining blocks to be played in Detroit and Chicago.

Ice Follies Win Over Blackhawks at Bowling

The Ice Follies bowling team defeated the Chicago Blackhawk hockey team, 2,370 to 2,212, yesterday on the Arena lanes.

N. U. DEPENDS ON 'T' FORMATION TO UPSET PURDUE

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Thirty-five thousand are expected to attend the Northwestern-Purdue football game Saturday in Dyche stadium. And these loyalists, who have been denied victory since an unscheduled opening game defeat of DePauw, will see that something new has been added to the Wildcats' attack, the Northwestern T formation.

This isn't a complete surprise since Northwestern was converted to the T style of play early this season. The system was used occasionally against Michigan, was tried more often in the Indiana game, and employed almost entirely last Saturday in Minneapolis where the Wildcats came from behind to tie the Gophers, 14 to 14.

The T formation, as has been proved beyond doubt, is not an infallible cure for gridiron ailments. If the T always won, then Pittsburgh, directed by Clark Shaughnessy, who rejuvenated and popularized the offense while at Stanford, would not now be bounced around by all major opponents.

Warner System Passes.

But the T formation can be adapted for players who would have less success with the single wing back style. Incidentally, the Warner double wing back formation, except for occasional use for forward passing, definitely is obsolete. This attack lacked deception and the time lag between the start of the play and the arrival of the ball carrier at the line of scrimmage was fatal to consecutive success.

Lynn Waldorf, Northwestern's head coach, anticipated that a change must be made. The Wildcats began practice with these new plays at the start of the season but a general lack of experience and back field speed were handicaps to any method of attack Waldorf could devise. The T works best with exceptionally fast half backs, which, of course, is the basis this year for the success of Illinois' attack.

Yungwirth Directs Attack.

Last Saturday, at Minnesota, Henry Altepeter, Wildcats' right half, was the star of Northwestern's attack. Altepeter is the team's fastest back as witness his performance at 220 yards and the quarter mile on the track team.

The shift to the T formation sent John Yungwirth, formerly Northwestern's tail back, under the center to handle the ball and to throw passes. The one time quarter back for the single wing back, Frank Clawson, then paired with Altepeter at half back. Yungwirth's forward passing ability fits the T formation and the reasons for the change are as apparent as when Notre Dame moved Angelo Bertelli from left half back to quarter where he became a ball handler and passer.

They Must Stop Dimancheff.

Ray Schultz, Purdue regular quarter back in earlier games, also will be missing because of navy transfer. Thus, with a less talented blocker and passer, Purdue may be vulnerable to Northwestern if the Wildcats can check the fleet Dimancheff. Should Northwestern whip the Boilermakers, the latter will be eliminated from the Western conference race.

ARMY RETAINS TOP POSITION IN FOOTBALL POLL

Randolph Field 1st in Service Division.

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Army and Randolph Field, who ruled the collegiate and service divisions of the Associated Press football poll a week ago, retain their titles in the present compilation.

The Cadets, who garnered 58 of the 106 votes cast for first place, piled up 974 points, a margin of 162 over Ohio State's civilians in the listing of college teams only. Notre Dame, second to Army a week ago dropped to fourth in the college rating, with the Middies moving up to third.

Randolph Field, fourth in the overall poll, led the service outfits with 675, including the 180 obtained by being rated the best in the country, with Bainbridge naval a distant second with 349.

Michigan Rated Fifth.

Michigan, Illinois, Southern California, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, and Tennessee complete the first 10 in the college division. The Volunteers, unbeaten but tied, were 18th in the major tabulation which included both college and service elevens.

Iowa Pre-Flight, 4th Air Force, Great Lakes, Norman Navy, North Carolina Pre-Flight, El Toro Marines, 3d Air Force, and the 2d Air Force made up the remainder of the service elite.

Flyers Have 229 Points.

The Randolph Flyers, rated by many observers as the greatest nonprofessional squad ever assembled, have piled up 296 points in six consecutive conquests and only Texas has been able to score on them. The Longhorns got a single touchdown but were unable to add the point.

Line Is Powerful, Too.

The line is of equal caliber, anchored by Pvt. T. B. Robertson, 200 pound veteran of two years experience with the Brooklyn Tigers. Sgt. Jack Russell, 210, made the Associated Press service All-America last year but his play at left end isn't much better than that of Harold Newman, right end former Alabaman who played in the Rose bowl.

Chicago Horse Show Awards Total $60,000

Awards totaling $60,000, an amount never before equaled in horse show annals, will go to winners at the Chicago horse show in the Coliseum Dec. 9 to 17, it was revealed at a meeting of the directors of th Chicago Horse Show Association, Inc., the sponsoring organization, in the Palmer House yesterday.

The record breaking awards, to be paid in either war bonds or cash at the discretion of individual exhibitors, are expected to attract the leading show ring performers of the nation to Chicago for the nine evening and five matinee sessions.

The Chicago Horse Show Association, Inc., a nonprofit organization, will turn proceeds of the show over to the community and war fund.

Organization of the show has been completed. Heading the executive committee is John F. Cuneo, with H. Leslie Atlass and Curt G. Joa as the other members. Officers in addition to Butler include Walter D. Monroe, John T. Pirie Jr., Thomas E. Bond, Clarence B. Randall, and Theodore F. Mohlman, vice presidents; James L. Younghusband, secretary, and James R. Leavell, treasurer.

Downtown headquarters in Chicago have been established at 223 W. Monroe st. A. P. Fleming, widely known horse show executive, has been appointed as show manager. He announced that the closing date for entries has been set at Nov. 20.

MARINO MAY GET OPEN LEFT HALF POST FOR IRISH

Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 7 [Special].—Nunzio Marino, V-12 freshman half back, started as a pass receiver today as Coach Ed McKeever put the Notre Dame football squad thru an hour's scrimmage in preparation for Saturday's game with unbeaten Army in New York.

Marino eluded the secondary several times to make brilliant catches of throws from both Frank Dancewicz and Joe Gasparella. Two other freshmen backs, Bill Chandler and Jim Brennan, also looked good as ball carriers as they continued their battle with Marino for the regular left half position vacated by the transfer of Chick Maggioli and George Terlep to advanced V-12 training.

BEARS EXPECT LITTLE TROUBLE AGAINST YANKS

Boston Disproves Charges of Being Pushover.

BY EDWARD PRELL.

The Boston Yanks, a curious mixture of football players even by war time standards, haven't done so badly for an organization making its debut in the National league, but they aren't expected to be too difficult Sunday for the Bears in Wrigley field.

When they beat the Brooklyn Tigers the other Sunday the Yanks made poor prophets out of pro football sharpers who were confident Ted Collins' team would go thru the season without a victory. That has been their only one in six games, but the Yanks haven't been pushovers if you throw out last Sunday's 38 to 0 loss to the Giants in New York.

On Oct. 15 the Yanks went into the fourth period tied with the Redskins, 14 to 14. Washington won when Frank Filchock, the league's leading passer, pitched 42 yards to Ted Lapka for a touchdown. In an exhibition game with the Redskins in September the Bears were beaten, three touchdowns to one.

Renew Old Acquaintances.

The Bears will be meeting some old opponents Sunday who have been with other teams in the league. At full back for the Yanks is George Cafego, the old Tennessee star. Last November in Washington Cafego helped the Redskins whip the Bears, 21 to 7.

Three weeks before the game with the Bears the Redskins had claimed Cafego from Brooklyn on waivers. He started this contest instead of Sam Baugh, who was hurt. Tho Baugh made four dramatic appearances and hurled a touchdown pass, Cafego played most of the game at left half. Cafego is listed as a full back with the Yankees.

Another gent with whom the Bears are acquainted is Guard Augie Lio, the one time Detroit Lion kick-off and goal kicking specialist. Keith Ranspot, who also has been around in the league, is at left end.

War Time Examples.

The other starting guard, Bill Walker, is a 220 pounder from Virginia Military institute. The regular tackles, Ed Franco of Fordham and Ed McGee of Temple are war time examples. Franco was drafted by Cleveland in 1938 and never reported. McGee was selected in 1939 by the Giants and was with Philadelphia and Brooklyn briefly before coming to the Yanks. Joe Crowley, No. 1 right end, is a 190 pounder from Dartmouth.

BUKOWSKI LEADS BOMAR TOURNEY WITH 1,772 TOTAL

Chester Bukowski, member of Detroit's record making E. & B. bowling team, shattered the existing tournament record of 1,737, set by Johnny Crimmins of Detroit in 1941, in capturing the lead in Buddy Bomar's fourth annual Diamond Medal individual tournament last night in Marigold Arcade with a tremendous 1,772.

Bukowski better 200 in seven of the eight games to move 134 pins ahead of Al Pasek, Chicago bowler, who held the lead on the 1,648 total he shot Sunday night. In other changes last night: Mickey Milkau, Chicago, climbed into fourth place with 1,612; Herb Engstrom, Chicago, took possession of eighth with 1,605, and Louis Sielaff, captain of the E. & B. quintet, had 1,593 for ninth place and tied for the high single game with 259.

The tournament will continue next Saturday with three squads taking over the alleys and will end Sunday with four shifts on the schedule. The leaders:

Chester Bukowski, Detroit, Mich.	1,772
Al Pasek, Chicago	1,648
Frank Kartheiser, Chicago	1,635
Mickey Milkau, Chicago	1,612
Wally Rappenhagen, Detroit	1,610
Alex Zaboski, Gary, Ind.	1,609
Howard Busick, Waukegan, Ill.	1,606
Herb Engstrom, Chicago	1,605
Louis Sielaff, Detroit	1,593
John Mueller, Columbus, O.	1,592

PAVOT ENTERED IN TWO CHICAGO STAKES FOR 1945

Walter M. Jeffords' Pavot, undefeated juvenile and an outstanding candidate for horse of the year honors, is among the early nominees for the Classic and the American Derby in 1945, officials of the Arlington Park and Washington Park Jockey clubs said yesterday.

In dominating eastern competition among the 2 year olds, Pavot won six stakes, the Mayflower, the United States Hotel, the Saratoga Special, the Grand Union Hotel, the Hopeful, and the Belmont Futurity.

Four events for juveniles close simultaneously with the two $50,000 Chicago stake races, these being the Arlington Park Futurity, the Washington Park Futurity, the Lassie, and the Princess Pat stakes. The futurities have been increased in value from $25,000 to $30,000 and the other two events, which are for juvenile fillies, have been raised from $15,000 to $20,000.

Australian Tag Team Match Booked Tonight

An Australian tag team match will pit Jack [Bad Boy] Brown and Wax Moctezuma against Mel Peters and Chico Salzar in the wrestling show in Rainbo Fronton, 4836 N. Clark st., tonight.

BLAME JEWISH TERRORISTS IN ENVOY'S DEATH

Assassins of Briton In Cairo Are Defiant.

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 7 (AP).—Investigation indicated today that the two men who yesterday assassinated Walter E. Guinness [Lord Moyne] were Jewish terrorists who had come from Palestine about a week ago, but it still was not known whether they were members of the Stern extremist organization, which has been blamed for numerous acts of violence in Palestine.

Zionists here described the slaying of the British resident minister for the middle east, who was 64, as "the greatest disaster to our cause" and expressed fear that it would aggravate anti-semitism thruout the world.

Will Fly Body to England.

Joint funeral services will be held Wednesday, for the minister and his chauffeur, who was slain with him. Guinness' body will be returned to England by air.

A colonel and two other members of the British Palestine police came here today to question the assassins.

The prisoners, one of whom was wounded by an Egyptian constable, maintained a defiant silence under questioning muttering in Hebrew "we say nothing. We await courts." They are expected to be arraigned soon.

British Press Probe.

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—British and Egyptian officials tonight pressed an all-out investigation into the origin and associations of the assassins of Walter E. Guinness, British minister-resident, at Cairo.

Early solution of the crime was expected after Prime Minister Churchill told commons today that "very searching inquiries" would be made. Churchill said that he had received no official information fixing the authorship of the crime, or giving a clue to its motives. He disclosed that the killers narrowly escaped lynching.

In his report to commons, Churchill said parliament, and the nation had suffered a "very heavy loss" in the death of Guinness. He added that Guinness had devoted himself this year to a solution of the Zionist problem, and declared the Jews in Palestine "had rarely lost a better or more well-informed friend."

ADD YANK SPORT: FLUSHING NAZIS FROM HAYLOFTS

WITH THE A. E. F. IN FRANCE —(AP).—Staff Sgt. Francis E. Chaney, of Fairport Harbor, O., bedded down in a deserted barn, heard a suspicious sound, investigated, and captured a German dozing in the loft overhead.

Pvt. Everett L. Beach, of Camden, Mich., a cook, sneaked off to catch a few winks in a hayloft near his field kitchen. Mess Sgt. Laverne Shelp, of Owosso, Mich., grimly went to get him back to work. The sergeant rudely shook the first sleeping form he saw and awakened a German panzer grenadier whose surrendering shout also awoke the sleeping cook.

Pvt. Stanley J. Szymanski of Chicago, a wireman, was in a hayloft above a company kitchen patching a wire when he spied a German. Szymanski was armed only with a pair of pliers so he flashed them and took the jerry prisoner downstairs amidst the applause of doughboys waiting in chow line.

BRITISH QUEEN'S FATHER DIES AT SCOTTISH HOME

LONDON, Nov. 7 (AP).—Claude George Bowes-Lyon, the earl of Strathmore, 89, father of Queen Elizabeth, died today at Glamis castle, his home at Forfarshire, Scotland.

He was the only commoner holding knighthood in the orders of the Garter and the Bath. He entered the house of lords under a Scottish title as Baron Bowes. He was created an earl and a knight of the Garter by King George at the coronation in May, 1937.

His death brought the second bereavement to the British royal family in less than a fortnight. The court was due to go out of mourning Thursday for the death of Beatrice, great-aunt of King George VI., and the last surviving child of Queen Victoria.

SEEK IDENTITY OF WOMAN, 60, HURT BY TRUCK

Police last night sought the identity of an elderly woman who walked into the side of a truck in front of 3015 Southport av. and was seriously injured.

The victim was described as 60 to 65 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, and weighed 120 pounds. She had gray hair and blue eyes and was dressed in a tan dress and stockings, black shoes and a black fur coat and white knitted shawl. She was taken to the Illinois Masonic hospital with a possible skull fracture.

The driver of the truck, Albert D. Krismer, 37, of 2529 Lotus av., owner of the Krismer Flower Land at that address, was not held.

DUTCH ESCAPE TAINT OF NAZIS, OFFICIAL SAYS

New Consul General Tells of Spirit.

That the Dutch people are completely untainted by Nazi ideology even after four years of occupation is indicated by the news coming out of the liberated portions of Holland, Jan A. Schuurman, new consul general of the Netherlands in Chicago, said in an interview here yesterday.

"You don't hear of excesses against Germans or against the few of their own people who betrayed them," Schuurman pointed out. "Their sense of order and of law and justice hasn't been impaired."

Demand Court Trial Justice.

This does not mean, he explained, that the Dutch people do not demand stern justice for those guilty of atrocities, but they prefer that this justice be the result of orderly court procedure. They envision trials in Dutch courts on Dutch soil of Nazis who have been responsible for crimes in Holland. The use of violence, a Nazi custom, is abhorrent to the Dutch, he added.

Schuurman was gravely concerned over the results of the biological warfare which the Germans have waged. The Dutch nation, like other occupied nations, has been weakened, and the disease and death rates have risen because the people have been deprived of medicines and other necessities, he explained.

Asked whether the bitterness caused by the war and by the German occupation of Holland would make it impossible for the two nations to live together as neighbors in peace time, Schuurman said that in his opinion commercial relations would be quickly resumed, but that the Dutch would be very cold toward the Germans.

Hold No Cultural Prejudices.

On the subject of cultural relations, he pointed out that the Dutch have nothing against German music and would probably regard it just as they did before the war. For reasons of mutual benefit, he foresaw an early resumption of scientific relations, also.

Before being appointed to the Chicago post Nov. 2 Schuurman represented his country in England, France, Germany, Turkey, China, Canada, and three other American three other American cities.

OBITUARIES

John Joseph Cleary.

John Joseph Cleary, 79, of Highland Park, member of the Chicago Stock exchange and officer of three large firms, died last night after a week's illness. He was a partner in Cleary & Co., brokers; vice president of the Burton-Dixie corporation, upholstering manufacturers, and vice president of Delaney & Co., automotive equipment concern. Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. William Templeton of Oak Park and Mrs. E. A. Downey of St. Louis; a daughter, Mrs. E. A. Roach of Highland Park, and a son, Mansfield. Services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in St. James church, Highwood.

Chauncey L. Graham.

Services for Chauncey L. Graham, 99, formerly of Evanston and Wilmette, will be held today in Glendale, Cal., where he died Monday. Mr. Graham was a charter member of the mission that became St. Luke's Episcopal church in Evanston. In 1889 he sold wire fencing to land squatters in the Indian territory rush in Oklahoma. He went to Glendale seven years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Bull of Highland Park, and Mrs. Florence Mace of Glendale.

County Judge Glen L. Cowing.

County Judge Glen L. Cowing, 52, of Will county, died yesterday in Silver Cross hospital, Joliet. Judge Cowing, who was serving his second term in office, was a veteran of World War I., in which he served under Col. Theodore Roosevelt in the 26th infantry of the famous 1st division. He is survived by three sons, Lt. George and Pvt. Glen of the army and Willis, and one daughter, Mrs. William Ley.

Mrs. Serena Evans.

Mrs. Serena Evans, 100, died yesterday in her home at 908 Chicago av., Downers Grove. Mrs. Evans was born July 16, 1844, in Lewistown, Fulton county, but lived nearly half her life in Chicago. Her husband, Hiram, died in 1916. Two sons, Walworth and Fred C., survive. Services will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 5017 Highland av., Downers Grove.

Hyman S. Flaxman.

Hyman S. Flaxman, 73, of the Sherry hotel, veteran Chicago real estate dealer, died yesterday. Surviving are the widow, Mollie; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Rubloff and Mrs. Florence Rosen of Muskegon, Mich., and two sons, Arthur and Sidney. Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 936 E. 47th st.

Daniel C. Gordon.

Daniel C. Gordon, 85, a native Chicagoan, died yesterday in his home in Norwood, O., where he had resided for six years. Mr. Gordon, a pioneer Chicago contractor, is survived by his widow, Winifred, two sons, and three daughters. Services will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Oakwood cemetery chapel.

CHICAGOAN WITH RIGHT ANSWERS HAS PACIFIC BEER

SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC.—Chicagoland soldiers who have been matching their wits with the Japs are now matching them with their buddies in a weekly quiz program. The program is held in the Blackhawk Jungleland theater. Sgt. Julius Koppelman, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koppelman, 5642 N. Ashland, Chicago, answered all questions correctly and won a case of rationed beer for first prize. He is a mechanic and has been in the service three and a half years. He attended Senn High school and Central Y. M. C. A. college. Among other contestants were Pvt. Davey Green, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, 5646 University av., Chicago; Pvt. Clarence Deering, 23, Palatine, and 1st Sgt. Kenneth Elkins, 34, Danville. Capt. Oliver A. Jahn, 2344 Orrington av., Evanston, regimental personnel officer, helped to arrange the program.

Alien Evades Draft Law; Gets 3 Year Prison Term

Pleading guilty to a charge of failure to register for the draft, Eric B. Osen, 40, of 1924 Warren blvd. was sentenced to three years in prison Monday by Federal Judge John P. Barnes. Assist. United States Atty. Walter Witowski told the court that Osen stated he could serve only one master, God, and that he didn't care who won the war. Osen also had failed to register as an alien, Witowski said.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WOMEN GET FAT ON RATIONS, BUT KEEP IT SECRET

British Learn They're Touchy About Weight

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A farcical if not pathetic note is frequently introduced in some of the odd things which happen in Britain as a result of the war.

One reads, for example, that women in Britain are putting on weight on war time rations. It is said that altho the food ministry knows all about it, it has refused to disclose the fact because women are touchy about their weight. The ministry is said to have records of 40,000 persons who were weighed regularly on condition the information was kept secret.

A trial shipment of New Zealand goats, which apparently make appetizing eating and taste like lean mutton, is expected shortly. The public is warned that altho goat's meat looks tough, it is quite tender.

An advertisment offering a house for rent in a Hampshire town drew 2,000 replies. At the same time, the town council of Malden, Surrey, proposed erecting temporary houses in back gardens so as not to interfere with permanent buildings.

A story is circulating that cadets of the air training corps of call up age are being sent into the mines or the army instead of the R. A. F. Parents and boys are said to be indignant. A dwindling in the recruiting of boys and officers has been recorded.

A family of four—a father, mother, daughter, 4, and a baby boy—was forced to sleep in a Brighton street shelter because it was ejected from a house where it had been billeted and no other accommodations were available. The owner of a suitable house, which the family found, refused to sell or rent it.

In the future any Italian war prisoner seen walking arm in arm with a British girl will be pounced upon by any soldier down to the rank of a lance corporal [private 1st class]. He will take the Italian's name and number and report him to the authorities. This new measure reportedly is designed to curb the popularity of Italian war prisoners.

Boy Scouts in groups of 10 will be sent to the continent to help liberated countries. Already squads are said to be engaged in relief work in France, Greece, and Albania.

SEVEN INJURED AS BUSES CRASH; ONE IN HOSPITAL

Seven passengers on a loop bound Chicago Motor Coach bus were injured yesterday when another bus of the company, carrying supplies, struck it from the rear at Jackson blvd. and Damen av.

Phillip Wein, 52, of 1524 S. Ridgeway av., a leather worker, suffered a possible fracture of the left leg and spine. He is in County hospital. The others injured received first aid.

They are Miss Grace Bourdo, 20, of 3420 Jackson blvd.; Miss Irene Johnston, 30, of 219½ S. Kedzie av.; Mrs. Bertha Baskovitz, 47, of 1330 S. Springfield av.; Seymour Kurtz, 15, of 1439 S. Kedzie av.; Mrs. Sadie Hirshfield, 46, of 3812 W. 12th st., and Mrs. Pearl Kapkin, 45, of 1342 S. Lawndale av.

BEGIN MAILING NEW FORMS ON TAX EXEMPTION

Employes Must File Claims by Dec. 1.

Blanks for the new exemption certificates which all employes subject to the pay roll withholding tax are required to file by Dec. 1 will be mailed to employers beginning next week, Collector of Internal Revenue Harrison said yesterday. Altho many employers in the northern Illinois district already have obtained the revised W-4 blanks by calling for them at the collector's office, the work of getting some 3 million of the new certificates on file is far from complete.

Carter H. Harrison.

Each employer will receive eight blanks in the first mailing, plus a requisition form for as many additional blanks as he may need. Approximately 105,000 companies in this revenue district are subject to the requirement to withhold taxes from employes' pay.

Mail distribution of the blanks awaited receipt from Washington, D. C., of a supply of the circulars of instructions to employers regarding changes in the withholding provisions, effective Jan. 1.

Employe Urged to Protect Self.

It is important to all employes that they obtain, fill out, and return to employers the new certificates on or before Dec. 1. Unless this is done, employers are required to withhold taxes from wages without exemption so far as the surtax is concerned.

The old exemption certificates and withholding rates remain in effect until Jan. 1, altho the new rates will rule in computing the 1944 tax liability in income tax returns next March 15. Differences between the tax withheld this year and the amount due will be adjusted when the returns are filed.

The changed withholding rates and exemption credits, effective Jan. 1, made necessary the new exemption certificate. On it the employe will claim the number of withholding exemptions to which he is entitled for 1945, determined as of Jan. 1.

How Exemptions Are Computed.

The law provides these withholding exemptions: one for the tax payer, one for husband or wife unless the husband or wife is claiming the exemption separately, and one for each dependent.

Under the percentage method of figuring the tax, each exemption amounts to $556 annually, prorated to pay roll periods. If the wage bracket tables are used, the column in which the tax is shown depends upon the number of exemptions claimed.

In compiling income tax returns, each surtax exemption is $500. Other credits and allowances account for the larger figure used in determining the withholding tax.

A dependent is defined as a person with less than $500 gross income for the year, more than one-half of whose support must have been received from the taxpayer, to whom he must be a near relative. Cousins, for example, do not count.

Here Are Withholding Rates.

New withholding tax rates follow:

For the normal tax, 2.7 per cent of the amount by which the total wage payment exceeds one withholding exemption, regardless of how many exemptions are claimed against the surtax.

For the first bracket of the surtax, the levy is 18 per cent of the amount by which total wages exceed total exemptions claimed.

The second surtax bracket, beginning on taxable earnings in excess of $2,224 annually prorated to pay roll periods, carries a levy of 19.8 per cent.

Another approaching date of interest to taxpayers is Jan. 15, the due date for the final instalment of the estimated 1944 tax. This applies to those taxpayers required to file declarations of estimated tax. The deadline for this last amendment to earlier declarations was extended from Dec. 15. Final returns will be due on or before March 15.

Republic Tells Vast War Job, Casts Lie at Profiteer Charges

Republic Steel corporation, the nation's third largest producer, built or installed at the request of governmental agencies 42 Defense Plant corporation projects, including a complete steel mill in Chicago, at a total cost of more than 200 million dollars, the corporation disclosed yesterday in a booklet, "Republic Goes to War."

The booklet also answered charges of war profiteering with its record of much lower profits on sharply increased production. It recounted the number of efficiency awards received from various branches of government, and commented favorably on the workmanship of women in steel plants.

"Greatest Single War Project."

The Chicago mill, complete from ore docks to finishing mills, was described as "probably the greatest single war project in the United States" and the only one of its kind in the country and perhaps the world. Its production is used for aircraft, guns, tanks, landing craft, shells, and a score of other military necessities, the booklet said.

Facilities include a 1,275 ton blast furnace, 75 coke ovens, four 200 ton tilting type open hearth furnaces, and nine 70 ton electric furnaces. The entire plant has almost 53 acres under roof.

Up to Sept. 1, the new blast furnace produced 16,516 tons of pig iron, the open hearth furnaces 160,000 tons of steel, and the electric furnaces 198,000 tons of steel. Republic's over-all steel output rose from 4,817,867 tons in 1939 to 8,651,263 tons in 1943.

Here Is Profit, Output Record.

The booklet said Republic's earnings had declined during the war years, despite statements of certain individuals and organizations that the steel industry reaped huge war profits.

"Net earnings of Republic in 1942, 1943, and 1944 averaged 12½ million dollars in comparison with an average of 18½ million in 1939, 1940, and 1941," it said. "While volume of business in the war years increased 57 per cent, earnings declined 32 per cent. In face of this large increase in business Republic realized only 2 cents profit on each dollar of sales in comparison with 5 cents in the years before the war."

Apprehension Uncalled For.

Discussing women's performance in the steel plants, the booklet said:

"Any apprehension over women in steel plants was uncalled for. The women did a magnificent job. They worked earnestly and enthusiastically on assignments within their strength and so relieved many a man for other work and took the places of men who went into military service."

The performance of Republic's employes was recognized by the army and the navy and the maritime commission, the booklet said.

MATHIESON ALKALI.

Please inform me what reasons are given for this year's decline in earnings of Mathieson Alkali works.—W. R.

The drop in earnings in the first nine months of 1944 to 85 cents a common share from $1.08 a year ago was attributed by E. M. Allen, chairman, to increases in wages, cost of materials, and research expenses. The company's plants ran at full production and prices were stationary.

A relatively high proportion of earnings is regularly absorbed by depreciation and depletion charges. For the nine months this year these totaled $1,375,344, compared with net income of $828,801, and such charges have exceeded net income each year for many years. These reserves are an apparent factor in building up net working capital from $1,767,000 in 1934 to $7,207,000 at the end of 1943.

On an annual basis net income in recent years has ranged from a low of $1.01 in 1938 to a high of $1.90 in 1941. The 1943 profit was equal to $1.34.

Altho research expenditures are not itemized, the company has been active in such work. A few months ago it announced the development of a new type of synthetic rubber.

SEC HEARING SET ON BIG UTILITY'S SIMPLIFICATION

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7 (AP).—A bearing on the American and Foreign Power company plan of simplification will be held Dec. 12, the securities and exchange commission said today.

Foreign Power, a major subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share company, would simplify its capital structure by substituting no par value common stock and debt for outstanding notes and four stock issues.

In addition "a more fair and equitable" distribution of voting power and settlement of claims and counter-claims among Bond and Share, Foreign Power, and their respective security holders is proposed.

2 AMERICAN GAS UNITS IN INDIANA PLAN TO MERGE

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7 (AP).—A plan for the recapitalization of Indiana General Service company, Marion, Ind., and its dissolution after merger with Indiana and Michigan Electric company, South Bend, was filed today by the two companies and their parent, American Gas and Electric company.

American Gas will surrender 24,347 shares of Indiana General 6 per cent preferred stock in exchange for an equal number of $100 par value common shares, and pay $65,300 for 653 more common shares.

Indiana General then will retire its 15,364 preferred shares held by the public at $110 and amend its charter to state its capital structure at 54,000 common shares.

After Indiana General is merged into Indiana and Michigan, American Gas will surrender to the merged company all outstanding common shares of Indiana General for 55,000 common shares of Indiana and Michigan. Indiana General will then be dissolved and Indiana and Michigan will then retire $6,500,000 of Indiana General bonds.

WLB UPHOLDS UNIFORMITY IN VACATION PLANS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—The war labor board today announced it had upheld the right of employes to make vacation plans uniform in various plants. Its unanimous decision approved voluntary vacation plans submitted by Interwoven Stocking company, for its Morristown, Tenn., mill and the Geneva [Utah] Steel company, a subsidiary of United States Steel corporation.

"We believe that this policy will be conducive to stabilization because it now will prevent disturbance of existing standard vacation plans of corporations operating on a nation-wide basis," said J. Holmes Davis and Walter T. Margetts, industry members, in the opinion.

The board reversed its Atlanta regional board in the Interwoven case, upholding regional boards in Cleveland and Philadelphia, which in similar cases involving Interwoven mills in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, approved the plan on the basis of 2 per cent of total earnings as one week's vacation pay.

STEEL CAPACITY RAISED 15 PCT. IN FOUR YEARS

Cost of Expansion Tops 2 Billions.

The steel industry in a little more than four years has increased its annual steel making capacity almost 12½ million tons, or more than 15 per cent, the American Iron and Steel Institute said yeserday. This expansion of output, which was begun in January, 1940, on an emergency basis, is equal to 80 per cent of the British industry's entire output, the organization added.

The program "which ranks among the greatest industrial construction undertakings of all time," was accomplished thru the expenditure of government and industry funds totaling more than 2 billion dollars, it said.

Federal Aid Substantial.

"Approximately 1 billion 63 million dollars in government funds were invested during the period of war time expansion," the institute said. "Over the same period, the industry itself spent 1 billion 151 million dollars in expanding and modernizing plants.

"The industry's expenditures for expansion began in 1940. Somewhat over a year later, after the government sponsored program was authorized, began the flow of government funds beyond those supplied directly by the military. For the bulk of the government financed construction, funds were provided thru the Defense Plant corporation."

Steelmaking capacity on July 1 was rated at 94,054,550 tons of ingot and steel for castings a year, compared with 81,619,500 tons on Jan. 1, 1940, and 88,569,970 tons on Jan. 1, 1942.

Blast furnace capacity for producing pig iron and ferro-alloys on July 1 was rated at 68,446,310 tons annually, an increase of more than 12,700,000 tons since January, 1940. Both blast furnace and steel capacities in 1940 represented substantial increase over levels of the first World war and were far above maximum peace time demand.

Blast Furnace Output Up.

By January, 1942, blast furnace capacity had been increased, almost entirely by private funds, to nearly 60,393,980 tons.

On Jan. 1, 1944, blast furnace capacity was 67,391,270 tons a year, and steel capacity was 93,652,290 tons. Nearly all remaining expansion projects were completed in the first half of 1944.

Capacity figures as of July 1 reflected these additions and took into consideration reductions in capacity of older furnaces which no longer could be operated at emergency pressure.

Lift Import Restrictions Over Ore and 38 Foods

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—Import controls were ordered lifted tonight from 53 commodities, including iron ore, fir, pine, and 38 food items. Simultaneously it was announced that the war food administration will assume the import regulation of certain foods previously controled by the WPB. Unground pepper, black or white, was ordered under import restrictions for the first time.

POPULATION ON FARMS SLUMPS 4 MILLIONS IN LAST FOUR YEARS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7 (AP).—The nation's farm population slumped 4,748,000 in the last four years, the department of agriculture said today. It estimated that last January 25,521,000 persons were living on farms, against 30,269,000 in January, 1940.

Half the decrease occurred in 1942, the bureau of agricultural economics said, when the drain of farm residents into war industries and military service was heaviest.

A breakdown showed these changes in the last four years: A net loss of 1,650,000 to the services, a net loss of 4,660,000 persons of both sexes in all ages who either moved away from farms or who are living on places no longer regarded as farms, and a net gain of 1,562,000 thru the excess of births over deaths.

Light Receipts Push Hogs to 10 Day Peak

Abnormally small receipts sent the market for hogs to a 10 day peak yesterday in the Chicago stock yards. All except the heaviest hogs, held down by an OPA price ceiling of $14 per 100 pounds, made new advances of 15 to 25 cents which brought the top to $14.65, within 10 cents of the highest level any hogs are permitted to sell under the dual ceiling trading.

The sharp curtailment of supplies was attributed to last week's break as well as farmers' staying home to vote. Only 37,500 hogs arrived in Chicago the first two days this week, a decline of 26 per cent from last week and 59 per cent less than a year ago.

The 20 largest markets received 59,000 fewer than a week earlier and 121,000 fewer than in 1943.

Average Far Above Year Ago.

Chicago buyers paid an average of $14.40, 15 cents more than on Monday and 60 cents above last week's low. The average stood 70 cents higher than a year ago and compared with $14.20 two years ago.

The $14.65 top was paid for selected 200 to 230 pound spring pigs. Most good 190 to 270 pounders brought $14.40 to $14.60.

Late weakness cut the top to $14.55 on closing trades and about 2,000 hogs were unsold. Almost all butchers and sows weighing more than 270 pounds sold at their $14 ceiling.

Many Unsold in Late Weakness.

Best steers met good demand at steady to strong prices, but others were slow and barely steady. Most sales were at $14.50 to $17.75, with $18.35 the top. Steady to strong prices prevailed for beef cows, canners, and cutters. Calves were weak and bulls strong to 25 cents higher. Lambs sold steady for the eighth straight day, with $14.40 the top.

Packard Plant Shut in Union Racial Dispute

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 7 (AP).—The Packard Motor Car company said today it had closed its entire plant, which employs some 39,000 persons, because a dispute involving several hundred metal polishers had produced an "unbalanced material condition" which made impossible the production of aircraft and marine engines.

International representatives of the United Automobile Workers [CIO], which has a working contract with the company, have been attempting to settle the dispute ever since the polishers walked off their jobs Friday night, a company spokesman said.

Same Group Strikes Again.

Production was not hampered over the week-end because no work was scheduled for Saturday, the spokesman said, but on the night shift Monday the same group again walked out. He said it would be impossible to operate the plant until the polishers return.

The company spokesman described the dispute only as involving a refusal of the polishers to "abide by the union's contract."

Object to Promoting Negroes.

George F. Addes, secretary-treasurer of the CIO-UAW international union, said the dispute centered on objection of the polishers to the upgrading of Negro workers to the position of metal polishers. Urging the polishers to return to work, Addes said "the union will not tolerate any violation of its constitution, which calls for fair treatment regardless of race."

Eight thousand CIO-UAW workers resumed production at Continental Motors corporation and the Freuhauf Trailer company. At Continental 7,000 had been idle several days because of a strike over an incentive pay system. The Freuhauf workers agreed to submit the discharge of two employes to collective bargaining procedure.

SEARS REPORTS 15.4 PCT. RISE IN OCTOBER SALES

Sears, Roebuck & Co. yesterday reported sales in October rose 15.4 per cent from year ago volume to $102,023,805, an all-time record for October volume and the largest single month's business thus far in its fiscal year, which began Feb. 1. Representing the third highest volume for any month, it was surpassed in December, 1941, by sales of $119,069,477, and in December, 1942, when $106,940,659 was reported. Nine months' sales to Oct. 31 were $711,382,330, up 13.7 per cent.

Walgreen company sales last month totaled $10,063,050, a gain of 3.5 per cent over the $9,723,222 in October, 1943. Sales in the first 10 months of this year were $97,180,190, up 5.9 per cent from the $91,802,481 in the corresponding 1943 period.

Butler Brothers reported consolidated sales in October totaled $11,760,492, up 9.63 per cent from a year earlier and a high for any month this year. Ten months' sales to Oct. 31 aggregated $97,993,704, 2 per cent below the 1943 corresponding period.

BUICK TO RAISE RATE OF PLANE ENGINE OUTPUT

Army Orders Two New Types.

The Buick Aviation division of the General Motors corporation plans accelerated production of airplane engines at its Melrose Park and Flint, Mich., plants, Harlow H. Curtice, general manager, disclosed yesterday. He said that the Buick plants have turned out their 60,000th Pratt and Whitney twin Wasp engine.

Harlow H. Curtice.

To turn out these engines, which total 72,000,000 horsepower, the plants operated at a high rate thruout the summer. At one time it said output was exceeding 3,300 engines a month. The accelerated output is necessary to meet new schedules set by the army air forces.

Horsepower Is Increased.

The new army orders cover two new types of Pratt and Whitney engines of increased horsepower. One is for Liberator bombers and the other will power big Douglas C-54 military transports of the type built at the Douglas Chicago plant.

Curtice said that the tooling up for the new engines, which required more than 1,200 new machines, did not interfere with regular production of the original engines. The new engines are expected to give the Liberators greater ceiling and range and generally improved performance.

57 Missions; Same Engines.

Reports from the front confirm the good work done by Buick employes, Buick officials said. An outstanding record was reported for the Liberator "Midge," operating with the 8th air force in England, whose four Buick built engines have accumulated a total of 618½ hours —57 missions—without a change. Of the hours flown, 376 4-10 hours were operational missions when the pilot was not able to "nurse the engines along" or to handle them so as to get maximum life.

BROTHERS FROM WINNETKA FIGHT JAPS TOGETHER

Go Thru Campaign on Peleliu Island.

PELELIU, Palau, Islands—[Delayed].—The tow-headed Reed brothers, of 211 Woodlawn av., Hubbard Woods, Winnetka, Ill., were going to take it easy this time.

Veterans of Guadalcanal and New Britain, marine Pvt. Leonard Reed, 24, and Corp. Roy Reed, 22, argued on the ship coming in that they'd just about run out of luck. On Peleliu they'd keep their heads down.

"Aw, those fellows been talking like that ever since I've had 'em," said their sergeant. "Keep an eye on 'em—they get into more hot spots than any other two mortals I've ever seen."

Japs Aren't the Same.

This campain is over and the Reed brothers are in just about the same shape they were the week after Pearl Harbor, when Leonard and Roy joined up. You couldn't say the same thing for the Japs they met.

Those plans for cautious behavior went overboard about the time their amphibian tractor ground across the reef and dumped them on shore.

"Everything seemed to happen at once," Leonard said. "A mortar shell hit the tractor as we piled out of it. The Japs opened up on us with a machine gun from a pillbox about 50 yards away."

Snipers Open Up.

With other marines, including one with a flame thrower, the Reeds worked their way along the beach until they were close to the Jap nest. The flame thrower heated the pillbox and four Japs charged out. The marine rifles cut them down before they'd gone 10 feet.

"Snipers opened up from all around," Roy said, "and it was every man for himself. All I wanted was a nice comfortable foxhole where I could take it easy. The Japs didn't see it that way."

That first day and night when the marines were battling to carve out a narrow beachhead under a hail of mortar and sniper fire, the Reed brothers worked on mop up squads, as stretcher bearers and ammunition carriers. The second day they went to their separate jobs, Leonard as a stretcher bearer from the front to the beach aid station, Roy as armorer for light artillery pieces.

Leonard worked without sleep until late in the afternoon of the third day.

Runs Into Barrage.

"Place a wounded man on the stretcher," he said, "run until you'd drop, then get up and run some more. Every time I'd feel like quitting I'd think of the kids I was carrying."

And finally he got his rest.

"I was on my way back to the lines, across the airport," he said, "when the Japs started throwing a heavy barrage in front of us. We turned back and the barrage started to 'walk' our way. We ran and the barrage 'ran.' I dived for a foxhole on the edge of the airport and a shell went off at my feet. I lain of the club.

landed on the three guys in the foxhole. They broke my fall."

Their outfit was relieved in the final stage of the campaign. Roy was writing a letter to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Reed. It was his turn, he explained. Their father is captain of the First National Bank of Chicago police force.

"This is to tell 'em we're okay," Roy said. "Really wouldn't have to write it tho. They know we're all right, we promised to be careful."

HONOR YANK WHO TRIED TO RESCUE BURNING TANK

HDQ., ARMY FORCES, PACIFIC OCEAN AREAS, Nov. 7 (AP).—Sgt. John J. "one-man-gang" O'Hara of Little Falls, N. J., has been awarded the silver star decoration for repeatedly sending his tank, under fire, behind enemy lines in a vain attempt to rescue his platoon leader and the latter's crew, trapped in their burning tank on Saipan.

"Sgt. O'Hara's platoon leader and his entire crew were cut off behind the Japanese lines," said the award. "On six occasions that day he took his tank deep into the Japanese lines and dismounted, making a personal reconnaissance on foot, under fire, trying to determine their location.

"Late in the afternoon he discovered the body of the officer and two bodies of the crew members and the burned out tank." The platoon leader was Lt. Louis W. Fleck, Racine, Wis.

ILLINOISAN ONE OF BUSIEST MEN IN PEARL HARBOR

PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—When Joseph M. Sharp, World War I. veteran of Casey, Ill., signed up for a pipefitter's job here a year and a half ago he had no idea he'd turn out to be one of the busiest men in the navy yard.

Besides his regular work he holds several other positions of responsibility. Foremost are the presidency of the State of Illinois club, the largest such organization in this major housing area of 10,000 war workers, and acting commander of the Pearl Harbor American Legion post.

One of his first acts was to participate in a formal ceremony at the area's Hall of Flags, where, with military dignitaries present, the Illinois state flag was hung in an honor position. Later he was made chaplain of the club.

YANKS IN INDIA TURN A SQUALID HOUSE INTO CLUB

AN AIR SERVICE COMMAND BASE IN INDIA.—Western civilization was introduced in India's Assam valley in one week. This feat was accomplished by a squadron of air service command enlisted men. They transformed a dilapidated bamboo house into an enlisted men's recreation club.

It all started after months of living in a monsoon flooded tent city that was bare of recreation and diversion. It was bare of everything except malaria infested mosquitoes and a persistent downpour of rain. To find relief from the montonous patter of rain on their tents they had to wallow in knee deep mud.

Recreation Needed.

This service group unit of the air service command was ready and willing to service the huge transports and fighter planes. The men were proud of their issuing, monitoring, and supervision of the record air freight load sent over the "hump" to China by ATC planes, which evoked high praise from the commander of the C. B. I. [China, Burma, India] air service command.

But just as "all work and no play make Jack a dull boy," all war and no relaxation make G. I. Joe an inefficient soldier. Between war time duties, this "infantry of the air" unit wanted a place to gather, a place where they could swap stories about their families and the girls they left behind, and engage in army bull sessions about the trials and tribulations of war in another world. If they could do their talking over cool soft drinks and foaming glasses of beer, so much the better. It might even improve their conversation, they surmised.

But there was no material. So the soldiers proceeded to adopt the famed Yank slogan, "If you don't have—improvise!"

Troops Work at Night.

With a fervor that left the natives breathless with its pace, this service group unit gave a demonstration of American teamwork and initiative that was only equalled by the finished product. Digging into a salvage dump, they came up with sheet metal for the bar, odds and ends of lumber, half cans of paint, and old door lock hasps.

The interior decorating was placed in the capable hands of a former architect. An elaborate aluminum-top bar was conceived. Staff Sgt. George J. Tranck, Chicago artist, produced several murals sharing both a local setting and a cosmopolitan one of the city the artist had left behind.

The problem of indirect lighting was solved by Pvt. Lawrence B. Larson of Esterville, Ia., an electrician who draped large coolie hats beneath the light bulbs to produce the subdued incandescence known as "atmosphere."

COLONEL KNOWS HIS PLACE: IT'S OUT IN FRONT

Western Springs Pilot 'Iron Man' of Air.

A U. S. TROOP CARRIER BASE, European Theater of Operations.—Col. William B. Whitacre, of Western Springs, Chicago suburb, a troop carrier group commander, is gaining a reputation among troop carrier units in this theater of being an iron man. The colonel, who is almost old enough to be the father of 90 per cent of his pilots, has flown in the lead aircraft of every combat mission that his veteran group has made here.

His latest "first" was to lead his group, and all others, over enemy lines with the first paratroops of the 1st allied air borne army to jump and land in Holland. The colonel had previously distinguished himself and his group by towing the first gliders that landed in Normandy on D-day.

Calls Leading a Duty.

Col. Whitacre isn't satisfied to lead his men on the first mission of any air borne invasion; on subsequent missions of his group he's always in the lead aircraft.

In the recent invasion of the Low Lands, Col. Whitacre's group was assigned the task of leading the American troop carrier units across the channel and into Holland with endless streams of gliders and resupply aircraft for four straight days.

"Why doesn't the colonel take a rest?" remarked a pilot when Col. Whitacre called all his flyers together for a briefing at his lead aircraft just before taking off for Holland with his second string of gliders two days after he had led the group into Belgium with the Paratroopers.

"Flying over enemy occupied territory is no different from making a pleasure flight between New York and Chicago on Sunday afternoon. The only thing you have to worry about is that one of those Germans may get lucky with a rifle or machine gun and put a hole in your gas tank. Anyhow, when my group flies it is my duty to be in front."

"If the colonel goes out on all these missions, even when he doesn't have to, then I for one will follow him whenever he makes a trip to Hitler's front yard. He has what it takes."
